WEDNESDAY
SEAL RIVER.—The annual meeting of the ratepayers of Seal River School was held on the usual date. The attendance was fair and a large amount of work accomplished. Mr. Thomas Sloane resigned as trustee and was succeeded by Mr. J. Campbell. $75.00 was voted for the expenses of the coming year and the ratepayers were fortunate enough to secure the services of Miss McNeil for another term.—G.

THE SPINNING BEE held in the Town Hall on the afternoon of Wednesday the 11th inst. was a grand success. Quite a number of spinners were present, and a very large quantity of rolls were spun into yarn for the praiseworthy object of providing socks for the soldiers. In the evening a pleasing musical programme was rendered, tea was served, and after spending a most pleasant evening the party broke up at 11 o'clock. The sum of forty-two dollars was realized, which goes to Red Cross purposes.—E.

The sudden death occurred at her home in Winnipeg of Mrs. Artemas Trowsdale, (formerly Miss Alice Moore, of Westmorland, P. E. I.) on Monday, July 9th. The deceased was forty-nine years of age, and had bright evening her usual good health until the time of her sudden death, when she was stricken with paralysis. The remains, which were brought to the Island for interment, arrived on Saturday night. The funeral took place on Sunday from the residence of Mr. Bertram Trowsdale, Crapaud, was very largely attended, and the floral tribute was one of rare beauty. The services at the house and grave were conducted by the Rev. G. W. Morris, who spoke very feelingly from the text "Prepare to meet thy God." She leaves to mourn a sorrowing husband and one daughter, Agnes, in Winnipeg, and two brothers, Crisp, of Westmorland, and Robert of Crapaud. The pall-bearers were K. C. Holm, E. Boswell, Joseph MacDonald, Frederick MacDonald, Russel Sturdy, and Walter Rogerson. Interment took place in the People's Cemetery, Crapaud.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Leon J. Arsenault, will be deeply grieved to learn that they received a telegram announcing the death of their son, Theophilus, who is reported killed in action on May 5th. This telegram came in reply to an inquiry made as a result of a previous telegram which informed them that he had been wounded on the late above mentioned. Not receiving any further news about him, they became anxious, but still hoped for the best. This sad intelligence will certainly cause them very great sorrow as Theophilus was a young man of many virtues, highly esteemed by all and gave indications of a bright career, being endowed with an intelligent mind, coupled with great pluck, as he was the very first of Egmond Bay who donned the khaki. Who knows but that his noble example lead the way for so many from his native place to follow him in the path of glory, which in his case lead to the grave. The parents of this young hero though filled with heart-rending grief, have much to be proud of, as deceased whom they had nursed, reared and counselled to the best of their ability, has proven to them and to the world that their care, their Christian admonitions had borne fruit in him and that he was a worthy son of his country. Owing to his great talents which soon made themselves manifest to his superiors, on arriving in England he had been singled out to take courses in telegraphy and other branches, in which he would no doubt have excelled and which would have placed him in a high and responsible position; but fate decreed otherwise, and he died (none the less honored) for his country and his home.—M.

In These War Times you want real food that contains the greatest amount of body-building material at lowest cost. The whole wheat grain is all food. Shredded Wheat Biscuit is the whole wheat in a digestible form. Two or three of these little loaves of baked whole wheat with milk and a little fruit make a nourishing, strengthening meal.

S. S. ENTERPRISE.—The S. S. Enterprise calls at Newport every Thursday and discharges a large quantity of freight. The outgoing cargo consists of bagged potatoes, eggs, oil barrels and the like shipped by Messrs. Fay and Sloane, while the inward cargo consists chiefly of goods for the same parties.—G.

FOR THE ORPHANAGE.—On the evening of the 12th inst. the ladies of Hunter River and the members of Hackett L.O.L., No. 1484 held a very successful ice cream festival for the benefit of the Protestant Orphanage. The sum of $60.00 was realized and paid over to the Treasurer, Rev. D. MacLean. Great credit is due to the ladies of the community for the success of their efforts in the interest of the orphans.—G.

MOTOR VEHICLES.—The first big motor truck to reach Charlottetown arrived by the Aranmore yesterday. It is for Messrs. Carvell Bros. to be used in their extensive wholesale business. A splendid new motor delivery wagon for the firm of Moore McLeod also arrived yesterday and will prove a great adjunct to their delivery business. Both vehicles were given trial yesterday and proved very satisfactory.

