THE WESTERN GUARDIAN

AGENTS: J. Elmer Murphy, 186 Hanover Street, and George Clow, 125 Ottawa Street.
SUMMERSIDE and PRINCE COUNTY
News, Subscriptions, Advertising

The Guardian may be bought at any of the following stores in Summerside:
Bell Bookstore, Water Street; Gourlies Drugstore, 21 Central Street; Toronto Bakery, Water Street; Mark Gaudet, 67 Granville Street; Vince's Grocery, Russell Street; Alyre Doucette's Grocery, Seconu Street; Island Motor Transport, Water Street.

The Guardian will be delivered to any home in Summerside by Carrier Boy at 3c per day or 18c per week. Phone 289 or 289-2 for this service or give your order to the boy responsible for delivery on your route.

—TAR PAPER, roofing and sheating at Burns', Malpeque.

—WELLINGTON Baby Clinic Thursday, Nov. 25, 2 to 4 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Gallant.

—ANNUAL BAZAAR and Pantry Sale, Presbyterian Church Hall, Kensington, Saturday, November 27th.

—PEARLS. — Beautiful Pearls by La Tusca, Adorna, etc., at Moase Jewellers. 1, 2 and 3 strands from $2.00 up.

—SUCCESSFUL POT-LUCK SUPPER—The Bloomfield United Church Young People's Union held a very successful pot-luck supper in the Sunday School room of the Church on Tuesday night, Nov. 23rd. It was very largely patronized and the young ladies served delicious meals. Proceeds were for the Y.P.U. funds. O

—TO MOVE HOUSE—The Dept. of Public Works has purchased a half acre of land on Royal Avenue in the village of O'Leary from the trustees of the United Church Manse property and will move a house on the land to house the snow-plow. This is a most desirable location, right in the center of O'Leary, and to have the Government snow-plow stationed there will be of immense benefit to O'Leary and surrounding communities. O

Bedeque

Rev. E. Weeks was the speaker in the Presbyterian Church, Summerside, last Sunday, 21st. The evening service was broadcast.

Mr and Mrs. Robert Affleck and Mr. and Mrs. Elliot Bell were visitors to Tryon on Tuesday last. Bed.

Mrs. Gordon Ripley, Bradalbane, P.E.I., was the guest of her uncle Rev. Ernest Weeks and Mrs. Weeks on Tuesday the 23rd. inst.

Mr. Walter Leard Fernwood has purchased a splendid lot from Mr. Albert Weeks, on which he plans to erect a modern house in the not distant future.

The snow last Saturday morning made motoring around here treacherous. Some cars were ditched and one was turned completely upside down at North Bedeque.

—Mr. A. C. Brooks, Fredericton, N.B., spent several days recently with her father, Rev. E. S. Weeks and Mrs. Weeks. She came by plane but returned by train, stopping over at Sackville en-route.

Mr. Hugh Murray who has been in the P.E.I. Hospital, Charlottetown, for several weeks, has returned to his home here. His many friends are pleased to see him in their midst again improved in health.

Mrs. Flossie Lowther was here recently on a brief visit. On her return she was accompanied by her grandson, Arthur Collett, who will spend some time with her in her home in Dorchester, N. B.

The Collett property has been sold to a Mr. Barbour who has been living in the States for some years. He is a native of Prince County, this Province, and is a brother of our Minister of Public Works and Highways.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Willoughby, who spent the past six weeks in this community, have returned to their home in Concord, New Hampshire, U.S.A. They will be missed as they are very genial folk.

Master Ralph Lowther, Carleton, who has been a patient in the Prince County Hospital, has sufficiently recovered from his illness to leave the hospital. He is spending some time with Rev. and Mrs. Crowe, at the Manse.

—ADJOURNED ANNUAL MEETING Summerside Curling Club in the Town Hall, Monday, November 29th, at 7.30 P. M.

—COME TO the variety concert in St. Eleanor's Hall Friday, Nov. 26, at 8 o'clock. Sponsored by the Women's Institute.

—THE ANNUAL meeting of Bedeque Skating Rink Company will be held in the rink on Friday, Nov. 26, at 7.30 p.m.

—HOME FOR WEEK END — Mr. Al Turner, son of Mrs. William Turner, O'Leary, a student at Mount Allison University in Sackville, N.B., has arrived home for the week end and will be the guest of his mother. He is a member of the Student Council of the University and also on the executive of the Prince Edward Island Club of the college.

