He went over with the first contingent.—Sackville Tribune.

FUNERAL SATURDAY.—The remains of Mrs. Daniel Gillis who died in River John N. S., after an illness of five months, were laid to rest in the Roman Catholic Cemetery on Saturday morning after the usual religious rites had been performed at St. Duristan's Cathedral. May of Charlottetown general recruiting officer for New Brunswick is now in Fredericton to complete the arrangements for a big recruiting campaign and he will have charge of the organization. The High Battalion Band, which returned to Charlottetown, will take part in this campaign and will make a tour of the populated centres. It has been suggested that recruiting sergeants be allotted to the various motion picture theatres and entertainments throughout the province and the call for men be kept continuous. Personal canvasses will also be made and recruiting work in general carried out with more energy.

CANADIAN PRISONERS OF WAR.—Canon Simpson has forwarded $300 to the Canadian Red Cross Society in London to provide food and comfort for our adopted prisoners since Jan. 1st. Among the latest contributors are the Bethel and Onward Bible Class, Springfield, Lot 8, $15.00 donation. The Charlottetown Women's Club $25.00 for adopted prisoners—six months. A number of inquiries have come from various societies during the past week, and it is hoped to be able to report 70 prisoners adopted before the end of the month. It is a pleasure to receive donations from those who cannot undertake to support a prisoner. A mother of one of the prisoners brought a letter from her son saying how thankful he was for the weekly boxes of food which he received regularly. A father of another prisoner wanted a uniform for his son. This was obtained and sent by parcel post. Several parents have brought small sums to be sent as pocket money for their boys. Dr. J. T. Jenkins, which have been forwarded to island prisoners. For information apply to Canon Simpson, treasurer, 21, Fitzroy St., Charlottetown.

HEROIC ISLAND GIRL.—The following clipping from the Boston Post will be of interest here as Miss Doyle referred to is a daughter of Mrs. M. Hughes, Richmond Street, Chy., and a sister of Mrs. J. J. Desmond and Mrs. Fred Percher, City and Miss Emily Doyle, Hope River. She has also three brothers in this city and three sisters in Boston. Two women employees of the Frost Hand Laundry were recovering from the effects of gas poisoning last night, and physicians said that they would escape the fate of one of their employers, Albert E. Frost, who was suffocated yesterday morning. The women, Miss Hannah Scannell and Miss Theresa Bait, owe their lives to Miss Elizabeth H. Doyle, the bookkeeper at the laundry, located at 185-187, Massachusetts Avenue. It was Miss Doyle who found her employer dead and two women unconscious in the basement, where gas was escaping from a leaky gas heater. Edward Drinkwater, another employer, complained of illness early yesterday morning and was allowed to go to his home. Frost, whose home was at Lester place, Jamaica Plain, took Drinkwater's place in the wash room.

AN ECONOMICAL LUNCH

Take a few Oxo Cubes and save the expense of lunching out. A cup of Oxo and a few biscuits, or a sandwich, make a light inexpensive meal which will keep you satisfied and clear-headed until your next repast.

A cup of Oxo is always good. It can be made with an Oxo Cube and hot water with very little trouble. When you reach home after a hard day at the office, a cup of hot Oxo will do you ever so much good, and lessen the risk of a chill.

All the machinery has been taken out, shelves have been installed and the ceiling heavier boarded. The elevator has been shifted to the rear and a portion of the upstairs department fitted as an office. The contractors for the work are Messrs P. McMillan and James Lawlar, while Mr. MacLeod is doing the plumbing. The remodelled building will be occupied by the Farmers Co-operative Co., Ltd.

A CANADIAN WEDDING IN CHICAGO.—On January 10th, the home of Dean Shaller Mathews (of the University of Chicago) and Mrs. Mathews was the scene of a very pretty wedding. Rev. John T. McNeil, of the staff of Westminster Hall, Vancouver, B.C., was married to Miss Nettie Hardy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Hardy of Parkville, B.C. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McNeil of Alberton, P.E.I. The minister who performed the ceremony, Rev. H. F. Waring, now of Berwyn, Ill., is a well known Canadian clergyman. Miss Hardy was a charming bride. She wore a dress of bronze covert cloth, a black picture hat, black fox fur and a corsage-bouquet of bridal roses and lilies-of-the-valley. The guests were Prof. P. G. and Mrs. Mode, Miss M. L. Cook, cousin of the bride, Rev. Edward Zbstovsky, Miss Dormer Dixon, and Rev. C. A. and Mrs. Dawson. After the wedding luncheon the happy couple left for their new home 829 East 53rd St., where they will reside during the winter term of the University of Chicago.