WEDDING BELLS.—A very quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of J. W. Hogg, Spring street, Summerside, on July the 11th. The contracting parties were Miss Laura MacGregor, daughter of Mrs. David MacGregor, New London, and Lemuel Orr, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Orr, French River. Precisely at three o'clock the bride entered the room, which was decorated for the occasion, on the arm of Mr. Hogg, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, rendered by Miss Ruth MacGregor, sister of the bride. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. H. Mitchell, pastor of the Presbyterian church, Summerside. The bride, who was unattended, was daintily attired in white satin-de-chine, trimmed with gold-lace and carried a large bouquet of white roses and maiden hair fern. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Orr drove to their future home in French River where a sumptuous supper was served by Mrs. George Orr, to a number of the nearest friends and relatives. About nine o'clock, a charivari party of about a hundred serenaded the house, and were leniently treated with cake and candy, their odd costumes afforded much merriment. The invited guests departed about midnight, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Orr a large share of happiness for the future.

The Supreme Court met at Georgetown yesterday at 11 a. m. Mr. Justice Fitzgerald presiding. Following is a list of the Grand Jury:
George A. Poole, Foreman; Wm. McDonald, Wm. F. Easton, Jos. McDonald, Patk. Trainor, George Hooper, John Angus McDonald, John McDougall, Dougald C. Martin, Wm. Frowse, Horatio Martin, Patk. McEachern, Edwin McFarlane, Peter Carter, John J. Walsh, Hugh Curri, Alfred Gordon, Bernard McCormick, Seymour Knight, John Sloan, Augustus O. Hanley, Charles McKinnon, Patk. Walsh.

The Judge having addressed the Grand Jury, the latter after some deliberation, found a true bill against James Gunn, charged with wounding Addison McKenzie. The prisoner was arraigned and will come up for trial today.
The following cases were disposed of:
The Magic Silver Black Fox Co. vs. J. Clark McQuarrie. Judgment for plaintiff, Mr. H. Strong for plaintiff, Mr. B. W. Tanton for defendant.
John W. Carruthers vs. Alex. McDonald, judgment for plaintiff, Mr. G. S. Jaman for defendant.
Emily Peters vs. James McEachern, judgment for plaintiff, Mr. A. F. McQuaid for plaintiff, Mr. G. S. Inman for defendant.
Augustine Peters vs. James McEachern and another, judgment for plaintiff, Mr. A. F. McQuaid for plaintiff, and Mr. G. S. Inman for defendant.
Alvena Blanchard vs. David McDonald, judgment for plaintiff for all land claimed. Mr. G. Gaudet for plaintiff, Mr. J. D. Stewart for defendant.

In the Grand Jury's report it was stated that a prisoner in the jail was not in the room in which prisoners are supposed to be kept, owing to the fact that the basement, in which the cells are situated are flooded at the present time, and unfit for habitation. They recommended that the matter be attended to. His Lordship said he would bring the matter to the attention of the Government.
Mr. A. F. McQuaid is representing the crown.
Court adjourned until 10 o'clock today.

FORMER RESIDENT BEREAVED.
The numerous friends in Charlottetown of Mr. Cyril H. Pruner, former Vice-Principal of the Union Commercial College, will be very sorry to learn of the death of his wife, Jessie Clark Pruner, who passed away in Salem, Oregon, on Tuesday, July 3rd, after a painful illness. Deceased belonged to the same town as her husband, Morrisburg, Ont., they having been companions from childhood. Interment was made in City View Cemetery, Salem, Ore. To Mr. Pruner and his little girl the sincere sympathy of many friends in this community in their sorrow will be extended.

WEDDING BELLS.—A very pretty wedding took place in Alberton on the evening of June 23, at the home of Captain and Mrs. D. Miller, when their oldest daughter, Mattie Gordon, was united in marriage to Mr. F. D. Bowness, of Montrose. The bride, who was unattended, looked very sweet in a dainty gown of white crepe de chene, and silk net, and carried a bouquet of white lilies. After the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. George Millar, in the presence of immediate relatives only, a delicious supper was served—and before long visitors in splendid array, came to bring their good wishes to the popular young couple. Mr. and Mrs. Bowness will reside in Summerside, and their friends unite in wishing them many years of happy wedded life.

ENJOYABLE FUNCTION.—A most successful and enjoyable ice cream social was held on the beautiful grounds of the Knights of Columbus last evening under the auspices of the ladies of the parish. The grounds were splendidly illuminated with rows of electric lights and the crowd was catered to by a bevy of winsome young ladies. A most pleasing feature of the event was the excellent music furnished by the band of the League of the Cross Society. This band, which became disorganized on account of a quarrel by all the members going overseas, made its first public appearance last evening, and its wonderful progress made by the players was the subject of much favorable comment from the large number of people assembled. The ladies, who had the affair in charge, are to be congratulated upon the success of their efforts.

