Tells How Best To Boost the Maritimes

C. LIONEL HANINGTON SAYS
LECTURES NEEDED IN ENGLAND

(Canadian Press)
ST. JOHN, Dec. 11.—That the Maritime Provinces should maintain throughout Great Britain a large body of lecturers such as the Canadian Pacific Railway maintains to advertise the West of Canada was the opinion expressed by C. Lionel Hanington, President of the London Canadian Club, who has been visiting Dorchester and Moncton, and purchasing black foxes in Prince Edward Island, before he sailed Sunday on his return to Great Britain. Mr. Hanington, who is closely in touch with Canadian relations at the seat of Empire, said that the Maritime Provinces need in order to attract British settlers with capital, is systematic honest representation of the facilities that the Eastern Provinces of Canada have to offer both as to port facilities from shipping standpoint, and more particularly what it has to offer in the way of education, religion and social advantages as compared with the West of Canada. There should be an absolutely authentic compilation of lands available, in these Provinces both Crown and private lands, which may be purchased at reasonable prices.

Calls it Tariff of Abominations

(Canadian Press)
NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—The New York World says editorially: "The Canadian Government says that after December 31 no more rights will be granted in Dominion ports to American fishermen, except those secured by treaty. This is in retaliation for duties on fish and fish products increased or imposed in the tariff of abominations. Thus Congress raised international relations along with the price of food."

ANOTHER DARING ROBBERY COMMITTED ON KENT STREET

Mrs. H. J. Houle's Residence Entered And
Notes and Valuables to the Amount of $7,000 Stolen.

Another daring robbery at a private residence was reported to the Police authorities yesterday by Mrs. H. J. Houle, this time involving a total amount of $7,000 in bank-notes, bonds and valuables. Although the robbery was only discovered yesterday it is probable that the crime was committed either on Saturday or Sunday, as Mrs. Houle had been at home since that time. On Saturday she was out in the afternoon and evening, and she had gone to church on Sunday leaving her home unoccupied. The stolen articles were kept in a small walnut box locked in a desk in Mrs. Houle's bedroom. The keys were left in the lock of the desk, and it was easy to secure access once the criminals had got into the house. A strict investigation by the police yesterday revealed no evidence of anyone having gained a forcible entrance. Following as it does other recent robberies of a smaller nature, yesterday's daring theft has excited citizens of Charlottetown and it is hoped that every effort will be made to trace the guilty parties and bring them to justice. Following is a list of the articles stolen from Mrs. Houle: $300 in notes. One American ten dollar note. Gold watch belonging to the late Mr. Houle. Mrs. Houle's gold watch and long chain. Another lady's gold chain. Lady's gold brooch and pair of gold studs. Necklace and pearls. (Amethysts). Six bonds of $1,000 each, 5 per cent, expiration period, 1943. One City debenture bond of $1,000. Mrs. Houle's bank-book with savings. A lady's gold brooch, set with amethyst, which was at first thought to be stolen, was found later. It had not been in the box with the other articles.

BALDWIN WILL CONVENE PARLIAMENT JANUARY 8TH

(Canadian Press)
LONDON, Dec. 11.—The text of the communication containing the Baldwin cabinet's decision to carry out until parliament meets reads: "After careful consideration of constitutional precedents, and their bearing on the situation which has arisen as a result of the general elections, the cabinet decided unanimously today that it was their constitutional duty to meet parliament at the earliest possible moment. Parliament therefore will convene on January 8th." One of the factors which is said to have influenced Premier Baldwin to remain at his post until parliament assemblies was his desire to clear up certain matters of foreign policy which were inaugurated by his ministry, notably the treaty authorizing the American government to confiscate contraband liquors in British ships beyond the three-mile limit and the settlement of the Tangier dispute. These are pointed to as among the achievements of the present cabinet in reaction to a large water-front property and 116 acres of farm and wood land in the country of Cape Breton. It was acquired by the Cunard interests about 100 years ago.

DROWNED AT TORMENTINE

Captain John J. Dunlop, Well Known Dredge Officer, Lost His Life.

ST. JOHN, Dec. 11.—Captain John J. Dunlop, well known dredge captain, was drowned Saturday evening last at Cape Tormentine, N. B., where he had charge of dredging operations there and at Borden, P. E. I., for the Federal Department of Railways and Canals. As near as can be ascertained, Captain Dunlop was returning from the town to the dredge Tormentine, which is being laid up there for the winter. He was carrying a lantern. The lantern was found on a narrow board walk leading to the dredge about 6:30 o'clock Sunday morning by the dredge watchman, who found Captain Dunlop's cabin unoccupied when he went to call him Sunday morning. The watchman noticed a cap floating in the water near the dock and, on recovering it, recognized it as Captain Dunlop's. He immediately notified others of his discovery and search was begun. The men grappled all day Sunday without success but about 11:30 o'clock Monday morning the body was recovered. It will be forwarded to St. John for interment. Born at Port Colborne, Ont., in 1863, Captain Dunlop was probably one of the best known dredge captains on the Atlantic coast. During his career he had charge of many important dredging operations in New York, Boston, Halifax and Yarmouth. At Montreal several years ago he had charge of the dredging of the channel and berth for Montreal's floating dry dock at Vanville. This work was done by the Federal Department of Marine and Fisheries with two of the largest dipper dredges in the world. Two years ago Captain Dunlop accepted a position in charge of the dredging work in connection with the operation of P. E. Island's car ferry in the Northumberland Straits. His work at this point elicited strong commendation from his superiors and he had been granted several weeks' holidays and was preparing to spend Christmas and part of the winter with his family in St. John. Besides his widow, formerly Miss Clara Durham, of Welland, Ont., the late Captain Dunlop is survived by four sons, John J., Jr., Teskey E., Welland and Hugh, and one daughter, Barbara. One brother, Merritt Dunlop, of Port Colborne, Ont., also survives.

Austrian Cabinet Likely to Fall

League leaders tonight said they were not fearful that the possible fall of the Austrian cabinet would endanger the League's plan for the financial reconstruction of that country.

Friedrich Wilhelm is disregarding his promise to ex-Chancellor Stresemann, and has been receiving at Oels scores of Monarchist leaders. However, as the Reichstag is not yet dissolved, it is not known what his answer to the invitation will be. The Mail and Empire learns he is flirting with the idea. Shareholders Of Home Bank Must Pay Assessment

DOUBLE LIABILITY LIKELY TO BE "NEW YEAR'S PRESENT"
SAYS CLARKSON.

(Canadian Press)
TORONTO, Dec. 11.—The shareholders of the Home Bank can have no hope of escaping the double liability unless they can persuade the Federal Government to come to their assistance. That was the message which G. T. Clarkson liquidator, presented this afternoon before a meeting of fifty or less stockholders who assembled in Massey Hall with the aim of tailing any possible steps for their protection. The greatest point at issue was whether the shareholders would likely be called upon for the double liability, and Mr. Clarkson pointed out that he had no option whatever in the matter, and that either himself, or some other person who may be appointed as permanent liquidator, would be obliged to take the course provided by the Bank Act and by the courts for the collection of as much money as possible to clear up the claims of the depositors and other creditors. "In my opinion, the full double liability will have to be collected if possible," Mr. Clarkson stated. "That would mean an attempt to collect the full $2,000,000, though I consider that 50 per cent of it would be uncollectable. Immediately following the appointment of the permanent liquidator if it can be shown to the court that there is reasonable possibility of the assets of the bank providing sufficient funds to meet the claims of the creditors, the next step will be the application for the enforcement of the double liability clause."
