—CANADIAN LEGION TO EXTEND WELCOME — Far-reaching plans are being made by the O'Leary Branch of the Canadian Legion and by the citizens of this progressive village in West Prince to extend a real welcome to the members of the Canadian Legion from the Province who will assemble in O'Leary on Labor Day for their annual one day's convention. Strong committees of the local branch of the Legion under the direction of the President, Mr. Bayfield Ellis of O'Leary, are leaving no stone unturned to make the convention a most enjoyable one for the Legionaries. The business men and the citizens plan to decorate their properties and homes. The local troop of Boy Scouts were selling flags on Monday, Aug. 29th for this purpose. The local Women's Institute will serve meals to approximately 300 people in the new O'Leary School. The Provincial Convention will be held in the Vergun Theatre and the business meeting will be held at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. At noon the delegates will parade to the monument for the laying of wreaths. A band from Charlottetown, the 17th Recce will be present and a band concert will be given in the afternoon. In the evening a banquet will be held and a dance planned.—O.

ICKWELL GREEN, Bedfordshire, England — (CP) — A new house under construction here will have a hatched roof so it will blend with existing housing in the neighborhood.

MEMORIAL SERVICE HELD

Annual memorial service was held in the Central Bedouque United Baptist Church on Sunday morning. The pulpit was banked with lovely baskets of gladioli and mixed flowers. J. B. Lewis sang a solo "There Is No Death". The pastor, Rev. C. A. Britten preached a very appropriate sermon for the occasion to a large congregation and visitors. Male quartette sang "Beautiful Land" by J. B. Lewis, Ray Lidstone, Roy Campbell and Howard Schurman. Alton Leard presided at the organ. After the service in the church the congregation marched to the cemetery led by the choir singing "Some Time The Silver Chord Will Break". Service closed by the quartette singing "Lead Kindly Light".—B.