Mr. George R. Stanley of the Signal Corps 105th Battalion, Witley Camp, England, has written Messrs. Bruce Stewart & Co., and their employees under date of Dec. 29th, as follows: "Before thanking you for your valued and much appreciated parcel received a couple of weeks ago, I must apologise for not writing to you more frequently in the past. You have lavished upon me paternal love as it were, in remembering me so kindly and generously at this joyous season, when the smallest token, when the shake of the hand gives us courage and makes us feel inexpressibly the worth of a friend. How can I thank you sufficiently for your precious box which contained all the goods a soldier could desire. Assuring you that the Island establishments were relished to a crumb and made peace and contentment with the 'inner man' I will close, wishing you a happy and prosperous New Year." Another Charlottetown boy Lt.-Corp Ivan S. Mitchell, of the 35th Battalion, who left here with No. 11 Ammunition Column, writing to Mr. Stewart on the same date said: "Just a line to let you know I received the parcel. Many, many thanks. I am feeling fine, but I don't know if they will ever pass me for France, as I have been turned down on every medical examination, so it is pretty hard luck. I am tired volunteering for overseas drafts but my turn may come yet, so I am going to 'stick it out.' I could have gone back to Canada but I am going to see this thing out since I came so far. The 105th Battalion has been smashed up. They held together pretty long, but now there are no units going overseas—they are all 'drafts'. How are all the boys in the shop. Remember me to them. Another letter received the same day from a member of No. 5 Siege Battery said: "Please accept my sincere thanks for your thoughtfulness in sending me such an acceptable Christmas box. It arrived on Dec. 23. (my birthday) in good condition and I assure you was greatly appreciated. We are still in England and as yet cannot say how soon we may move across the channel. I am spending a four days' furlough in London. There were 30 p. e. of the Battery allowed New Year's leave and I happened to be one of the lucky ones."

TUESDAY
 There passed peacefully to her eternal rest at Milltown Cross January 14th, 1917, Mrs. Ann McPherson, relict of the late Donald McPherson, at the advanced age of 96 years. The surviving family are Mrs. John Clary and Mrs. Malcolm McLeod of Milltown, and one son, Murdoch, a resident of the United States for quite a number of years.

CAPT. LOURIE HOME.—Captain Thomas Lourie, whose schooner, the Roma, was sunk without warning by an enemy submarine near the Island of Sardinia, as related in the Guardian in its issue of January 4th, has arrived at his home in Charlottetown. The captain, when asked by a representative of this paper to give some particulars of his trying experiences, could not be persuaded to do so, declaring that enough had already been told. The captain leaves shortly for Boston, and will no doubt soon again have a stout deck under his feet.

SUPREME COURT.—The Supreme Court met at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, when the following case was disposed of: The Royal Bank of Canada vs. Archibald J. McDonald, application for defendant to postpone trial until June term. Dismissed with costs. Applications to add additional pleas allowed with payment of costs. The case of W. Aubrey Mutch vs. The Mount Edward Silver Mines, Ltd., was tried before Mr. Justice Fitzgerald and a jury. This was an action for warrants in the sale of taxes of Johnston, K.C., and McCallum for, the plaintiff, Bentley, K.C., and McLean, K.C., for defendant. The trial was on the stand nearly all the day. Court adjourned at 5.20 p.m. to meet at 11 this forenoon.