SOLDIER BROTHERS MEET.
Mrs. A. J. McLean, 51 Douglas St., has received a letter from England, telling of the meeting there of her son, Driver A. J. McLean, of the Dragons, with her two other sons, Kenneth W., who left here with the first contingent, and Daniel S., who left with the 2nd Heavy Battery. Both of the last named are now with the 3rd Reserve Battalion. The meeting of the three brothers was a most gratifying incident as it was many years since the first-mentioned had left his home, Kenneth and Daniel being only small boys at the time. A. J., after leaving here went to the United States and served in the Philippine Islands and later joined the British African war. He enlisted for service in the present war in Glasgow, Scotland, after having suffered shipwreck. So far all three brothers have come through the war without a scratch.

The person who said: "For ways that are dark," etc., comment to the "Heathen Chinese," could have applied it equally well to the Leader of the Opposition.
When Dr. Delaney called his meetings for the Third District of Prince County, he invited the Premier to be present. Hon. Mr. Arsenault replied to the invitation by a letter in which he said that he would attend, and if a charge were made that required a reply he would make an answer. Hon. Mr. Arsenault accordingly attended the meetings at Egmont Bay, Cape Egmont, Mt. Carmel and Wellington, and at each of these meetings replied in one speech to the attacks of Messrs. Delaney, Bell, McLean and Gallant. At the Wellington meeting when the chairman called on Mr. Bell, the Leader of the Opposition tried to force Mr. Arsenault to speak first, but the chairman announced that it had been agreed otherwise, and Mr. Bell had to go on with his speech. He then tried his old trick of talking against time in order to shut out Mr. Arsenault, and not before Mr. Bell had exceeded the time by a half hour did the chairman succeed in making him stop.

At the Grand River meeting, the same night, the matter was organized beforehand in order to force Mr. Arsenault to speak before Mr. Bell. A strong partisan was placed in the chair, not by a vote of the meeting, but even before the people entered the hall, and he was given his instructions.

As soon as the hall was filled the "organized" chairman announced that the Liberals were "going to ruin this meeting," and that the order of speaking was: First, Mr. McLean, representing Dr. Delaney; then Hon. Mr. Arsenault, then Mr. Gallant and then Mr. Bell.
The Premier protested, saying that he was there to reply according to arrangements made with Dr. Delaney and faithfully observed at previous meetings. The chairman, however, said that he was going to carry out his program regardless of arrangements and even refused the opinion of the meeting. Mr. Arsenault then said that under the circumstances, and as there was a gross breach of faith he would withdraw, and started to leave, followed by fully two-thirds of those present. Some one seeing the meeting disperse, thereupon, shouted "ward, you're afraid." Anybody who is acquainted with Mr. Arsenault knows that he never shirked an issue nor refused to tackle any odds. On the present occasion he wheeled around like a shot, and exclaimed: "Nobody ever called me a quitter, can handle them all, even if I have to speak first."
The roasting Mr. Arsenault gave Mr. Bell that night will long be remembered by the people of Grand River, and by Mr. Bell himself. One of those present was asked by our correspondent: "How was the meeting divided?" "I do not know" replied the speaker, but it you had judged by applause, Mr. Arsenault had by far the long end of it.

Mr. Bell afterwards found out that he had gained very little by speaking last, for before he was half through the hall had thinned out, and not more than one-third remained to hear him finish.

WEDDING BELLS.—In St. Paul's Church on Monday, June 15th, a beautiful wedding was solemnized by the Rev. John J. Ryan, P. P., the contracting parties being James H. Barnes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Barnes, of Peterham, Mass., and Miss Veronica McCarthy, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John McCarthy of St. Teresa's. The groom was attended by his brother, Wm. B. Barnes, while the bridegroom was Miss Josephine, of Boston. Two little nieces of the bride, the pupils of St. Patrick's Parochial School were flower girls. The ushers were Harold McEgee and Walter Cronin. Prof. George G. McGonnell presided at the organ. Solos were rendered by Mrs. Park Wile and Mrs. Margaret Tooley. Mr. and Mrs. Barnes will reside at 29 Putnam Ave., Cambridge, Mass.

PRINCE COUNTY PROSECUTOR.—Last winter the Prosecutor obtained a second third conviction against an old offender and had him jailed. He put a beer seller out of business, he brought three cases against three druggist clerks and announced his determination to enforce the law without fear or favor. This looked to the temperance forces as a change of heart on the part of the Prosecutor and they willingly gave the Government due credit for it all, but with the exception of one case against a doctor the good work stopped here. On March 21st the cases against the druggist clerks came before the court. Two of them were fessed and the Prosecutor withdrew the remaining one, but he never does anything to enforce the convictions. On March 31st the Prosecutor leaves Summerside and does not return until April 14th. One of the clerks paid his fine to the Town Clerk and the other one left here during the Prosecutor's absence, but did not go secretly as he told, of his intention to leave Summerside. If these are not sufficient reasons to show why temperance people should change their minds, I can give you others. In the past, apparently under orders two beer shops have been closed here by the Prosecutor. If two why not all? I am, sir, etc. J. A. Brace.