—ATTENDED CONVENTION — Rev. C.O. Howlett, Rev. W.G. Dickson and Mr. Watson Silliker, O'Leary attended the Sunday School Convention on Thursday at the Miminigash United Church at which the special speaker was Rev. Lewis Murray of Kensington. Mr. Earle Jelly of Unionvale, president of the convention, presided. Mr. John R. Dignan, Mrs. Alban Craswell, Mrs. E.R. McAusland and Mrs. R F. McAusland attended from Bloomfield.—O.

—BRAE Y. P. U. MEET — The regular meeting of the Brae Young People's Union was held on Monday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Casley. There was a good attendance, with the president, Mrs. Roy Oulton presiding. It was decided to again sponsor a Christmas party in which all the children in the district would be remembered by a little gift and also to give a contribution to the United Emergency Fund for Britain. The convenor of missions, Mrs. Lorne MacNevin, then took charge of the study period which was on missions, and an address on the topic was given by the Minister, Rev. W. G. Dickson, after which a social hour was enjoyed with games and contests and the members had a jolly sing song and the meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction. O

—INTEREST GROWING —The Summerside Group of Alcoholics Anonymous opened its new quarters on Monday night which marked the 113th group meeting. Visitors from Charlottetown, Emerald and Moncton groups were present and it was reported to be by far the most enthusiastic meet yet held. Visiting speakers were loud in their praise for the local group who have had the courage and forsight to plan for the future. The press was not represented at the meeting and, being curious, asked one of the members how the capital expenditure for the new rooms was arranged. The answer was simple: "We have spent say, $500." he said, "we had three prospective members at the meeting. If even one benefits by our program and stays with us, we have gained far more than our total capital outlay." An organization with such a creed will never cease to grow as long as there is need of its existence.—S.

—CENTRAL BEDEQUE W. I. — The annual meeting of the Central Bedeque Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Sherran on Nov. 1st. The President, Mrs. John Green, presided. In the absence of the Sec'y Treasurer the President gave a report of the year's activities. Minutes of the previous annual meeting and the last regular monthly meeting were read and approved. The election of officers for the ensuing year then followed: President — Miss Phyllis Britten; Vice-President — Miss Louise Callbeck; Sec'y Treasurer — Mrs. Edison Wright; Directors — Mrs. Walter Hogg, Mrs. A. E. Wright, Mrs. John MacKenna; Auditors — Mrs. Ray Johnson and Mrs. Harold Bagnall; Red Cross — Mrs. Ralph Callbeck. It was decided to have a bean supper in the hall. Following donations are as follows: T. B. League, Infirmary, Cancer Fund, Red Cross, Christmas Treat for school children, school prizes, sent boxes to an Institute in England, Drama Festival, curtain for hall, delegates expenses, flowers to bereaved, cards and fruit to the sick and shut-in members. Money raised during the year $229.35. Expenses $200.06. Balance on hand $29.29. Mrs. Walter Hogg invited the Institute to her home for the next meeting. The lunch committee for December is Miss Phyllis Britten and Mrs. Sherran. Lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by the lunch committee. —B

Capitol
SUMMERSIDE
LAST SHOWING TODAY
"THE OTHER LOVE"
With Barbara Stanwyck —David Niven
SHOWS 3.30 — 7.15 — 9.15
FRI.-SAT.
ANNOUNCING THE 1ST.
SHOWING OF OUR NEW SERIAL
"SUPERMAN"
15 — Chapters — 15
One of the Chapters every Fri.-Sat.
Don't Miss the 1st. Chapter This Week
Also Feature
"TRAPPED BY BOSTON BLACKIE"
Starring Chester Morris
Shows 7.15 - 9.15
Matinee Sat. 2.30

CAMEO THEATRE
KENSINGTON
Thurs. 7.15 9.15, A real treat for music lovers in this musical comedy.
"APRIL SHOWERS"
With Jack Carson, Ann Sothern, and that funny fat guy S. Z. Sakall.

GRAPAUD THEATRE
The Blue Dahlia
Alan Ladd, Veronica Lake, William Bendix,
Fri. 8.30 Sat. 7.30-9.30

THOMPSON-ADAMS

—A pretty fall wedding of interest to many relatives and friends in this Province was the marriage on Wednesday, Nov. 10th, 1948, at 10:30 a. m. in Trinity United Church, Summerside, when Doris Mae, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey O. Adams, Knutsford, became the bride of George Sterling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Thompson, Belmont, Lot 16.