The death occurred at New Acadia, Kings Court, on January 8th of Mr. Varish Gallant after an illness of seven months. He was a native of Rustico and was one of the pioneer settlers in the New Acadia section. By dint of industry and perseverance he was enabled in the course of time to make for himself one of the most comfortable abodes in the country. He was an elder of the Roman Catholic Church at Grosbant, a church which he took a prominent part in having had constructed. He is survived by his widow whose maiden name was Elizabeth Curtis, one son, Inglis, and one daughter, Hazel; also one brother, Mr. Amedee Gallant of Bloomfield, to all of whom the sympathy of many friends goes out in their bereavement.

WON CASE.—Mr. J. C. Sims, of the Sims Packing Co., has received word from St. John, N.B., that judgment has been decided in his favor in a case which has been progressing for some days in that city—the case of the Sims Packing Co. (of Charlottetown) vs. Hopkins et al., heard in the Supreme Court Chambers before Mr. Justice Chandler. The question at issue was whether a firm is bound by the contract of its agent before ratification by the firm. The firm, in this case, was the defendant. An order for work to the amount of $2,000 had been placed with the plaintiff, who after shipping about $300 worth of the order, made eight drafts for that amount. The defendant claimed that his contract with the agent called for sixty days in which to make payment. On that account defendant refused to honor eight drafts. The plaintiff in turn refused to make further shipments. Plaintiff sued for the amount shipped while defendant counter-claimed for damages contending that the refusal to ship caused them to lose considerably, as the price of pork had advanced.

ROYAL RECEPTION.—On Thursday evening, Jan. 18th., a large number of the good people of Souris, met the incoming train to do honor to a returned hero, Sergeant Wm. Bruce, by holding him an informal reception. Lieut. McLeary and his men of the Siege Artillery Draft were there to meet the veteran and as Sergt. Bruce stepped off the car, they led in giving him three hearty cheers. In the waiting room, His Worship Mayor Mathews presided and short addresses were given by Judge Fraser, Rev. (Father) John McDonald, Rev. A. McKay—all expressing warm appreciation of the heroic deeds and self sacrifice of Sergt. Bruce. The latter responded, characteristic of the true soldier. He said he had done his duty and was very glad to know that the people of Eastern Kings appreciated his services. The speech was over, coffee and cake was served in the ladies' waiting room by some of the ladies of Souris and a few minutes later Sergt. Bruce took the Elmiria train for his home in Red Point.

There passed away on the evening of Jan. 12th., 1917 at Charlottetown, Mr. George Selter in the 92nd year of his age. He was born on April 26th, 1925 at Little York, and twenty-five years later was married to Mary Ann Cook. He spent most of his active life in Highfield, where for many years he was a strong supporter of the Methodist Church in Highfield. Mr. Selter was a man of deep personal piety and rich spiritual experience which was ever expressed in terms of happiness and joy. He never wearied of relating the story of his conversion, when at the early age of seventeen he wrestled with God and obtained the victory which was maintained in triumph until the end. So near did he come to the "Heart of the Eternal" that it was ever a benediction to be in his presence. During the closing years he took special joy in telling others of the mercy and goodness of God; and although life here was ever a pleasure, he recognized that "to depart and be at home with the Lord" would be far better. He leaves to mourn his loss and cherish his memory two sons: William in Regina, and Rev. George, Pastor of the Methodist Church at Kensington, P. E. I., and four daughters: Mrs. George Howard, Highfield; Mrs. Wm. Howard, Clyde River; Mrs. Wm. Chown, West Royalty, and Mrs. Robert Prizell, Charlottetown. Also three brothers: Rev. Joseph Selter, Port Maitland, N. S., John Selter of Winchester, Mass., and Wm. Selter of Little York, P. E. I., and two sisters: Mrs. Thos. Ayers, Charlottetown and Mrs. J. A. Alley of Saskatoon who is at present visiting Charlottetown.

Flattering to the Original

But Imitations Only Disappoint

There are many imitations of this great treatment for coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis and whooping cough. They usually have some sale on the merits of the original, but it should be remembered that they are like it in name only.

