12—MAMMOTH REELS—12

Here you have something more than a Motion Picture—It is a story of human hearts, unfolded in a simple, soul reaching way, under the master guidance of Mr. Griffith

A PRODUCTION THAT WILL GO THUNDERING DOWN THE AGES JUST BECAUSE IT IS SO HUMAN

A tale of love and lovers in a new art form combining Drama, Painting, Poetry and Music—the Picture that has taken this continent by storm—Thrilling—Human—An EIGHT ART.

A STORY OF LOVES—MAN AND WOMAN—MOTHER AND BABY. A GREAT BELL TOLLING HUMANITY

Quaint absurdities—Springing gay barn dances—sleigh bells a jingling.

Love's voice—Sweet and low—Strong and tender—Across fragrant fields and twilight streams.

In the end, amazing scenes, March storms, ice break up, Anna and David carried with blinding mass of ice down the river.

TIME AND PLACE—In the world of Make-Believe. CHARACTERS—Nowhere—Yet Anywhere. INCIDENTS—Never Occurred—Yet Often Happening.

"BLACK MAGIC" IN INDIA; A DWARF DRAWS SIXTY NINE WAGGONS

The Times of India gives an account of an exhibition of Black Magic or a remarkable feat of strength recently performed before the Maharajah of Holkar by a "panty looking man" of 45 and slightly lame who dragged a long line of sixty nine carts for several furlongs following a seven days fast.

In front of the palace says the newspaper was arranged a train of sixty nine heavy bullock carts all fastened together from each of which the bullocks had been un-yoked. The first fifty carts were heavily loaded with about twelve adults in each; the remainder of them were empty. The spectators were eager to see this little man who had announced that he would drag all these carts unaided and presently his thin figure was seen limping at the head of a band of drum beaters who filled the air with weird sounds.

The drum beaters were dressed in deep yellow and they threw packets of yellow powder about them. Led by the magician they circled the train of bullock carts seven times and then stopped in front of the first cart. Then the magician took up the heavy rope tied to the first cart and to be amaze of the spectators who rent the skies with their yells of encouragement as the long line of carts moved.

They moved slowly at first but soon they were rattling along at every mile. The magician dragged them for several furlongs and left them on a road far from the palace. The popular belief appears to be that the magician who is a devotee of the God Mahari the Maharajah's family deity who has taken him under his wing. It is also believed that he invariably fasts rigidly for seven days before he performs the feat.

M. Jeanes, brother of Edith Cavell, British war nurse, was found guilty and sentenced to death. Miss Cavell was executed by the Germans during their occupation of Belgium on the ground that she was a spy and revealed secrets to the allies.

In Memoriam

MR JOHN SMITH

On Wednesday April 12th his friends were shocked to hear of the death of John Smith of Albion after an illness of only one day. The deceased was at his work as usual in the morning when he was suddenly stricken with severe pains in the stomach and all that loving hands could do to relieve him in his suffering was done but God willed otherwise and his soul passed to its eternal reward, testified by the last rites of the Catholic church at the advanced age of 75 years.

The deceased will be much missed in the community as he was a kind friend and a good neighbor and was held in high esteem by all who knew him.

There are left to mourn the loss of a loving father, one son and two daughters, namely: John M. Smith, Victoria, B. C.; Mrs. J. Buckley of Chelsea, Mass.; and Mrs. William M. Moore of Albion with whom he made his home; also two sisters: Mrs. William Humber and Mrs. Frank O'Donnell of Boston, Mass.

The funeral took place to St. Paul's church at Sturgeon on Friday afternoon and was largely attended, the service at the church and grave being conducted by his pastor, Rev. Theo Gallant and he was laid to rest beside his wife who predeceased him some years ago.

The pallbearers were: Henry Neil Collins; Alban O'Connor; William Mahor; Edward Mahor; and Nathaniel McKinnon. May his soul rest in peace.

Japan has begun to wreck units of its navy and is reported to have decided on a naval reduction which still but it on even a less advantageous basis tactically with other navies than provided for in the Washington conference.

The allies are ready to contribute to the support of the family of ex-Empress Charles but some of the countries that benefited by parts of the fortune of the Hapsburgs, including Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia, are declared to have refused to release for this purpose any part of the property of the imperial family that was handed over to them.

"Trousers are a great convenience" says a girl wearing them. Men verify her statement.
