—BEAVER FOUND.—A somewhat unusual find was made yesterday by Mr. Dan McKinnon of the Savings Bank. While walking along the shore near Fort Edward Battery, Victoria Park, he found the body of a beaver which had recently died. The carcass was in good shape and had evidently been dead not more than two days. The skin is thought to be of considerable value although somewhat out of season. Where it came from is a mystery as the nearest beaver ranch is at Mount Albion, a rather long walk for a beaver. The body was brought to the City last night and will be skinned to-day by an expert.

—45 PAIRS Women's Pumps in patent, gun metal, brown and grey suede assorted 2 1/2 to 6 worth up to $3.50, to clear on Saturday at $1.95 per pair. No appropriation. Sinclair & Stewart, Ltd. 9589-5-6m21e11

—SCHOONERS CLEARED. The first Schooner sailings from Summerside this season were the schooners Kelly and Three Bells, both owned by Messrs Sampson Grady and Joseph Read. They left Summerside Wednesday morning but on account of ice in the straits were obliged to return to the mouth of the harbor where they remained for the night. They tried it again Thursday morning, both bound for Pictou. C.

—PROHIBITION CASE.—Before Stipendiary Tanton at Alberton on Wednesday, a prohibition case for first offence against Andrew Graves came up for hearing, occupying the attention of the court all day and part of the evening. The proceedings at times were quite lively, seven witnesses being examined, one of whom the Magistrate had to commit for several hours in order to get satisfactory answers, which he gave at the evening session. No evidence to convict was furnished and the case was accordingly dismissed. C.

N MEMORIAM

MISS ANNABELLE BEATON

A gloom was cast over the community when on March 18, 1916, it became known that the gentle spirit of Annabelle second and dearly beloved daughter of Malcolm E. and Sarah Beaton of Flat River had taken its flight to Him who gave it, after a few days illness of pneumonia at the early age of fifteen years. The deceased who was an exceptionally bright and clever young girl, was up to the time of her death, the picture of health and strength and one would naturally imagine she had a long life before her, but alas it was decreed otherwise. Always of a cheerful disposition, with a friendly word for everybody, and ever evincing a spirit of unselfishness, she was a general favourite with all her acquaintances and particularly with her school mates, all of whom on the day of her funeral came to pay their last tribute of respect to their departed friend and playmate. Of her it may truly be said to know her was to love her. The funeral services were conducted by her Pastor, Rev. John Gillis. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather and the almost impassable state of the roads a very large procession accompanied her remains to the churchyard at St. John's Presbyterian Church, Belfast, where all that was mortal of dear Annabelle was laid to rest. The pall-bearers were Alex. J. Ross, John R. Ross, Wellington Compton, Alex. M. Beaton, Angus Ross and Malcolm A. Beaton. The heartfelt sympathy of the community goes out to the grief-stricken parents, brothers and sisters in their sore bereavement.

eral was largely attended services being conducted by her Pastor Rev. J. H. McHattie who faithfully ministered to her during her illness. The pall bearers were—A. A. McDonald, Andrew E. Dollar, Albert Paul, D. A. McLean, Alex. McDonald and M. McSwen.

MR. GEORGE MURRAY.

The many friends here and elsewhere of the late Mr. George Murray will be sorry to learn of his death which took place at his home 312 McGee St., Winnipeg, on April 10th, 1916. Mr. Murray had been ill for three months and had suffered the amputation of his right leg, but high hopes were entertained for his recovery and his death came as a severe shock to his family and friends. He was fifty-three years of age and leaves a widow and one son Lewis besides two daughters Bessie, Mrs. Leslie Ault and Miss Annie to mourn the loss of a loving husband and father. Mr. Murray was born at Clifton, New London, a son of the late Mr. Richard Murray. He was in business in Kensington for seventeen years prior to his removal to Winnipeg. In the five years he resided in Winnipeg he conducted a successful business and made many new friends and his hospitable home was always open to friends new and old. His funeral was held on April 12th, the service being conducted by his pastor, Rev. Dr. Christie who bore strong testimony to the beautiful Christian life of the departed one. The pall bearers were—D. A. Sutherland, Thomas Taylor, Bert Clarke, Joseph Whitehead, William Pound and Lemuel Fowler.

Servant of God, well done. Rest from thy loved employ. Thy battles fought, thy victories won. Enter thy Master's joy.

MRS. JOHN CANTWELL.

There passed peacefully away at Souris West on April 19th, after a life of piety and virtue, Mrs. Elizabeth Cantwell, wife of the late John Cantwell. She was highly esteemed by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance for her kind and gentle disposition. She bore her last illness with patience and resignation. The troubles of others made her feel sadder than for her own. She leaves three sons and three daughters besides a large circle of friends to mourn the loss of a dutiful, affectionate and loving mother and friend. The sons include James E. of Boston, Mass.; John T. on the old home, and Gordon teaching at Chesham; while the daughters are Mrs. James St. John in Souris West; Mrs. Joseph Heaton, Cookshire, Quebec, and Mrs. Richard F. St. John in Souris East. On Saturday 22nd, her remains followed by a large concourse of people despite the almost impassable state of the roads were conveyed to St. Alexis Church, Rollo Bay, where the last sad rites were performed by the Pastor, Rev. Dr. Walker. She was

MRS. NELSON MOORE.

The people of Brookfield mourn for one of their dearly beloved young friends whom the angel of death called from their midst on the 8th of April 1916, Annie Isabelle dearly beloved and only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Beaton and wife of Nelson Moore in the 31st year of her age. After two months illness her gentle spirit departed to him who gave it. The deceased lived a most exemplary life, was admitted to full membership in the Presbyterian Church, Brookfield at the early age of sixteen under the ministrations of Rev. George Millar. Having an earnest desire to work for her heavenly Master she undertook to teach a class in the Sabbath School in which labor of love she took great delight. Her amiable and peace loving disposition endeared her to all who knew her but alas death claimed her in the prime of life. She died fully trusting in the merits of a crucified and risen Redeemer. Great sympathy is felt for the sorrowing ones she left behind. She leaves to mourn her grief-stricken parents and husband her infant son which she committed to the care of her mother also three brothers now in active service, John A. and Charles Spurgeon enlisted in Vancouver, B. C. when the war was declared crossed overseas with the first Canadian contingent. John A. was wounded at Ypres on the 24th of April 1915. After being in the hospital in England he was sent home and is now receiving special treatment in the military hospital in Halifax. Charles S. also wounded on the 24th of May last was sent to the hospital in England till the first of October when he returned again to the front. Dan W. enlisted in Edmonton is now under training for overseas service. Her fun-
