"ORANGE LILY SAVED MY LIFE" These words, or expressions having the same meaning, are contained in hundreds of the letters I have received during the past year. Many were from women who had suffered from falling of womb; others from women who had escaped dangerous surgical operations, as the tumors and ulcers had been removed by the action of Orange Lily and others who had suffered from suppressed menstruation, leucorrhoea, painful periods, etc. For all these and other troubles known in general as Women's Disorders, Orange Lily furnishes a positive, scientific, never-failing cure. It is applied direct to the suffering organs, and its operation is certain and beneficial. As a trial actually proves its merit, I hereby offer to send, absolutely free, a box worth 40c, sufficient for ten days' treatment, to every suffering woman who will write for it. Enclose 3 stamps. WEDNESDAY

ISLAND LADY DEAD.—Mr. Donald MacDonald, of Bethel, Lot 40, has received a telegram from his son Edwin A. MacDonald, stating that his wife had died on March 3rd at Melfort, Sask., Hospital. (Other papers please, copy.)

WRECKED STEAMER SEIZED.—Sheriff A. A. MacDonald, Georgetown, arrived in the city yesterday morning having come from Savage harbor where he seized and put under arrest the American steamer "George N. Orr," which was wrecked there two weeks ago. Sheriff MacDonald acted under the instructions of the Admiralty. Capt. J. H. Macdonald, of the "George N. Orr," is a watchman who is making a claim for wages.

SUCCESSFUL ISLANDER.—Alexander MacQuarrie, vice-president of the Walnut Grove Creamery Company of Oakland, Cal., has recently purchased a splendid new home on 56th street, where we hope he and his family will enjoy many happy years. Besides an orchard, already in bloom, Alex. is the possessor of a half-acre potato patch, ready planted. It brings him back to his boyhood days, when he used to plant potatoes on his father's farm at Bonshaw, P. E. I.—The Maple Leaf, Oakland, Cal.

SIXTH CHILD DEAD.—Huestis Wainwright, 6 years of age, passed away Monday night following the death of the Great Beyond his four sisters and brother whose deaths were reported in a recent issue and which occurred within the previous week. Another child is still sick and the father was reported yesterday as making but slow progress from his illness of pneumonia. Mrs. Wainwright was formerly Miss Lightizer daughter of Mr. George Lightizer of this city and who had also been sick in convalescent. This is one of the saddest cases recorded in a long time and the surviving members of the family have the heartiest sympathy of all who have heard of their terrible bereavement. The funeral of the little boy Huestis will take place today at 2 p. m.

There passed peacefully away at North Battleford, Sask., on February 23rd 1920, Benjamin Binnis in the 39th year of his age. The late Mr. Binnis was a former resident of P. E. Island had been in failing health for the last three years, and his many friends here will regret to learn of his early demise in the very prime of his manhood. He leaves to mourn besides a sorrowing mother, four sisters and two brothers. The sisters are Mrs. Bruce Camarford, North Battleford, Sask. who with her mother was with the deceased until his death. Mrs. C. A. Drake, Calgary, Alta.; Mrs. R. H. Binnis, Charlottetown, P. E. I.; and Mrs. E. N. Hill, New Glasgow, P. E. Island. The brothers are Rowan C. of Boston, Mass., and Russell D. of Charlottetown, P. E. I.

Interment took place to North Battleford cemetery.

There passed away at St. Peter's Bay, on Feb. 25th, at the age of 75 years, after a short illness of influenza and pneumonia, one of the most respected citizens of the community, Alonzo McEwen.

As a citizen, he was respected as an upright and honorable man who by his kind and gentle manner, won many friends. As a farmer, he occupied a foremost place, as his fine residence and good property testify. He was a faithful member of the Presbyterian church. St. Peter's, where he will be missed.

He is survived by one son Howard on the homestead, and one daughter, Mrs. D. Anderson, Sandon, B. C. and two sisters, Mrs. Bowley Webster, Marie and Mrs. King, Boston.

The funeral was largely attended and the remains were interred in Midwell cemetery, beside his wife, who predeceased him about four years ago. The services at the house and the grave was conducted by his pastor, Rev. J. M. McLeod. "The memory of the just is blessed."

