God Save The King.

Besides the sorrowing and bereaved husband, who reside at Greek River, a little son Roy, about three years old is being lovingly cared for by his father and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. MacDonald, Greek River. At Cambridge, the bereaved parents reside and the following are the brothers: Lawrence, John, Harper, Leslie and Percy, and one sister Lols.

The funeral services at the home and Presbyterian Church, Peters Road, were conducted by Rev. Quincy A. McDowell, Caledonia, who also visited the departed during her illness. The services were impressive, but cheering to the bereaved family and to the many relatives present.

The interment was made in the New Cemetery at Peter's Road, from the Presbyterian Church, where a large assemblage was congregated.

The pall bearers were Messrs. Walter Fraser, Artemas and Hills MacDonald, Samuel Irving, George Johnston and Everett Graham.

The following hymns were sung at the home and church: "Shall we gather at the River," "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," "Will the Circle be unbroken?" "Shall we meet beyond the River" and "Does Jesus Care?"

Beautiful floral tributes were donated as follows:

"Broken Circle," Mrs. Jos. G. Jenkins and Mrs. J. L. MacDonald, Peter's Road.

"Wreaths," Mrs. Marcy C. MacDonald and Mrs. Clair Johnston, Peter's Road.

To the bereaved husband and child, the parents and relatives, the heartfelt sympathy of the community is extended.

Loneliness changed to re-union complete, Absence exchanged for a place at His feet.

Sleeping ones raised in a moment of time, Living ones changed to His image sublime. (Patriot please copy)

Entered into rest after a short illness on October 24th, 1929, Mrs. Newell Macdonald (nee Annie Leeco) aged 21 years.

This sad event occurred at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. William Leeco, Cambridge Road.

There with the tender care of loved ones and the best medical skill, it was hoped that the disease might be averted, and that her life might be spared to her family.

This hope was also cherished by the deceased until near the last, but when it became apparent that she must bid adieu to the earthly ties so tender and yet so strong, she did not murmur, but calm and resigned to the care of a loving Heavenly Father, she was enabled to abide by the ruling of an all-wise and sympathizing Saviour, in whose arms she was borne to the realms of eternal happiness, there to await the glad re-union with her loved ones.

The departed although unassuming was possessed of many good qualities which endeared her both to the community in which she passed her girlhood days and later to the home circle of friends, with whom she associated during her short married life.

WOMAN GAMBLERS ARE DEPLORED

(British United Press) SYDNEY, New South Wales, Dec. 18.—"Gambling and the habits of modern woman are deplorable," said Sir Charles Ballance, the eminent British surgeon, when he arrived in Sydney, on his way to England via America. "I have no time for gambling or racing; still less do I agree with women smoking or drinking cocktails."

Perfect Attendance.—Alexander MacLachlin; Eddie Thompson; Mellick Warren; Helen MacKinlay, teacher.

India is sending so many eggs to England that it threatens to take the place of China as chief supplier of Britain.

Nearly half the people of Japan, Chosen, Karafuto and Taiwan have opened postal-savings accounts.

Because they do not wish the sport to die out, farmers in the vicinity of Seskinore, Ireland, have asked the local hunt club to resume hunting.
