Boys YOU CAN WIN And Girls This Beautiful Shetland Pony And Cart and $100.00 CASH IN PRIZES

Only Boys and Girls under 16 years of age allowed to compete

THE GREAT BRITISH NAVY PUZZLE FOR BRIGHT BOYS AND GIRLS

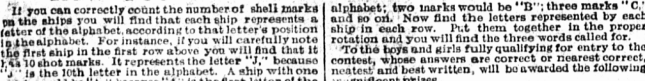

Britain's greatest Admiral with a fleet of his finest ships is seen below, returning home after having attacked the enemy and beaten him. During the fight many shells from the enemy's broadsides hit our ships and left their marks, but did little damage. From the marks left by the shot and shell you can tell the brave Admiral's name, and the names of two of his finest ships. What are they? Puzzle them out and send your answers in to us today.

No. 1.—A Famous British Admiral

No. 2.—Britain's Greatest Dreadnought

No. 3.—A Famous British Battle Cruiser

HOW YOU CAN SOLVE THIS GREAT PUZZLE

If you can correctly count the number of shell marks on the ships you will find that each ship represents a letter of the alphabet. For instance, if you carefully note the first ship in the first row above you will find that it has 14 shell marks. It represents the letter "N" because "N" is the 14th letter in the alphabet. A ship with one shell mark would be "A," because "A" is the first letter of the alphabet.

PORK MARKET.—Hogs, were bought yesterday at 10 1/2c. with a very firm market. A good many thin hogs are still offering, and those were taken at considerable discount. Under present conditions it would seem advisable for farmers to hold their pork until properly finished, to the mutual benefit of themselves and packers.

It is sixteen years since he was out last from the Yukon country and he is at present, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Beck, visiting friends in P. E. Island.

He was not a second time a got liquor from Wm. Matthews, for which he paid $1.50. Defendant had no witnesses and was found guilty and fined $100 and costs or 3 months in prison.

OFFICE BREAKDOWN.—Some factory managers run their plants always on the verge of a breakdown. Machines rattle and bang along in some kind of shape until one over-driven under-lubricated unit lies down and quits. Then an expensive tie-up. Efficient competitors love a factory run in this foolish way.

Just so do your competitors for promotion think of the man who drives himself too near the precipice of nervous breakdown. Whoever heard of promotions going to wrecks? If lucky, they get a holiday. More likely a blue-ticket.

To-day the company leave for Alberton, where they play a two-nights' engagement under the auspices of Happyland, returning to Summerside for a performance of Saturday. WEDDING BELLS.—The Methodist Church of Milford, Mass., was the scene of a very pretty wedding yesterday, Nov. 26th, when the pastor Rev. Walter Whitney, united in marriage Winnie Mae MacFarlane, of Marshfield, P. E. I., and Frank Baxter Boyver, of Mt. Stewart, P. E. I. The bride was unattended and looked good in a gown of white silk crepe de chene with lace and chiffon trimmings and wore an embroidered veil with wreath of lilies of the valley and carried a bouquet of white carnations. Her gown away suit was of brown broadcloth with fur trimmings and velvet hat to match, with canary colored trim. At the ceremony the organ solo drove in auto to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Temple, cousins of the bride where a number of invited guests received the newly wedded couple, after which they sat down to a sumptuous supper served in the hostess' usual style. After the ceremony were the choice, among them some small cheques; also a beautiful silk seat, the groom's gift to the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Boyver intend spending their honeymoon in Kingston, Ont. The guests of Prof. Lester W. Gill, of Queen's University, who were the bride they will reside in Milford, Mass., where the groom holds a good position.

BIG DAY AT HOLMAN'S.—Holman's special train from Charlottetown to Summerside yesterday morning was a pretty busy one, with many and passengers. The time it reached Summerside it was filled to capacity. The regular trains from the East and West also carried large crowds. Although it is Holman's busiest day in the vicinity of town, extra men and women for the day the staff was taxed to its utmost from the arrival of the first train until shortly before the departure of the last. The firm provided a goose dinner for their employees with a chef and waiters, and the lunch for the men and to save the smaller doctor bills, the third floor of the store in a temporary dining-room nicely fitted up for such occasions. Holman's are most optimistic as regards the success of their "Eastern Day" and the magnificent response the public gave their announcement. At the hour the Guardian enquired concerning the day the accounting department was in the midst of estimating the cash but the firm reports that if the day was not the biggest day in its history it was one of the best in a 68 years of business. Holman's enterprising was certainly magnificently rewarded and was a magnificent expression of the confidence of the public in the various inducements offered from time to time by this go-ahead firm.—C.

HALF WAY AROUND GLOBE.—The St. John Globe of Dec. 6th, says: A visitor from far distant Manila, in the Philippine Islands, is rare in St. John and the interest is quickened in the fact that the visitor is a native of the Marikina Province. This is Miss L. M. Owen, who came to St. John on Sunday aboard the Scandinavian to return for a time to her father's residence in Charlottetown. She has within the last three months made a journey more than half way round the globe from Manila. She is a native of Mr. A. R. Owen, who for the past twenty years has been in Chink for the C. P. R. and has recently spent three months in Petrograd on service that may be guessed at, but which is not divulged. Miss Owen told a Globe reporter this morning that she was in the Philippines for the "Bishop Brown" and has a pretty wide experience of the "islands." She says that Manila is now pretty well civilized and like most of the orient towns, the Spanish element is diminishing there and the only disturbance now are among the "Moros" of the South. Miss Owen recently made an interesting but difficult journey into the mountain regions of Luzon, to what is considered the smallest well traveled town in the world. She had to travel for four days each of seven or eight hours on horseback to reach the place, and often the trail was so narrow and difficult that even the sure-footed beasts had to be led. It is a land much given to hurricanes and it seems nothing for one hundred bridges to be swept away in one night. Miss Owen left on the 1 o'clock train for Charlottetown.

SHIPPING.—The S.S. Senlac is due in Summerside today and will load a part cargo for Newfoundland consisting of 1,500 bags oats and 200 bags potatoes besides a number of cattle and sheep. The schr. Arsenault, Abram's Village, received a card from their son, Augustin, who is in the trenches, stating that his wound is not serious, and that he expects to get discharged from the hospital soon.—The many friends of Mr. Joseph P. Arsenault are glad to see him out again, after being laid up with a sprained foot.—M.

SCOTCHFORT AND THEREABOUTS.—Mr. H. Hughes, Scotchfort was in the city Saturday.—Mr. John McBride, Scotchfort, returned home Friday evening after spending a few days visiting friends in Charlottetown.—Mr. Joseph McKeown, Glenroy, returned home Saturday evening after spending a few days visiting in the city the guest of his sister Mrs. Duffy.—Miss Hattie Gillis, Charlottetown, spent the week-end visiting friends in Mount Stewart, the guest of Miss Tena McDonald.—Mr. Joseph McLeod, Mount Stewart, who went west on the harvest excursion a few months ago, returned home Friday.—The S. S. Harland which ran up to Haden's wharf from Charlottetown every Friday during the open navigation did not call there last Friday or will not, your correspondent is informed, for the remainder of the season, owing to not being able to dock there on account of an obstruction being in the way. The loss of the boat not calling will be keenly felt by her many patrons here and particularly at this season of the year, when the bulk of shipping is to be done.—S.

King George's

NAVY PLUG. Has a delicious, non-irritating, sweet taste—and it is universally recognized that sweetened tobacco is much more healthful than the old fashion "strong", unsweetened plug.

It leaves a long, lingering flavor and guards the teeth from the ravages of "acid mouth", the cause of nearly all tooth decay.
