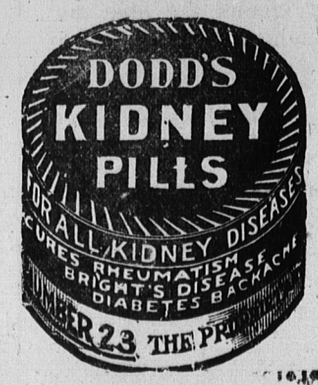
MAKING MAPS FROM THE AIR

Originally propounded by Germany, is actually being carried out by expert flying photographers in France, Great Britain, Italy and Russia. The idea was first mooted in the Reichstag, and was to be applied to the German colony in South-west Africa. It is stated that the accuracy of the British artillery on the western front is not altogether due to the intrepid work of observers in their flights above the enemy lines, but to maps that have been prepared from data supplied by airmen while engaged on the work as their chief mission.



WORTHY FAMILY MOURNS BROTHER

Mr. Charles McKenzie of Springfield and formerly of Aberdeen, Scotland received the sad word the other day that his brother, Donald had fallen in battle. Five years ago when only twelve years of age Mr. McKenzie came to this province accompanied by his only sister, Ruth, then also a young girl. Their perents were both dead and the family consisting, of five sons and one daughter, separated, one going to Australia, one to New Zealand, one to Western Canada one remaining in Scotland, Charles and Ruth coming to this province. The other four brothers enlisted, each in the country of his adoption. Donald enlisted in an Australian regiment and was one of the men who won undying fame for the Anzacs in the Dardanelles, coming through that terrible campaign unscathed. In one of the recent battles on the Western front he made the supreme sacrifice. Two of the remaining three are now wounded in an English hospital and the third at the front having recently been promoted on the field to Lieutenant. Ruth, who graduated from the Royal Victoria Hospital in Montreal is a Red Cross nurse in England. Three of the brothers, those who had come from New Zealand, Australia and Western Canada, met for the first time in many years on the battlefield, and Miss Ruth met two of her brothers in an English Hospital. Charles, who is the only member of the family not in khaki, he being still under military age, has, during his five years residence in Springfield made many friends and naturally the sympathy of the whole community goes out to him in the sorrow that has come to him, a sorrow that has much to alleviate it, much to glory in. The members of Union Division, Sons of Temperance, of which Mr. McKenzie is a member, presented him with the following letter of sympathy, which speaks for itself:

To Bro. Charles MacKenzie:

Having learned of the heroic death of your brother Donald on the blood-stained fields of honour, where he gallantly laid down his young life for King and Country, and the priceless principles of Justice and Liberty, we, the brothers and sisters of Union Division, No. 45, Sons of Temperance desire to extend to you, our profound sympathy in this the saddest experience of your life; but you have the consolation of knowing that your brother died a true patriot, fighting in defence of the blessed privileges of Freedom, for which our forefathers bled and died. We fully realize the inadequacy of human words to console the sorrowing. We would therefore direct you to the Great Patriarch above who doeth all things well; and we humbly pray that He may give you grace to say, "Thy will be done."

Signed in love, purity, and fidelity,
ERNEST HASLAM,
RUTH HOWARD,
WALTER MacKENZIE.

PROMOTED IN ENGLAND

Mr. Theodore G. Bernard of Tignish has received the following letter from his son Lance-Corporal Henry Bernard who is now with the 105th at Witley Camp:—

Witley Camp,
Surrey, Eng.
Dec. 30th, 1916.

My Dear Parents,—It is to-night that I take a moment of pleasure to answer your kind and welcome letter which I received today. I was glad to hear from you. I am in the best of health and hoping that this letter will find you all the same.

Well, dear Father, we are having pretty cold weather here but no snow. I do not think there is any snow in this country it is all rain. I must tell you that I got your box the other day and I thank you very much and also Mamie and Florence for their socks, and Grandma also. I hope you got the box that I sent you. I also sent Eva a nice little cushion and I hope that she will like it when she gets it. Tell Fidele that I thank him very much for the the little card that was in the letter. Dear Father, I never got the box from my sisters yet. It must have been lost on the way.

I was very sorry to hear that George Carter was dead as also his brother Alva. They must be having pretty hard luck. You do not have to go to England to die.

I hope Sylvan Gallant is well now. I had a letter from Uncle Mike Arsenault. They write regular. Return my compliments to Alexander and to the rest of my relatives. Tonight I met Frank O'Connell, the fellow who used to work in the Royal Bank. He is in the 219th Battalion. I also met Eddie DesRoches' brother Ernie. He's in the 242nd Battalion and he is a Sergeant too.

I am still working in the stores and like it fine. Today we had a clothing board and I got a whole new suit. Some class to me now. ha! ha!. I go to the pictures most every night. They are great around here. That is about all there is to go to at nights. All the Tignish boys are well. Dan Bernard, Leo Gaudet and Emile Richard are sending you their best wishes.

Well dear Father, we'll soon be commencing the New Year and I hope that we will be altogether next Xmas. Around here there is pretty good news of the war. They say that it will be over by next June and I hope it will so that we can all go home again. I think this will be all for this time.

I will close by sending you and all my relations my best wishes. So goodbye.

I remain, your son,
HENRY.

MRS. ROBERT SUTHERLAND.

There passed away at Bridgetown on the 19th inst. Bella Sutherland, widow of the late Robert Sutherland, aged 52 years. She died as she lived trusting in Jesus as her saviour. An affectionate mother a beloved and kind neighbor has gone to her eternal home. She leaves to mourn two daughters Katie and Margery at home and a host of friends who will miss her very much.

MR. ENEAS McCARVELL.

