Howard Walker, Richard DeLory, Cullen DeLory, David Lavers and Floyd Landry, motored to the City on Tuesday where Cullen DeLory and Floyd Landry were among the contestants in the Patriot Road Race, although, handicapped by lack of practice, both boys made a very credible showing, Cullen coming in fifth and Floyd placing eighth.

Rev. J. T. Payne, Rector of the Twentieth Century-Fox Film Version of Best Seller 'Daisy Kenyon'.

Three of the greatest stars in all Hollywood have been assembled for 'Daisy Kenyon', the latest Twentieth Century-Fox romantic drama that opens at the Prince Edward Theatre. Joan Crawford, the Academy Award winner of two years ago, enacts the title role with Dana Andrews and Henry Fonda co-starred with her. Together they make up the threesome in Elizabeth Janeway's best-seller who fate brings together in a love that only two can share.

Almost every actress in Hollywood was anxious to play the lead in this top best-seller but none more than Miss Crawford. All realized the completely different kind of role it carried and that the bold story itself was assured of success from the start.

The cast also includes such noted thespians as Ruth Warwick as Andrews' wife, Martha Stewart as Daisy Kenyon's friend, with Peggy Ann Garner and Connie Marshall in the roles of Andrews' children.

The locale of much of the picture is New York. A replica of the famous Stork Club was erected and Fremhofer stocked it with familiar faces. Both Walter Winchell and Leonard Lyons were

VAUDEVILLE IS THEME OF 'LINDA BE GOOD'

With a plot involving a lady author who joins up with a burlesque troupe to get material for her new novel, 'Linda Be Good', bright new comedy with a burlesque background, opens today at the Capitol Theatre.

Elyse Knox is starred in the title role as the young lady who takes advantage of her husband's absence on a business trip to join the burlesque. John Hubbard is the husband who accompanies his boss to the theatre one night and discovers his wife entertaining on the runway. Marie Wilson, blonde and curvaceous, completes the starring trio as the burlesque queen who breaks Miss Knox into the burlesque business.

Featured in the production numbers are two new songs, 'Linda Be Good' and 'My Mother Says I Must', with Hollywood's lovely 'Cameo Girls' featured in the chorus line. Musical specialties by Sir Lancelot, King of Cellophane singers, and Professor Lambert, vaudeville, stage and nightclub entertainer, are also featured.

Heading the supporting cast are Jack Norton and Joyce Compton. Frank McDonald directed 'Linda Be Good', a Cameo Production released by Eagle Lion Films, from a screenplay by Leslie Vale and George Halasz.

AUSTRALIAN DRUNKS THREATEN BOYCOTT

DARWIN, Australia, June 25 — (CP) — Local drunks have issued an ultimatum to the town's jail officials that they must serve nicot food at the jail or they will boycott the place.

They sent a deputation to the Northern Standard, the Northern Territory's only newspaper, to ask them to press their claims for better cooked foods.

It was not revealed whether the proposed boycott means that they intend to move to another town or just simply reform.

FALLS THREE STOREYS THREE, JUST BRUISED

A few bruises were all that Gary Wayne High, three, had to show after a 30-foot tumble from the third-storey window of his Kingston, Ont., home. He was looking out when screen gave way.

The dotted line shows where Gary fell. It was a "miracle" he wasn't killed, said doctor, who could not find a scratch on the little fellow.