The funeral of Miss Pearl Ching reference to whose death was made in The Charlottetown Guardian a few days ago, took place from the home of her father Mr. Benjamin Ching of Bothwell, on Monday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. W. R. MacWalker, Minister of the Baptist and Christian churches, of East Point. The Scripture lesson, Isaiah 57 was selected for the occasion by the deceased. The text chosen was verses 8-9 of the chapter read. The hymns "Nearer my God to Thee, and Shall we meet beyond the River," were sung by the mitted choir. Reference was made to the beautiful life of the deceased, her desire to live that she might minister to others, and her triumphant death—in her own words, not death but going to be forever with the Lord. Her removal from our midst was so sudden that we scarcely realize she is gone. Those who knew her best loved her most and we deeply realize that place is left vacant in the home, in the church and in the community that can never be filled. The words of Whittier in reference to his friend Channing may be fittingly applied to her:

When your mouth tastes like all the mean things you ever did mixed together, then you need BEECHAM'S PILLS. Your mouth is a good indication of the condition of stomach and bowels.

SUDDEN BEREAVEMENT

The death occurred at her home in Summerside on Saturday evening of Miss Georgie Fraser, daughter of Mr. John Fraser of Summerside at the early age of twenty eight years after a short illness of pneumonia. Besides her sorrowing parents she leaves to mourn three brothers and five sisters. The funeral took place from her home at 2 o'clock on Monday to the Peoples Cemetery.

HIS YOUNG SON.

Mr. Samuel Elliot of this city received the glad news yesterday by cable that he was the father of a bonnie Scotch baby boy. Mr. Elliot was a member of the 16th Canadian Scottish and took part in the principal battles of the war, among them the first charge in which the Canadians engaged. Mr. and Mrs. Elliot were married in Edinburgh in October 1915 and the latter came to this city on her return in March 1919. She returned to Edinburgh on a visit to her parents last October. She expects to return to her P. E. Island home in May next with her little son.

A sad gloom was cast over Truro on March 6th, when Mrs. Hugh A. McKinnon passed to her eternal reward at the early age of thirty-seven years. Deceased had been sick only a short while and her early death was entirely unexpected. Being of a loving disposition she was liked not only by her immediate neighbors but like wise by many friends throughout the surrounding country. She will be sadly missed not only by her family, who were devotedly attached to her, but also by all who enjoyed her acquaintance.

The family left to lovingly cherish her memory are, besides a sorrowing husband and six children, a father and mother, seven sisters and two brothers.

The funeral to St. Simon and St. Jude church took place on March 6th, and was largely attended despite the condition of the weather. The service was conducted by the pastor, Rev. Father A. J. MacDougall, after which the remains were laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery.

The pall bearers were: Messrs. Leo Murphy, Peter Harper, John Nelligan, Eddie Harper, Joseph F. Arsenault and Fred Conroy.

To her bereaved relatives we extend our sincere sympathy. A kind and loving wife and mother has gone to receive the reward of a well spent life. May her soul rest in peace.

Many people will be very sorry to learn that the Reid Raynor Knitting Mills at Tryon were totally destroyed by fire at 3 o'clock yesterday morning.

The fire when discovered had gained such headway that nothing could be saved. Only a few people witnessed the conflagration.

The fire was discovered by a young man, who was passing the mills at 3 a. m. It was on the lower floor in the front of the building and the blaze had illuminated the windows when it was first seen.

The fire spread very rapidly and in one hour the mills were in ashes.

Fortunately what little wind there was, was from the south west, blowing across the pond away from the village, otherwise many other buildings would have been destroyed. Two small barns caught but were quickly extinguished. The fire started, comparatively few people were drawn to the scene. The mill was a very large building about 150 feet long and 40 feet wide and several stories high. The plant was in good working order and had been in operation since 1913. At that time the buildings which were formerly the Tryon Woolen Mills were taken over by the present company and machinery for knitting underwear installed.

Mr. B. I. Raynor of Summerside is President of the Company and Mr. Lord, of Tryon Secretary treasurer.

The plant comprised three big knitting machines, and 10 sewing machines. There was a considerable quantity of yarn and underwear on hand.

The mills were run by both steam and water power and they were employing from 20 to 25 hands.

The building was closed at 6 o'clock as usual on Monday evening. The loss is estimated at between $40,000 and $50,000.

The exact amount of insurance is not yet known, but it is said to be between $15,000 and $25,000.

Another bad fire broke out about eight o'clock Monday evening in the farm residence of Mr. Robert Wilson, Hampton. The fire originated from the thawing out of the kitchen sink with hot irons which had been left there by the inmates of the house, were in the barn when the building caught.

Neighbors gathered quickly and succeeded in saving the outbuildings and some of the furniture but the kitchen range and separator and a number of other articles were destroyed, the building being burned to the ground.