The death of Mr. Eneas McCarvell after only a few days illness, has occasioned wide-spread regret throughout Kinkora and the surrounding country. He was a highly respected, industrious young man about 28 years of age son of Mr.Owen G. McCarvell. The death occurred at his home on Friday last, 19th inst, and the funeral which was largely attended took place on Sunday to Kinkora Church and Cemetery. He will be greatly missed in his home and by his many relatives and friends. Besides his parents three brothers and a sister are left to mourn.

MR. DANIEL McLAREN.

In memory of and to correct some inacuracies in a recent report of the death of Daniel McLaren of Belle River, who was the third son of the late John McLaren of New Perth, where he was born and grew to manhood; after which he removed to Flat River, and later to Belle River.

In early life, and until his removal to other localities, he constantly attended the church of Christ, then at Brudenell now at Montague. At Belle River, there being no church of his choice, he, for the good that he might do in the community, united with the Presbyterian church, from which connection he passed into the great unseen.

Two brothers and two sisters, predeceased him. There are now left to cherrish his memory , one brother, Nathaniel McLaren of Forest Hill and one sister, Mrs. M. N. McLeod of Charlottetown. His quiet useful life, where he was well known, stands, as the bese monument to his memory.

MRS. GEORGE CAMPBELL.

The death on Jany. 15th of Mary Catherine beloved wife of George Compton, Bangor, came as a severe shock to her family and friends as she had enjoyed her usual health up to a few hours before her death. During her short illness of acute Brights disease all that medical skill and kind friends could do was of no avail and she passed away in the 56th year of her age. Mrs. Compton was the eldest daughter of the late John J. Grant and was born in Brooklyn, P. E. I. Besides her husband she leaves to mourn four daughters' Mrs. John Murchison of Everett, Mass; Rose in Malden, Mass; Annie and Mary at home, also her aged mother, seven brothers and two sisters, to all of whom we extend our sincere sympathy. Her funeral took place to the Bangor Cemetery on Wednesday 17th where all that was martal of a loving mother and good neighbor was tenderly laid to rest.

MISS MARGUERITTE GALLANT

The death took place at the home of Joseph C. Gallant on Wednesday of his sister Marguerite Gallant at the age of 68. Deceased had been ailing for the past year with a swollen cheek which finally developed to what resembled a tumor. All that medical skill could suggest or tender family care, could do, was administered to her ailment, but she gradually weakened until death came and relieved her of this world of suffering. She was a most amiable lady, of a very charitable disposition, and was highly esteemed and respected by all her acquaintances. Her Christian devotion was of the most fervent, and her last days of illness were spent in due preparation for the great world beyond, being visited by her pastor on several occasions. She leaves to mourn two brothers. Otave Gallant and Joseph C. Gallant both of advanced age, also two sisters, Mrs. Clement Poirier, Miscouche and Mrs. Joseph M. Gallant, Egmont Bay. The funeral took place from St. James Church on Thursday morning being conducted by the pastor Rev. S. Boudreault and the following were the pall-bearers Phillipe Bernard Joseph S. Arsenault, Amand Gallant Joseph P. A. Arsenault, Joseph Gallant, Joseph M. Gallant.—M

Liquid Catarrh Remedies Useless Only Relieve--Never Cure

They go direct to the stomach, have very little effect on the linings of the nose and throat, and entirely fail to cure. Only by cleansing the air passages by relieving the inflammation and killing the germs is cure possible. No combination of antiseptics is so successful as Catarrhozone. In breathing it, you send the richest pine balsams right to the seat of the disease. Irritating phlegm is cleared out, hoarseness, coughing and hacking are cured. For a permanent cure for Catarrh, nothing equals Catarrhozone, get it today, but beware of dangerous substitutes meant to deceive you for genuine CATARRHOZONE. All dealers sell Catarrhozone, large size containing two months treatment, costs $1.00; small size 50c; Sample size 25c.

The family had not had their telephone very long says the Southwestern Telephone News, and every one took a deep and abiding interest in it. On the outside of the directory they had noted the words, "Trouble, call No. 4217."

It had been a hard morning and everything had gone wrong. Finally the lady of the house in desperation turned to her trusty telephone and called 4217.

"This is the trouble department," answered the operator sweetly.

"Is this where you report your troubles?" asked the lady.

"Yes, ma'am."

"Well, I only want to report that our cat got drowned in the cistern this morning; the baby is cutting a new tooth; the cook left without warning; we are out of sugar and starch; the stovepipe fell down; the milkman left only a pint instead of a quart today; the bread won't raise; my oldest child is coming down with the measles; the plumbing in the cellar leaks; we have only enough coal to last through tomorrow; the paint gave out when I got only half over the dining room floor; the mainspring of the clock is broken; my three sisters-in-law are coming to visit tomorrow; the man has not called for the garbage for two weeks; our dog has the mange; the looking glass fell off the wall a while ago and broke to pieces; and I think that my husband is taking considerable notice of a widow lately that lives next door. That's all today, but if anything happens later I'll call you up and tell you about it."

EXCUSES, NOT REASONS

Sir: Rumors come to our ears that one reason alleged for small or no contributions from certain parties in the country districts is that a remuneration is being given to those who have undertaken work on behalf of the Patriotic Fund.

This rumor might be treated with silent contempt were it not for the danger involved to the interest of the Fund.

We have much pleasure in stating that every cent received for the comfort of all families of our representatives in the trenches will be accounted for, and that only, the necessary outlay for printing and advertising will be chargeable to the Fund.

Time, comfort and rest are sacrificed by all whom we have asked to help us in this great work, and our own offer of free labor is the only guarantee we can give as yet until the final accounts come to the rescue of our good will.

I am, sir, etc,
J. J. MACDONALD,
Organizer Patriotic Fund.
