

Consult Your Doctor

If you have serious kidney trouble, such as Bright's Disease or Diabetes—consult your physician at once. We do not recommend any remedy for those diseases.

But if you have a mere functional derangement of the kidneys or bladder, indicated by pain in the back, inflammation, etc., you will find Penslar Buchu and Palmetto Compound a very satisfactory remedy.

The formula is on the label—exact quantities and ingredients. It is a fine prescription for kidney and bladder troubles and the makers are proud of it. That is why they punish it, for anyone who knows about such things can tell that this is a splendid remedy.

Two sizes, 50c. and $1, sold only at our store. It gives great satisfaction.

A FLAG FOR EVERY HOME

P. E. I. BAPTISTS MEET

Baptist Home and Foreign Missions show marvellous growth. God has wonderfully blessed our work. Baptists were the first Protestant Denominationalists to begin organized Home Missions and Foreign Missions in the Maritime Provinces. They led the first religious paper. They led in Sunday School organization. They organized the first W. M. A. S. They had the first Protestant Missionary among the French Acadians. They led in the great Temperance Movement which swept Nova Scotia in 1829, and Baptists have stood among the first in the movement ever since. Baptists in the Maritime Provinces began very small in numbers, but to-day they are only 5,000 behind the largest Protestant Denominations. They have the numbers and the wealth for an aggressive campaign and they intend to make it.

The next speaker was Rev. Z. L. Fash who dealt with "Our Home Mission Enterprise." He referred to Rev. I. W. Porter, the first Superintendent of Home Missions being unable to present on account of serious illness. Mr. Porter had fallen in the trenches under the very heavy strain of ten years' work. Like the brilliant young Oxford student who went to Central Africa and died in a few years, Mr. Porter had fallen at his post. He had laid good foundations for them to build upon. Our Home Mission work is of the greatest importance. In trying to show this the speaker said that he did not wish to speak slightly of the Superintendent of Foreign Missions. They were one and inseparable. Jesus Christ united them and we cannot part them asunder. Before the war many immigrants came to Halifax. Each of the Christian denominations had chaplains to meet these strangers coming with our gates. Captain Hospel was employed by the Home Mission Board and he placed many copies of the Scriptures in the hands of these people. That is a Home Missionary doing Foreign Mission work. In Russia before the war we had a great leader in Rev. Mr. Peter, of Petrograd. He was compelled by persecution to leave Russia during the war and he came to the United States, where he is now working under the American Baptist Home Mission Society among the Russians. That is a Foreign Missionary doing Home Mission work. The two are inextricably blended and those whom God hath joined let no man put asunder.

In this terrible war we are suffering to-day from lack of men and munitions. General French sent one of his staff to England recently for 72 hours to tell the English people that they were asleep to the danger of the Empire. When we see our Missionary Superintendent fall in the trenches before, we did not get up reinforcements and munitions in time we say that we must wake up in reference to our Home Missions. The speaker witnessed the cyclorama of the battle of Gettysburg we feel like saying to Maritime Baptists in reference to Mission work, "Why don't they fight, why don't they fight?"

The story of Baptist Home Missions in the Maritime Provinces is very fascinating. The first offering was a Spanish donblon thrown from the gallery upon the table of the church at Chester, N. S. That was about $15.00. Last year Maritime Baptists expended for Home Missions about $1,000. Three hundred and forty were added by baptism to the 215 Home Mission churches. The importance of Home Missions is shown by the large number of workers in our towns and cities who come from these little country churches. We get many of our pastors from these churches. The progress of our New Testament principles depends upon the maintenance of our Home Mission interests. The speaker then showed some of the needs in Baptist Home Mission work, and concluded with a moving appeal for Maritime Baptists to come to the aid of the Home Mission Board for a forward move in Home Missions.

It was a great meeting Friday evening.

