ISLAND LADY ILL—Mrs. John L. Stewart, of East Boston, Mass. formerly of St. John's, P. E. I., has undergone a somewhat serious operation at the Parkway Hospital, Brookline, but has returned to her home and is now convalescent and much benefited in health. Her daughter, Miss Mary Stewart, has also recovered from a recent operation, and has resumed her duties as nurse in the Stronge Hospital.

IN THE KIRK AT CAMBRIDGE—Rev. J. W. S. Lowry is giving a series of Sabbath morning studies on the Minor Prophets, "The Twelve Apostles of the Old Testament," and on Thursday evening a series on the different petitions of the Lord's Prayer, both of which are proving interesting to the congregation. The Sunday evening services are evangelistic and are largely attended. Many from Prince Edward Island still find a congenial church home in the Kirk at Cambridge and the congregation is visited frequently by people from the Maritime Provinces sojourning amongst their relatives in Greater Boston and vicinity.

THE SALVATION ARMY CITADEL—Forty-fifth anniversary of the local corps will be held Saturday, Sunday, Monday, March 28, 29, 30. Special events as follows: Saturday, 8 p. m. illustrated missionary service, "Christ in the Orient" will be given by Rev. W. L. Outhouse, B.A. (President P. E. I. Ministerial Association). Sunday, 11 a. m. Holiness Address. Mrs. Adjt. Martin. Honour roll of officers entered the work from local Corps; 3 p. m. citizens mass meeting. Musical numbers rendered by Mrs. J. A. WEDDING BELLS—There took place at Sacred Heart Church, Watertown, Mass., on Saturday, Feb. 7, the marriage of Miss Anastasia MacFally and Mr. Frederick Shea, both formerly of this province. Rev. Father Ryan, pastor, performed the ceremony and celebrated the nuptial mass in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The bride was becomingly gowned in white satin and wore a veil and carried a bouquet of roses. She was attended by her sister Jennie, who wore blue chiffon with hat to match and also carried a bouquet of flowers. The groom's cousin, Mr. Eimer Heagen was best man. After the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Henry McGuirk, where a number of guests awaited them, and a hearty breakfast was partaken of, and a very enjoyable morning was spent. After a short honeymoon trip Mr. and Mrs. Shea are making their home in Somerville, Mass. Shortly before her marriage, a miscellaneous shower was tendered the bride at the home of her cousin, Mrs. P. D. Duffy, Watertown, where she received a large number of valuable gifts. Their many friends join in wishing them many happy years of wedded life.

PERSONALS

Card of Thanks
 Mrs. J. D. McIntyre and family of Montague, desires to thank all those who sent Floral Tributes and Messages of Sympathy and in every way showed so much kindness and sympathy during their recent sad bereavement.
 Mrs. J. D. McIntyre, Montague. 4380-3-28-11.

IN MEMORIAM
 In loving memory of Henry Lloyd Howatt, who died March 28th, 1929. Our son is sleeping, so free from all pain, Oh! wake him not sweet spirit, to suffer again, He slumbers so soundly, oh let him sleep on, His sickness is ended, his troubles are gone.
 Inserted by his Father and Mother. 4372-3-28-11.

IN MEMORIAM
 In loving memory of John George McDonald, died March 28th, 1930.
 Before our eyes he faded
 Growing weaker every day
 Doing all we could to save him
 Until God took him away.
 Never shall we cease to love him
 Never shall his memory fade
 Sweetest love forever lingers
 Around his sweet and peaceful grave.
 Inserted by Mother and Sister. 4358-3-28-11.

IN MEMORIAM
 In loving memory of John Geo. MacDonald, who departed this life Saturday, March 28th, 1930.
 Just one year today dear Father
 Since grim death stole us our home
 And carried off your gentle spirit
 How our lonely hearts do moan.
 And we often wonder Father
 In your Heavenly home above
 Do you see your sorrowing family
 Do you watch over them with love.
 In our dreams we sometimes see you
 As you were in days since passed
 With your kindly smile and cheerful
 Oh that those dreams could last.
 God in his infinite wisdom
 Doeth all things for the best,
 Though sometimes we fail to see it
 When our hearts are sorely pressed
 We must ever struggle onward
 Onward in this heavenly goal
 And in God's presence meet again
 Where soul and spirit speak to soul.
 Inserted by his Wife and Family. 4359-3-28-11.

Zion Church Choir Entertain
 A bright program of catchy choruses, solos, and a reading introduced a snappy one-act comedy drama in Zion Church Schoolroom last evening, put on by the choir members to enlarge their choir funds. A Shanty Song, Blow the Man Down, was chosen to open the evening's performance with Mr. Malcolm McKinnon taking the solo part. The choice of solos were very happily made and each performer fully sustained the musical reputation of the Zion Church choir members, while the mixed quartette and male quartette were equally pleasing as was also Mr. Bruce's character sketch of the Fallon Star.