DUNK RIVER INSTITUTE.—A meeting of the Dunk River Farmers Institute was held at Kelvin on Tuesday evening the 16th. The meeting was well attended considering the adverse condition of the weather and roads. After the usual business was dealt with Prof. Theodore Ross was a very instructive address on the improvement of farm crops through the medium of a good crop rotation. He clearly defined at the outset the principles on which a good rotation is based and then showed by black-board illustration the comparative cost of producing a high versus a low yield on an acre of land and found that the profit was approximately three times as great where the high yield was obtained. His address was practical throughout and overflowing with suggestions that farmers might well put into practice. At the close of his address a lively discussion followed after which a hearty vote of thanks was tendered Prof. Ross for his instructive address.

KHAKI BOYS ASSIST.—The boys of the Kings Court Siege Artillery Draft in co-operation with the Red Cross Society of Souris held a very successful concert and basket social in St. Patrick's Hall on Friday evening Jan. 19th. Considering the coldness of the night, the attendance was good. As it was the aim of $73.00 was realized and much thanks is due the audience for their generous support. Every number on the programme was well received and was obliged to respond to a hearty encore. Needless to say, the order was perfect. The following is the programme: Quartette—"Keep the Home Fires Burning," Corporal Acorn, Bdr. Baker, Gps. Douse and Paquet. Reading—"The Soldier's Return," Gr. McIntosh—Step Dance—Gr. St. Clair Paquet. Reading—

Bdr. Baker. Piano Duet—Misses C. and E. Paquet. Step Dance—Gr. Malo MacDonald. Reading—"The Irish Philosopher," Geo. Green. Instrumental Music—Margaret and Walter Cheverie. Reading—"Tpir. Stewart. Solo—Corporal Acorn. God Save the King. The veteran auctioneer, Mr. C. C. Carlton might well have his name placed on the programme as one of the entertainers, for during the sale of the baskets, he certainly kept the audience in rars of laughter by his witty remarks.

SUCCESSFUL ENTERTAINMENT.—A full house greeted the play "Holy City" shown in King George's Hall Kensington, Thursday January 18th. The programme was as follows: "Holy City"—Miss Alfreda Compton. Pray for us—Miss Nellie McCoubrey, Scottish Songs—Rev. H. R. Bell, Humorous sketches—Mrs. A. B. Martin, Reading—W. W. Smith, Dialogue—The last of the Norwegians—Miss McCoubrey and W. W. Smith. Song—Mrs. M. Schurman, Tableaux—Mrs. Chester Crews, Peace Perfect Peace—Misses Compton and Hurst, Pianist—Miss Hurst and Mr. W. S. Curtis. The play was so exceedingly well rendered that it is extremely difficult to particularize. The scenery, setting and acting was of the highest order and was a distinct compliment to the exceptional ability of Mrs. J. J. McCoubrey to train operative talent. Mrs. McCoubrey's part in the Indian setting evoked enthusiastic admiration. Her costume was beautiful and extremely appropriate. In fact every number on the programme was enthusiastically received and applauded. Each of the members of the troupe received the ovation they so richly merited. The singing of the Dology and National Anthem brought the play to a close.—X.

On January 2nd 1917, there passed peacefully away to his eternal rest, Mr. Henry Mooney, of Victoria West, Lot 13, in the 76th year of his age. Though he had been in failing health for some time no one thought the end so near. He will be greatly missed in the community, where he resided for many years, and also in the home, where he was a loving husband and affectionate father. A chair has been left vacant that never can be filled. There are left to mourn a sorrowing widow, one son, William H. and five daughters, namely, Mrs. H. J. Anderson, Charlottetown; Mrs. W. B. Gould, Malden, Mass.; Mrs. J. Hubbard, Kellib, Minn.; Mrs. J. Bowman, Mizpha, Minn.; and Miss Effie of Malden, Mass., who was at home with him during his recent illness. The funeral service which was held in the Presbyterian Church, was conducted by Rev. R. Davison, a former pastor. A very large concourse of friends and neighbors gathered to pay their last tribute of respect to one whose memory will long be cherished by his family and many friends.

Oh father thy gentle voice is hushed—
 Thy warm true heart is still;
 And on thy pale and peaceful face
 Is resting death's cold chill.
 Thy hands are clasped upon thy breast,
 We have kissed thy marble brow;
 And in our sad and aching hearts
 We know we have no father now.