A sad gloom was cast over Kingston and surrounding district by the sudden death of Mrs. Frank Willis (formerly Miss Ethel Bowman of North Wiltshire.) She was of a very kind and cheerful disposition, always willing to help in every good cause, a faithful member of the Methodist Church and W. S. There are left to mourn her sorrowing husband, also a little boy aged 3 years. Other members of her family are her father Mr. Wm. Bowman, one brother Aquila Bowman of North Wiltshire; two sisters Mrs. Arthur Smith, North Wiltshire and Mrs. Charles Miller, Vancouver, B. C. The funeral which was largely attended took place at Kingston cemetery on February 27 the services being conducted at the house and grave by her pastor Rev. S. D. Webster. The pall bearers were Chester Edwards, Robert Edwards, Geo. Green, Wm. Green, Geo. Paynter and Wm. Paul.

A SHEEP WITH A RECORD

Mr. John Dowling, of South Shore, is the owner of a sheep with an excellent record as far as his ownership of it is concerned. He purchased this sheep from Mr. Edward Doyle of South Shore on March 12, 1918, along with other sheep and all the stock of his farm. On that day this sheep gave birth to three living lambs. On March 28th, 1919, she gave birth to four lambs; three of which lived, and on March 10th of this year she had a litter, this time of no less than five of which three are alive. This certainly is something altogether unusual making a total of twelve lambs in three years. The average number at a birth of lambs is from one to two. The sheep has also been an excellent wool producer yielding last year eight pounds of washed wool.

A provincial convention of the Great War Veterans Association at which delegates attended from branches throughout the Island was held in the G. W. V. A. Club rooms last evening.

The delegates present were: Major D. A. McKinnon, D. S. O., Provincial President, Mr. P. E. Palmer, member of Dominion Executive, Messrs. A. E. B. Murphy, Tignish, R. Forsythe, Alberton, P. B. Crosby, Summerside, R. McLean, Georgetown, H. W. Barnes, Georgetown, E. G. Weeks, R. L. Cotton, D. F. Tierney, Charlottetown, H. R. Stewart, Secretary.

The convention was called for the purpose of formulating resolutions to come before the Dominion convention which is to be held in Montreal on the 22nd inst.

Many resolutions dealing with returned soldier problems were passed a full account of which will be given at a later date. Mr. A. E. B. Murphy was selected to represent the Prince Edward Island council at the Montreal convention. Major C. J. McMillan was selected to represent this command on the Dominion Executive for the ensuing year.

The Charlottetown Driving Club races yesterday afternoon were attended by large numbers who thoroughly enjoyed them. Every heat was a spirited contest, inches separating the contestants in several heats. Lady Marshall splendidly driven by Wellington McNeill won the mixed class after a hard battle with the other drivers. Her beautiful appearance and at the latter end of the race with Commodore K. Ex-Mayor Brown piloting Alice The Great won his race in thrilling fashion coming from behind in every heat. Alice under his capable tutelage is becoming a first class racing mare. As is frequently the case there was a slight difference of opinion over some of the decisions of the judges but after the "critics" became satisfied that no unfairness had been dealt out.

The officials were: Judges, J. McDonald, city; J. McDonald, Johnstons' River; E. Acorn, St. Peter's; P. Conroy, Tignish; D. O'Brien, J. McEachern.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Augustine Melnyre of Bayville, Lot 14, was overshadowed by sorrow when the sad news came to them by telegram that their youngest daughter Eva, beloved wife of Mr. James McDonald had died at the Sisters' Hospital in New York of double pneumonia on January 29th. A few days before the tidings of her serious illness had been received but it was fondly hoped that she might recover. But God in His Divine Providence willed otherwise and she passed peacefully away fortified by the last consoling rites of Mother Church of which she was ever a faithful and devout member.

Deceased was ever of such a kind and lovable disposition that none knew her but to love her, none named her but to praise. For her many friends and acquaintances she had always the kind word and sunny smile, and by her ever abiding patience and unselfishness she gained lasting friendship and undying love. In the home circle which had so long been brightened by her presence, but now cruelly saddened by the unflinching hand of death her memory will long be fondly cherished as one of those rare flowers which God lends to earth but plucks to send to bloom forever in Heaven. On Feb 3rd her remains accompanied by her sorrowing husband and two brothers, John and Gus and her sister Jessie were brought to her home in Bayville, where a large crowd of sympathizing friends and neighbors awaited. Few could realize as they gazed on the fair young form, beautiful in death, that those lips were forever dumb and those
