

WILLIE WESTINGHOUSE'S PERSUADER WAS TOO SUCCESSFUL

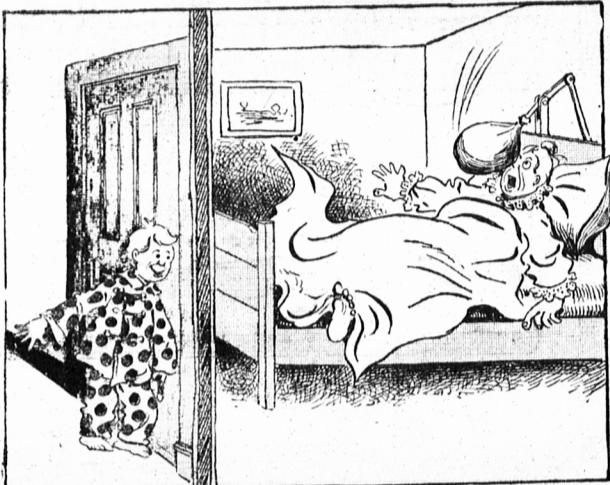

Dear Tommy—We had a good cook who wouldn't get up in the morning, so I made a contrivance like this.

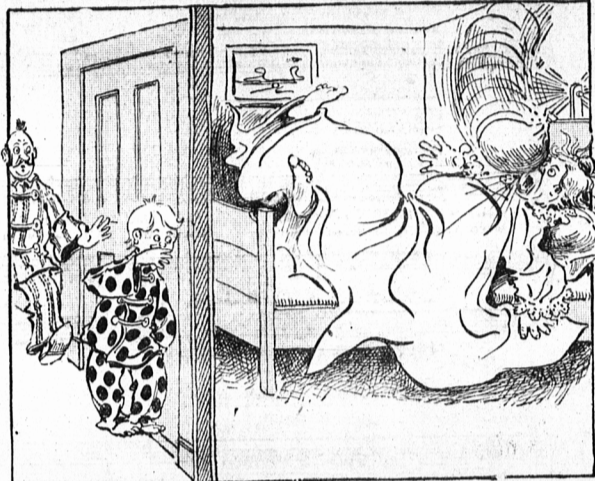

The bladder gently tapped you on the head until you woke up. Marie thought it was fine.

Next morning I was up at six o'clock, waiting at her door for developments.

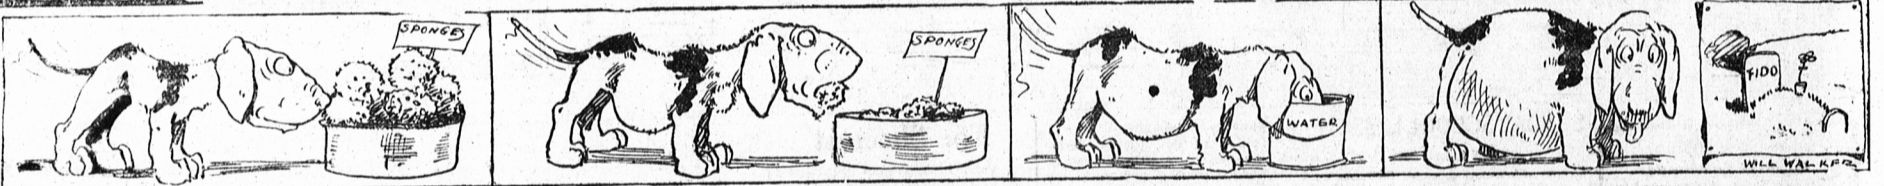

I didn't have to wait long, for I had made the weight too heavy and the bladder worked fast.

Marie made such a racket she woke up everybody in the house.

Of course, she left, and Papa and Mamma were awfully angry. Yours, Willie.
