No Preference In British Marke

Premier MacDonald Announced In House Of Commons That Labor Govt. Will Not Impose A Tariff On Wheat—Quota Arrangement May Favor Dom- inions.

(Canadian Press Cable)

LONDON, Oct. 28.—Premier Ramsey MacDonald announced in the House of Commons this afternoon that the Labor Government was not prepared to put a tariff on wheat. "We cannot do it," he said. Thus the government officially put an end to any hopes that Canadian or other Dominion's wheat products would receive a tariff preference on the British market. His announcement definitely restricted the possibilities of some system of bulk purchasing or quota arrangement which would favor the dominions as against foreign wheat growers. The King, who appeared to have recovered from his long illness, wore a long grey coat as he rode with Queen Mary in their gilded stage coach from Buckingham to Westminster through streets lined with cheering thousands. Her Majesty, radiant and smiling, was garbed in a long coat of white material. Both seemed very happy and were greatly interested in the crowds. The Queen frequently waved her hand and bowed in answer to the crowd's cheers. The crowd also caught a glimpse of the Prince of Wales, and applauded him heartily as he drove from St. James to the House of Lords in the state landau arriving shortly before his royal parents.

Commissioners Fail To Agree

(Canadian Press)
OTTAWA, Oct. 28.—It is expected that the judgement of the Board of Railway Commissioners application for an adjustment in grain rates which would put Halifax on the same basis as Quebec, plus the one cent differential would be released for publication tomorrow pending that the railway commissioners are reticent on the subject. It is known, however, that the board divided three ways in the matter, and three opinions still consequently ensue. The division of the board has the effect of causing the Halifax application to fail.

for raising the age of compulsory school attendance, for amending the laws relating to trades disputes and trades unions and for setting up a consumers council. "A measure of electoral reform will be submitted to you." "Bills will also be laid before you for enabling ratification of the Washington hours convention and of the international convention for safety of life at sea, and for establishment of a new statutory authority to deal with passenger traffic in London." "I pray that under the blessing of God the outcome of your deliberations may advance the happiness and well-being of my people." Along among the Dominion's Premiers following the official formula, Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett attended the opening, distinctive in his gold-braided Windsor uniform. Accompanied by his sister, Miss Mildred Bennett, by Premier Forbes of New Zealand, and Sir Richard Squires of Newfoundland, he looked down upon the state-by ceremony in the House of Lords from a seat in the side gallery.

Urges Canadians To Use More Mar- itime Products

HAMILTON, Ont., Oct. 28.—A ringing challenge to Central Canadian shoppers to look for and purchase Maritime Canada's products instead of imported goods in their stores was sounded by R. W. E. Burnaby, Maritime Trade Commissioner to Ontario, as principal speaker at the Maritime Chamber of Commerce, this evening. While listing goods which Maritime industrialists are offering on the Canadian market, Mr. Burnaby declared that the more central Canada buys from the Maritime Provinces, the more Maritime people can buy from central Canada.

"We are building a nation," he said. "Every time you spend a dollar you are giving employment and helping business. What nation are you building?" "Why do we in Ontario, buy grapefruit, prunes, and so on from the south, when a Nova Scotia apple a day would keep the doctor away?" he asked. "Are we living up to our responsibility as builders of a nation when we buy carloads of concentrated soups from a foreign country when we can get Maritime clam chowder such as was set before us tonight?" he continued amid laughter and cheers.

"We have the largest sardine packers in the world in New Brunswick, but you are probably being sold imported sardines at your grocer's. We have the largest brush factory in the British Empire in Maritime Canada, but your shaving brush is in all likelihood made in a foreign country. "Canada's largest ski factory is in Annapolis Royal and her largest skate factory is in Dartmouth; are you buying their products?" Among other Maritime goods which he said his audience, composed of four hundred prominent Hamilton citizens, could patronize, were lobsters, potatoes, oysters, chocolates, shoes, underwear, coal, stoves, steel and granite.

The Maritime Trade Commissioner also forcefully presenting some of Eastern Canada's long standing claims within Confederation. "Central Canada sells to the Maritime Provinces $35,000 worth for every $15,000 worth it buys from them. Canada's unfavorable balance of trade

ACTION IS CONDEMNED

Refusal to Extend Que- bec Grain Rate To Halifax Is a Distinct Blow to The Pro- vince.