The double ring ceremony was solemnized by Rev. R. G. Sullivan.

The winsome bride looked very attractive in a street length dress of Royal blue crepe, with deep panniers and lace trimmings, long gloves, and carried a bouquet of white roses and maiden hair fern, caught by streamers and orange blossoms.

Her only jewelry was a gold locket, a gift of the groom.

Miss Marion Adams, sister of the bride, attended as bridesmaid and was gowned in a street-length dress of blue gabardine, with pleated peplum and black accessories, and carried a boquet of pink roses.

The bridegroom was supported by his brother, Mr. Elmer Thompson.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Hillcrest Lodge, Summerside, to immediate friends of the bride and groom.

The dining room table was tastefully decorated for the occasion with cut flowers and lit tapers in crystal candlebras, and centered with a beautifully decorated wedding cake topped with a minniature bride and groom, the cake was cut in traditional manner by the bride and groom.

Following the reception the happy couple left by motor car for an extended honeymoon trip to United States and Western Canada, visiting in Rumford, Me.; Malone, N. J.; Pictou, and Toronto, Ontario.

For travelling the bride wore a grey wool crepe dress, pale blue coat with black accessories.

Previous to her marriage the bride was a stenographer and employee of the P. E. I. Fur Pool, Summerside.

On their return Mr. and Mrs. Thompson will reside in Belmont, Lot 16, where the groom is a prosperous farmer.

SMALLMAN'S
Guessing Contest WINNER
Mrs. Everett Cameron Summerside
$100.00 in cash goes to Mrs. Everett Cameron of Summerside, in that her ballot showed the nearest correct number of toothpicks in the Toothpick Tower and accompanying pile.
Mrs. Cameron's ballot read—21,200. The toothpicks contained in the exhibit were—21,186.

Tignish

Mrs. A. J. MacDonald, Tignish, was a visitor to Borden recently.

Mr. John M. Handrahan, Ascension, was a business visitor to Summerside last Saturday.

Miss Clarisse DesRoches, St. Felix, has accepted the position of saleslady with the Tignish Co-operative, Ltd., at Tignish.

The illness of Mr. Eugene Perry of Tignish is much regretted. Mr. Perry is a patient in Western Hospital, Alberton, and his many Tignish friends hope for his speedy recovery.

Mr. Frank Hogan and his sister, Miss Doris Hogan, of Christopher Cross, and Mr. Fred Gaudet, Tignish North, left Tignish last week for Moncton, N.B., where all plan to spend the winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. William Aylward left their home at Skinners Pond on Wednesday last for Boston, Mass., where they plan to spend the winter months visiting with several sons and daughters residing in the New England States.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. James McInnis, Anglo-Tignish, who recently celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. Both Mr. and Mrs. McInnis are enjoying excellent health. It is a beautiful thing to see a couple so happy after fifty years together and still enjoying each other's company as well as having so many friends who rejoice with them on this, their golden anniversary, and wish them many more years of happiness together. Tig

The funeral of Miss Jane Harper took place on the morning of November 13th from the home of her brother, Mr. William Harper, Christopher Cross, to the Church of St. Simon and St. Jude, Tignish, where a Requiem High Mass was sung by her pastor, Reverend J. A. MacDonald. Services at the grave were conducted by Rev. L. B. Dooley and burial was in the family plot in the parish cemetery. The pallbearers were Wilbert Gillis, Austin Handrahan, Charles Gavin, Alfred Gillis, Ray Handrahan and Frank Ready. Surviving Miss Harper are three brothers Mr. William Harper, with whom she resided; Mr. John Harper, Christopher Cross; and Mr. Joseph Harper, Bangor, Maine. To the bereaved relatives we offer our sincere sympathy.

Dramatic Holiday Dresses

Enchanting dresses to see you so prettily through all your gala holiday ahead. For the utmost in flattery and fashion, you've only to choose from our deftly-designed styles . . . dramatic side-swept skirts . . . intricately tucked bodices . . . glamorous suit dresses . . . brilliant sequin trimmings. Choose your festive frock today from our very smart, new styles in the season's most important colors.

