"Here's Where I, Protect My Nine Dollar Investment."

Shoes are up 80% to 100% in price—and going higher. Rubbers cost practically the same as before the war. A good pair of shoes runs away with as much money as five to ten pairs of equally good rubbers.

Yet one of these pairs of rubbers, worn when needed, will make a pair of shoes last half as long again—perhaps twice as long—for nothing destroys shoe-leather like getting wet.

So the money spent in rubbers is returned several times over in the saving of shoes alone, and again in the prevention of colds and worse, with the attendant expense and danger.

Beyond these personal advantages, wearing rubbers is a patriotic duty. Leather is growing scarcer, while its need for the soldiers is as great or greater than ever. Every pair of shoes we save, by releasing that much leather, helps a bit toward winning the war.

THE SABLE I.—The S. S. Sable I. arrived in Charlottetown yesterday at one o'clock. She will sail about noon today with a full general cargo of oats, potatoes, etc. for Newfoundland.

STEAMER OVERDUE.—The Imperial Oil Company's steamer Imperial, with a consignment of oil for Charlottetown was due to arrive at this port on Tuesday, but up to last evening no word of her had been received.

PLANT LINE.—The Plant Line steamer Halifax will sail from Boston for Charlottetown, on Saturday December 9th, arriving at Charlottetown on Tuesday December 12th; returning will leave Charlottetown for Boston, on Wednesday Dec. 13th. Space on this steamer being in such demand it would be well for shippers to book early. 3257-12-6M21.

INTERESTING NUMBER OF CANADA.—The Guardian is indebted to Major F. B. McRae for a copy of the last "Canada," London edition, containing a number of excellent photographs in which several Canadians figure. A photo of the Canadian Y. M. C. A. Officers includes Capt. Cross formerly of Charlottetown, while others show Canadians attending a game of football; another, Canadians at the Lord Mayor's show. In the list of honours recorded in this issue, Sgt. P. H. Crockett of this province is included among those who won the D. C. M.

REPORTED MISSING.—A letter dated November 22nd, written in England, by Capt. James Walker to Mrs. Walker, in Charlottetown, states that his son, Austin H., is reported missing from October 10th, last. Austin was in the Bank in Sydney before enlisting. He went across seas as a Captain in the 106th Regiment, from Nova Scotia; he was then transferred to the 13th Battalion, according to the rank of Lieutenant in order to get to the front and on the firing line. It was in this same 13th Battalion, that his brother Gilbert was killed in action, as reported sometime ago in this press. Austin is a splendid young man of exceptional ability and exemplary character.

THE LATE EDGAR A. FINLAYSON.—The Ottawa Journal says:—Although at no time a resident of the Capital, Edgar A. Finlayson, who was reported on Saturday as having fallen in action on the battlefields of France, is well known to many in Ottawa. He is a brother of Mr. George E. Finlayson, of the Finance Department, and son of Captain Allan Finlayson, Charlottetown. P. E. I. He enlisted with a British Columbia Highland battalion and was given a stripe with the rank of lance-corporal before sailing overseas. He was one of the crack shots of the battalion. The late Edgar Finlayson was killed instantly by the bursting of a shell in the act of moving a Lewis gun with two others on November 1st.

L. O. L. BANQUET.—The banquet given by the members of the Coronation L. O. L. No. 2262 in their hall Millville on Thursday evening last was a most enjoyable time. Almost every member and their lady friends being present besides some invited guests among whom were Rev. E. S. Weeks, Fowal, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Wright, Charlottetown, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. T. Crawford, Charlottetown, Mr. G. D. Wright, Grand master of Loyal Orange Association, presided and a programme was rendered consisting of opening selection, God save our men, Solo—Mr. Ilett Richards, Reading—Miss Grace Jenkins, Address—E. S. Weeks, Reading—Miss Katie Lea, Solo—Mr. Ilett Richards, Reading Mr. Milton Furness, Address—by the chairman. Each number was rendered in excellent form and proved a constant source of entertainment. The company then sat down to a well loaded table and partook of goose and the many good things prepared by the ladies. The toasts were inspiring and of high order after the usual vote of thanks to the ladies and chairman and the singing of the National Anthem, the company dispersed well satisfied that the evening was well spent.

UP-TO-DATE FARMING.—Mr. J. R. Dinns, has established an electric power service for threshing on his splendid farm on Mount Edward Road. Some time ago Mr. Dinns also installed a motor for water supply for his stock.

VALUABLE ANIMALS.—Mr. John Tweedy has imported from England this fall two Cotswold lambs. They were purchased from Russel Swanwick, Cirencester, one of the leading sheep dealers in the Old Country. That those lambs are fine ones may be inferred from the fact that one of them cost Mr. Tweedy eighty dollars.

HANDSOME GREETING CARDS.—Greeting cards have been received in this city from members of the 105th Battalion. The crest of the Regiment engraved on the outside is very artistic. On a sort of scroll surmounted by the crown is the inscription, "Prince Edward Island Highlanders, Overseas," surrounded with maple leaves and the P. E. I. coat of arms enclosed.

SCHOOL DEBATE.—On the afternoon of Monday, Dec. 4th, the Queen Square Debating Club held their session. The subject was "Resolved that Winter is more beneficial to man than Summer." The Resolution was defeated by a vote of 19 to 13. The leaders of the Pro. side were J. McQuaid, F. Kilfoxy, H. Doherty, S. Callaghan. The speakers on the Con. side were A. Francis, P. McQuaid, W. Zath, W. Parkman. The Critic was Leonard McIsaac.

FURTHER PARTICULARS.—Mr. A. C. McLeod, Park Corner, received the following cable December 2nd: "Regret to inform you Harold dangerously ill; receiving best medical attention; Major Peake. Cables were at once sent to his uncle, Mr. H. C. McLeod, now in London, and to Major Peake and on the 4th following cable received: London: "Harold at Isolation Hospital, Aldershot, has bro spinal fever, not especially severe case. Chances of recovery stated at 60 per cent." (Signed) McLeod. H. A. McLeod enlisted in 5th Siege Battery, now 272nd, April 20th, and went with Battery September 25th, for England. This case is exceptionally sad as his only brother, J. Fred, 28th Battalion, was wounded at St. Eloi, April 7th, compound shrapnel wound, right shoulder, after being all winter in the trenches, and is still in Hospital at Epsom, England.

INTERESTED IN CABINET CHANGES.—There is at least one lady in Charlottetown who was more than ordinarily interested in the British Cabinet changes and who has taken with a good deal of regret that Mr. Andrew Bonar Law had declined the honour of forming the new Cabinet, as had he accepted, she would have had the privilege of knowing that she had more than once held the Premier of Great Britain in her arms. The lady is Mrs. J. B. Russ, of "The Russ," and among her treasures there are a few more highly prized than her photos of the Law family, including one of Andrew Bonar as a child. The Law family lived in Rexton, N. B., the father, Rev. James Law having been pastor of the Presbyterian congregation there for thirty years and were near neighbors and intimate friends of the Russ family. Mr. and Mrs. Russ were married by Rev. Mr. Law, baby Bonar being present at the wedding. Mrs. Law, formerly Miss Annie Kidson, of Glasgow, Scotland, Bonar's mother, died when he was about three months old. Thereafter the child was cared for by his aunt, Miss Janet Kidson, who was a veritable mother to him and who looked carefully after his training and education. The father afterwards married Miss Sophie Wood, of Rexton, and later removed to Londonderry, Ireland, where he died and where Mrs. Law and her two daughters still live.