(Canadian Press)
HALIFAX, N. S. Oct. 28.—"The action of the Board of Royal Commissioners in refusing to extend the Quebec grain rate to Halifax is a distinct blow to this province," says a statement issued today by Premier Hon. S. Harrington, "at the time of Confederation, at the time of the building of the National Transcontinental railway there was the promise that Canadian trade should flow through Canadian ports and any necessary measures to accomplish that end would be taken. At the present time, with a strong promise of increased inter-empire trade the port of Halifax is essentially bound to become a great shipping port of the Dominion, nothing would contribute more to this end than to have a favorable rate on grain for export. Unless the rate will actually move the tariff through the port of Halifax it is useless to us and falls in what should have been its underlying principle, following the idea of confederation and the trans-continental."

It would be impossible for the province of Nova Scotia to accept the finding of the Board of Railway Commissioners without the strongest possible protest. The Council of the Halifax board of trade decided unanimously this afternoon to co-operate with the government of Nova Scotia and the harbor commissioners in taking steps to have the grain rate case appealed.

with the United States cannot compare with this. We talk about buying within the Empire and wave the flag, but that's not enough." "The Intercolonial Railway proved a siphon that worked the wrong way; it took western products in and eastern people out." "Much of the coal we, as builders of a nation, import could be taken from Canada's largest mines, those of Cape Breton." Mr. Burnaby went on. "Again, it costs more to bring granite from New Brunswick to Hamilton than to bring it from Aberdeen, Scotland, to Hamilton."

The amount of Canadian goods being exported through a port not within the Empire is appalling, for we have two of the finest ports in the world in Saint John and Halifax. Are we building a nation or just allowing it to drift? "As individual Canadians," he declared, "we have a responsibility. When we spend our dollars, are we helping in the growth of our nation? You merchants—are you selling products of Canada? Work with your

Bennett Addresses Canadian Club In London

LONDON, Oct. 28.—"The Dominion of Canada, with less than ten million inhabitants, is yet the fifth largest trading country in the world and it has achieved this position largely because our people represent a happy combination of two great races," Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett, Canadian Prime Minister, told a gathering at the Canadian Club tonight. "The pioneer spirit prevails still," declared Mr. Bennett of the Canadian people. "But the building of Canada has not been easy. She has been next to a great neighbor which speaks the same language," said Mr. Bennett, and he added, with a twinkle, "in the main," a remark which drew laughter.

"We have kept before us," said the Premier, "an ideal in regard to our place in the British Empire and we have not faltered in the proud belief that to us is entrusted a great and solemn task of interpreting Empire hopes and aspirations to our great neighbors to the south. "No people stands still and there is nothing static about the economic life of Canada. We have kept the faith built upon the great traditions of our fathers; we have created great facilities for the transaction of business, but we realize that the time has come when those invisible ties which bind together a quarter of the world's population should have some more tangible basis of strength and power than mere sentiment."

"I am not dependent," concluded Mr. Bennett, "neither am I depressed for I am as confident as I am of anything in this world that the destiny of the British peoples will never be truly discharged until we have made our dream of co-operation come true."

The hope was voiced by Clansmen Paton and Anderson that things Scottish would henceforth play an important part in the activities of the club. Rev. Dr. Ashdown was introduced to the clansmen.

Highest Quality Foxes Exhibited

Judging Begun Yesterday Morn- ing, Large Crowds View Sil- ver Beauties With Interest.

Judging at the Prince Edward Island's second annual fox show began yesterday morning, and was practically completed in the three dark classes by evening. Competition in the medium silver classes will be very heavy. Today and Thursday will see a tremendous competition with sections on the tables that are much heavier than last year. It is generally conceded that the quality of the exhibit on the whole is also superior to that of the first show. The judges do not hesitate to remove from the money in the smaller classes, animals that are not of the best quality; however the general exhibit is of such a high standard that this right is exercised but rarely. Large crowds filled the spectators seats while the judging was in progress yesterday, and the greatest interest and enthusiasm was evidenced. From the elevated seats surrounding the judging tables an excellent view of the animals is afforded. Facilities for judging are of the best but it is expected that they will be taxed to the utmost during the judging of the larger sections. Four classes, each including six sections, remain to pass before Judges Stewart, Monkley and Taylor. The judging is moving forward very smoothly, and will be completed in time for the official closing on Saturday.

RESIGNATION DEMANDED

(Canadian Press)
LONDON, Oct. 28.—A petition demanding the resignation of former Premier Stanley Baldwin as leader of the Conservative Party was submitted by 44 Conservative members of Parliament tonight to the party's chief whip. Mr. Baldwin's qualities as leader were attacked only yesterday by Lord Beaverbrook, one of the original organizers of the Empire free trade campaign, who said, "We have nothing to hope for from Mr. Baldwin." The resolution announced tonight read: "We, the subscribed members of the House of Commons, submit that a change of leadership is essential to the national interest." Mr. Baldwin has invited those opposing his leadership to speak at a party conference on Thursday.