Materials are Wool
Bunny Wool
Jersey
Crepe
Moire
Taffeta
Gabardine
and Bengaline

Sizes are
10 to 19
12 to 20
16 1-2 to 26 1-2
38 to 46

12.95 to 25.00

Upper Floor, Main Store Section

SMALLMAN'S
PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND'S RADIANT XMAS STORES

Church Activities In Summerside

—At the Junior Y.P.U. of the Summerside Baptist Church on Tuesday evening the devotional period was in charge of Joan Smith and the business was conducted by the president. The Seniors were led by Mrs. Roy Daye during the worship period. The main topic of the meeting, for both groups, conducted by the minister, was "What Can Youth Give to the Church?" It was reported that forty members of the Summerside Y.P.U. attended the P.E.I. Youth Rally in Charlottetown. The committee in charge announced that preparations were being made for a play to be given in the near future. Games were enjoyed by both groups at the conclusion of both meetings.

• • • •

The Erromanga Group of the Presbyterian Church met on Tuesday afternoon in the church hall with the president, Mary Mountain, in charge of the devotional period and assisted by Jane Morrison and Jessie Bingham. This being the social meeting, games and contests were much enjoyed, after which the leader, Mrs. J. Lloyd Gorrill, served refreshments

• • • •

The Ladies' Club of the Summerside Presbyterian Church held its regular meeting on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. R.W. Wood with the president, Mrs. J. Frank Cameron, in the chair. The usual sewing and knitting were carried out. A pleasing financial report was given on the recent rummage sale. At the conclusion refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. W. MacKenzie. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Maurice Mill.

The Y.P.S. of the Summerside Church of Christ met in the church hall on Tuesday evening with the worship period in charge of Edwena Delaney. After the singing of hymns "Saviour Like A Shepherd Lead Us", and "Throw Out the Life Line" and the reading of Psalm 16, an interesting and instructive Bible Quiz was conducted by the minister. The group was then divided into two sections, boys and girls, with points for correct answers, the girls leading with a score of 24 to 21. The total score to date is girls 62 and boys 58. A Friendship Circle was formed and after singing "Into My Heart", the meeting closed with the benediction.

• • • •

The Trinity Y.P.U. met on Tuesday evening in Epworth Hall, Summerside, with fifteen members present. The program was in charge of the Culture Convenor, Lois Graves, who was assisted by Keith Rogerson and Jennie Lewis in presenting the dialogue "On-the-job Living".

• • • •

The St. Mary's Guild met on Tuesday evening in the parish hall with the president, Mrs. George Clarke in the chair. Final plans were made for the afternoon tea to be held on Thursday, November 25.

• • • •

The "Guiding Light" C.G.I.T. of Trinity United Church met in the hall on Monday evening with the president, Birdie Cairns in the chair during the business period. The worship was led by June Geddis. A discussion followed on the benefits received from the recent girls' conference held in Summerside, after which games were enjoyed. S

MAJOR LANGUAGE

Chinese is spoken by more persons than any other tongue.

THERE OUGHTA BE A LAW! By Fagaly and Shorter

HOLMAN STORE NEWS
— G. H. M. —

Get your Christmas Baking done right away so you'll have a free and clear mind to put on your other preparations. A really complete selection of your Holiday Baking Needs are here in the Grocery Department . Raisins of all kinds—Currants—Mixed Peels—Glace Cherries and other Fruits—Ginger and Citron—etc. They're neatly packaged for your convenience and are priced to suit your purse. Check your Christmas Baking list and order your supplies today from the Grocery Department.

For lovely, luxurious living she'll want an adorable QUILTED HOUSECOAT—these are available in a gorgeous array of plain or gaily printed Satin. The sizes are 12 to 44 priced at 15.95. Quilted Housecoats are smart as well as being warm and comfortable. Shop early for one of these "beauties —you'll find them and many other stunning Housecoats in the Ladies' Wear Department.

For sweet—sweet sleep—Mercerized poplin PYJAMAS are worn by girls the country over. They're nicely tailored, have a cute collar and short sleeves. The colors are dainty pink or blue in sizes small, medium or large priced at 4.25 a pair. Girls—wear these Pyjamas yourselves and give them for Christmas—You'll see them in the Lingerie Section of the Dry Goods Department.

MUSHROOMS—luscious and delicious are received perfectly FRESH every Saturday Morning from Slack Brothers, who are famous Mushroom growers. The ½ pound package is 35 cents. Serve Mushroom regularly and often You can get them fresh for the weekend—every week end in the Grocery Department.

REGENT
THURSDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY
DOUBLE BILL
"CAUGHT IN THE ACT"
and

SHOWS 7 and 9.15
Matinee Friday 3.30 Saturday 2.30