Alberton

The Misses Bertha Bowness and Beth Clarke recently spent a very enjoyable week-end in Ellerslie, the guests of their friend, Mrs. Allison England.

Friends here will be sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Lemuel Coughlan which occurred at the home of his nephew, Mr. Charles Coughlan, Fortunes Cove, on Saturday, December 13th. Deep sympathy is extended to the relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moran entertained a very large number of parishioners of the Sacred Heart Church, at a social evening, on Tuesday, December 9th. A bountiful lunch was served by the hostesses, assisted by her daughter, Miss George Moran. Cards were played with exceptionally pretty prizes for the lucky winners.

Members of the Alberton Women's Institute met for a delightful turkey dinner at the Hillside Restaurant on Thursday. The tables were attractive with Christmas place mats, and lighted tapers. A delicious dinner was served by Mr. Henry Clarke and his staff.

Under the auspices of the Junior Red Cross Branch, a free educational movie was shown in Union School Friday evening by Mr. John Martin of the Prince Edward Island Libraries. Following the pictures Miss J. Estelle Haines, Junior Red Cross nutritionist for E. I., gave a talk on "Foods For Health." Lunches and home-made candy were sold by the pupils, and a satisfactory sum was realized in aid of the "Hot Lunch Program."

The re-organization of the Curling Club took place (in the club room of the recently built rink) on December 8th and the following officers were appointed: President, Mr. Herbert Mathews; vice-president, Mr. Edward Clow; secretary-treasurer, Mr. H. J. Pike. An enthusiastic membership committee was appointed: Messrs. Erskine Campbell, Ernest Hardy, Maurice Perry, Edward Clow, Games; Messrs. J. H. Myrick, H. D. Corbett, R. M. Dunn. It was decided to establish an associate members list, said members to have full privileges of the club apart from playing scheduled games.

In Memoriam

MR. JOSEPH R. FRANCIS

On Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock the angel of death visited the home of Mrs. Roland Best, Central Lot 48, and claimed for its own her beloved father, Joseph R. Francis, at the advanced age of 76 years.

He had been stricken with a stroke two years ago, from which he never recovered. He had been confined to the house most of the time during this last year.

In August he was burdened with that dread disease, cancer, which gradually weakened his condition until the above date. He was a great sufferer at times but bore his pain with great patience, as he was never known to complain until the last three weeks when he was confined to his bed.

It was then it was realized his time was drawing near. He was tenderly cared for by his daughter, Nina. Despite all his medical skill and loving hands could do, he passed peacefully away.

His remains were forwarded to the home of his son, Eldon, Shamrock, from where the funeral was held. A short service was held at the house, followed by an impressive service at the Westmoreland Baptist Church, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Hicks of Tryon.

The hymns sung at the house were: "Jesus Lover of My Soul", and at the church "Rock of Ages", "In the Sweet Bye and Bye", and "Abide With Me", all old favorites of the deceased. Friends came from far and near to show respect to one who was loved by all, as he was always ready to give a helping hand in time of need.

His remains were tenderly laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery, beside his loving wife who predeceased him eleven years ago.

There are left to mourn the loss of a loving father, three sons and two daughters, namely: Grace, Mrs. Murdoch Dawson, Albany; Nina, Mrs. Roland Best, Central Lot 48; Earle, Charlottetown; Hilliard, Gamble's Corner; and Eldon, Shamrock. One daughter, Amy, predeceased him some years ago.

The pallbearers were: Aeneas Hughes, Ernest Duffy, Freeman Walsh, Joe McCarvell, Floyd Cairns and Llewellyn Gamble, all old friends of the deceased.

CHISELDON, Wiltshire, England (OP)—John Liddiard, 80, married Rose Ockwell, a grandmother of 28 children.
