The half yearly examinations were held at Pownal School 23rd inst. The schoolroom was nicely decorated in honor of the festive season, and a number of ladies as well as gentlemen were present. The classes examined in Reading, History, Grammar, Arithmetic and Geography gave evidence of careful instruction—Dialogues, Recitations and singing followed, after which the pupils were treated to candy and fruit. John Smith, Pownal, congratulated the teacher, Herbert Yeo, on his good work, as since taking charge on 1st July last the term had been broken by mid summer vacation and other causes, that kept pupils at home later on, still improvement was plainly seen in thoroughness of instruction as was also the case in the order of the pupils both in and out of school. He predicted a bright future for the school. Others followed all expressing the same sentiments as Mr Smith. Mr Yeo in a short speech thanked the ladies for their attendance and expressed his pleasure at the praise given his work. A happy exchange of Xmas good wishes followed. All joined in singing the National Anthem and the meeting closed.
