THE PESSIMIST.
 Nothing to do but work.
 Nothing to eat but food;
 Nothing to wear but clothes.
 To keep one from going nude.
 Nothing to breathe but air,
 Quick as a flash 'tis gone;
 Nothing to wear but clothes,
 Nowhere to stand but on.
 Nothing to comb but hair,
 Nowhere to sleep but in bed;
 Nothing to weep but tears,
 Nothing to bury but dead.
 Nothing to sing but songs,
 Ah, well, alas! alack!
 Nowhere to go but out,
 Nowhere to come but back.
 Nothing to see but sights,
 Nothing to quench but thirst;
 Nothing to have but what we've got,
 Thus through life we're cursed.
 Nothing to strike but a gait,
 Everything moves that goes,
 Nothing at all but common sense
 Can ever withstand these woes.
 SOME SHAKESPEARE STATISTICS.
 A Shakespeare enthusiast with a turn for statistics has discovered that the plays contain 106,007 lines and 814,780 words. "Hamlet" is the longest play, with 3,930 lines, and the "Comedy of Errors," the shortest, with 1,777 lines. Altogether the plays contain 1,277 characters, of whom 157 are females. The longest part is that of Hamlet, who has 11,610 words to deliver. The part of Costard in "Love's Labor's Lost," who tells Moth that he is "not so long by the head as honorificavitudinitatibus."
 'MOST ANYTHING.
 Train up a child in the way he should go and don't stuff him with ginger snaps until he's done at least half the journey.
 You notice that in these ball games between single and married men, the married men generally win. They ought to, being naturally more expert in making homeruns.
 The man who yearns for obscurity and freedom from attention should hasten right out and get a job as bridegroom at a wedding.
 LOOKING BACK.
 Look back along life's trodden way,
 Gleams and greenness linger on the track;
 Distance melts and mellows all to-day,
 Looking back.
 Rose and purple and a silvery grey;
 Is that cloud the cloud we called so black?
 Evening harmonizes all today,
 Looking back.
 Foolish feet, so prone to halt or stray;
 Foolish heart so restive on the rack!
 Yesterday we sighed, but not today,
 Looking back.

Behind Every Piano We Sell is Miller Bros' Guarantee
 Behind every piano we sell, supporting and maintaining the guarantee of the makers, is Miller Bros., honest recommendation and binding guarantee.
 Miller Bros guarantee is more than a printed form or a spoken word. It means that every piano we sell has been selected by us after a most thorough and vigorous search and is in our belief the best piano at its price in Canada.
 Our guarantee means that the buyer get full returns in piano quality for every cent expended and this guarantee should be doubly strong for you because we are right here on the grounds to answer all complaints, to settle difficulties and to back up every statement we make regarding our pianos.
 We do not consider a sale finished when a piano leaves our store. Your satisfaction is always our main consideration and from the time you purchase the instrument we make it a point to see that you get perfect satisfaction.
 A thorough study of the prices, values, fame and quality of our pianos will thoroughly convince you that Miller Bros' guarantee means now, as it did scores of years ago, that our main aim is to satisfy our patrons and not load them with poor instruments for the sake of making a sale.