CAPTAIN OF ARMENIAN TELLS HIS STORY

AVONMOUTH, England, July 4.—There were eleven Americans among the nineteen members of the crew who lost their lives in the sinking of the Leyland Line freight steamer Ar-

BASEBALL

On Dominion Day an interesting game of baseball took place at O'Leary, between the O'Leary and Alberton teams. The line up was as follows:

ALBERTON		O'LEARY
Foley	Pitcher	Geo. McFadyan
W. Rogers	catcher	E. A. Dorsey
Dawson	1st Base	C. Dennis
Hatch	2nd Base	C. Ellis
Murphy (alias McAlcluff)	3rd Base	M. Jelly
R. Forsythe	Short Stop	F. Burns
H. Graves	R. Field	I. Ellis
F. McArthur	L. Field	H. Turner
H. Rogers	C. Field	M. Bernard

Both the batteries did very effective work, in several innings holding the opposing team scoreless. When the runs came they were generally in bunches, which made the game somewhat exciting at times. With a little more practise the number of runs will be considerably reduced.

The score by innings was as follows: Alberton... 202011000—6 O'Leary... 430003610—17 A regrettable incident, which is not conducive to fair sport was the endeavour to play two and the actual playing of one Tishish man on the Alberton team under an assumed name. When this became known the O'Leary team refused to play unless this man was removed, and an Alberton player put on in his place. However it was finally agreed to play as above.

KAISER HAS LAST WORD TO SAY ON REPLY TO WILSON

BERLIN, via London, July 4.—As the result of this week's conference on drafts of the German reply to the American note, it is now in the hands of Emperor William at army headquarters.

The emperor's decision is expected in time so that the note can be presented to James W. Gerard, the American ambassador, probably on July 5 or 6. High officials are endeavouring to bring about a friendly settlement of the questions with America, and there is every reason to believe that they are anxious to make the proposals as conciliant and acceptable as possible.

These officials, however, have to reckon with the force of strong public opinion, which undoubtedly will oppose anything savouring of compromise in the American proposals. This force is being skillfully exploited by those who are opposed to all concessions. Friends of a settlement are working under these circumstances with considerable difficulty, and the probably will represent a compromise not in accordance with their desires.

BELGIAN STEAMER SUNK BY GERMANS

(Special to The Guardian) LONDON, July 3.—The Belgian steamer Boduognes was torpedoed and sunk to-day by a German submarine. The crew was landed at Falmouth.

The German submarine which he menial by the German submarine U-33, off Trevose Head, Cornwall, on Monday. Some members of the crew were killed outright when the German torpedo struck the ship.

When sunk by the German submarine the Armenian was carrying a cargo of 1,422 mules from Newport News to Avonmouth, the animals to be used by the French armies in Belgium and France. The vessel had a crew of 72 men, and carried 96 men as mule tenders.

The submarine was first sighted by the man at the wheel, and though the ship was pushed to the limit the underwater craft rapidly overhauled her and commenced shelling. The Armenian's efforts to keep her stern to the submarine were futile.

Captain Trickey, of the steamer Armenian, in an interview, said that he only surrendered to the German submarine when the freighter was afire in three places, and after the ship's engines had been put out of action and a dozen of the crew had been killed by shrapnel fire. Most of the members of the crew who perished, Captain Trickey said, were Americans.

"The submarine, as a signal for us to stop," said Captain Trickey, "first put a couple of shots over our bows when we were four miles off. I put my stern to him and ran for it.

"The submarine then began to shell us in earnest, the shrapnel bursting all around us, killing several of the crew and knocking others overboard. I soon realized that the enemy was gaining on us, but I did not propose to surrender without a struggle. But my steering gear was soon hit and placed out of commission. One shell fell into the engine room and another carried the Marconi house away. Still another cut down the funnel and disabled the stokers preventing them from keeping steam up.

"By this time the ship was on fire in three places and I decided to surrender. We had resisted the enemy for an hour, and 12 or 13 men lay dead on the deck.

"The submarine commander then forced me to clear ship, and at seven minutes past eight the Armenian went down, shattered by two torpedoes.

"I must say that the submarine commander showed us every fairness after we had given up, picking up many of the crew who, because of a damaged boat, had fallen into the water.

"Most of the crew who perished were Americans."
