QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block--Charlottetown

Miss McWilliams of Eidon, is spending a few days in Charlottetown.

R. v. D. McLan will preach (D. V.) in the People Church tomorrow at 7 p. m.

A. C. Cox and bride returned last night by the S. S. Northumberland and are at the Queen.

Mrs. Alexander McMillan and daughter Sybil, Brookley Point, leave next week for Calgary.

Rowan Cameron arrived Wednesday night from New York on a visit to his aunt, Mrs. D. Davies.

Miss Gertrude Parquharson left yesterday morning for Newport, R. I. to resume her duties in the Newport Hospital.

Mrs. William Carbone and three children who have been spending the winter with her mother, Mrs. Mary McAleer, Ellsboro Street, have left on a return to Buffalo, N. Y.

On another page of today's Guardian will be found a most interesting and thoughtfully written article entitled The Danger of the Summer Separation. This is taken from a current number of The Delineator, and is worthy of the careful and serious consideration of all married persons.

The Chatham Commercial says: It is rumoured that W. H. Tapper, who has been manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia here for the past five years, is to be transferred to Campbellton, and that R. H. Anderson of Campbellton, is to go to St. John's Nfld. (Mr. Tapper is a native of Georgetown, P. E. I.)

At White Road Cross, on May the 18th, after a long and severe illness which she bore with great patience and Christian resignation to the Divine will, the death occurred of Margaret, the eldest daughter of Duncan and Flora Gillis, in the 36th year of her age. She left to mourn, an affectionate and dutiful daughter and besides her parents, three brothers and three sisters.

The marriage took place in Cambridge, Mass., on Tuesday, June 4th, of Miss Josie Z. Hoar to Ernest Winchester, both formerly of Charlottetown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. O. H. Wallace, pastor of the Broadway Baptist church, Cambridge. The bride was dressed in a white net dress and wore orange blossoms in her hair and carried a beautiful bridal bouquet of white roses and maiden-hair fern.

The Montreal Times of the 14th says: Mr. Pike, the Mt Allison student who was taken ill during the winter and came to the Moncton hospital for treatment, leaves tomorrow for his home in Port au Basques, Newfoundland. Mr. Pike since leaving the hospital has been the guest of J. C. and Mrs. Patterson, Bonaventure street, having been an intimate friend of their son George at Mt Allison--Mr. Pike is a nephew of Mrs. James Vatcher of this city and is well known here.

The students of Prince of Wales College, says the College Observer, unite with Prof. MacMillan's many friends in congratulating him on being granted a valuable resident scholarship in the English department at Harvard University. His absence next fall will be a heavy blow to Prince of Wales College. A brilliant scholar and an able lecturer, Mr. MacMillan has identified himself most closely with the students in all things pertaining to college life and work. He has been the backbone of our athletic organizations, the counsellor and helper of the "Observer" staff, and a friend and adviser in the trials and doubts that beset the student in his college course. All will regret his departure but no one will grudge him this opportunity to win fresh laurels in a greater field, for himself, for his native province and for old Prince of Wales.

These ideal summer days have displaced the remembrance of the backward spring and the inclement weather which has marked the season. The repressible small boy has begun to swim and all the signs of summer are hung out plainly to be seen. City and country alike look beautiful to the eye, and the long evenings furnish pleasant hours for all who have worked hard during the day. Tourists are beginning to arrive, and there is every indication that when next month comes the influx of visitors from abroad will be fully up to, if it does not exceed, the average. The Plant Line, The Charlottetown Steam Navigation Co., The Intercolonial Railway and other transportation agencies are doing a lot of advertising for the Province and with the present splendid hotels so efficiently managed, and the Tourist Association and the 200,000 Club in active operation the present summer should furnish the experience necessary to fully arrange some system whereby requisites are met for the proper handling of a large tourist trade should be learned. The matter is far more important than the general reader imagines, and in this connection keepers of country hotels and boarding houses should see that they are listed with the above mentioned associations.

A Pickard & Co. have chartered the schooner McClus, Capt. Thomas Laurie, to load a cargo of hard coal at New York for Charlottetown.

One of the most up-to-date newspaper editors in the Maritime Provinces, writing to a number of the staff of this paper says: "You are putting out a fine sheet. Keep it up!"

A Graham's road correspondent writes: "The farmers of this locality have about completed their spring work. Miss Elizabeth H. McKay returned from Manchester, N. H., a few days ago, to spend a short visit at her home here."

Archibald McLean, representing W. J. Gage & Co., Ltd., Toronto, is registered at the Victoria and will spend Sunday in the city. He is accompanied by Mrs. McLean. They are delighted with Prince Edward Island and its balmy June weather.

Business men should remember that they can reach the country every day in the week except Sundays and statutory holidays by advertising in The Guardian's Rural Daily with a guarantee average circulation for 1907 of at least "four thousand per issue."

Capt. Douglas Robertson, of San Francisco, who has been visiting his sister Mrs. George Arthur, Mt. Hope, and other relatives in different parts of the Province, leaves Monday morning for New York, where he will take charge of his ship. Dr. H. W. Robertson, has been absent from the Island of his birth for the past twenty-five years and notes with pleasure the many improvements.

The death occurred at Union Corner, Lot 16, P. E. I. of Edna May, aged 23, youngest daughter of Ephraim Clarke, and sister of Edward Clarke, formerly of this city, who is now in Winnipeg. The deceased had been ill for more than a year and though all that could be was done she passed peacefully away on June 8th. She leaves to mourn a father, two sisters and seven brothers to whom their many friends have expressed their sincere sympathy.

Guardian readers cannot fail to be interested in A. Home & Co.'s page announcements in this issue. Illustrations of several new cartridges are to be seen, as well as new descriptive matter. After reading what the firm has to say, a visit to the large and beautiful show-rooms on Kent Street is in order to see the magnificent display not only of cartridges and harness but of all lines carried. The place is open each evening and is brilliantly lighted by electricity, so that those who cannot call during the day have just as good an opportunity to make their selections at night.

W. B. Howard, District passenger of the G. P. R. at St. John N. B. and W. C. Casey, Travelling passenger Agent, arrived in the City yesterday and will stay over Sunday. They are on their usual spring business visit to this Province. They report business as very brisk in the St. John agency during the past winter the large traffic induced through the two U. P. R. "Empress" steamers making a great deal of work compared with what was the case before St. John was made a winter port of call. The tide of immigration to the West keeps up with unabated volume, and in addition to this the usual home-seekers' excursions from points east will shortly engage attention.
