

WEEK'S NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

Mr. Stan Jackson, wife of the... Mrs. Agnew's coach, and her little daughter Laurie Anne, Fort Erie, Ont., are among the new arrivals in Charlottetown.

WILL ATTEND MANUFACTURERS MEETING—Mr. C. L. McKay leaves this morning for Toronto where he will attend an executive meeting of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association.

Mrs. Flora Van der Horst, Peters Road, deserves a passing tribute, his remarkable lady next March will have attained the great age of ninety-three.

POST NUPITAL SHOWER—Mrs. Gertrude McNeil was hostess this week at her home in Tyne Valley in honour of Mrs. Frank Platts who is a recent bride.

PROHIBITION COURT—Two highway traffic cases were heard before Mr. G. M. Matthews, Magistrate for Prince County at Summerside last week.

GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY—Westmoreland was the scene of a happy gathering last Tuesday evening when about one hundred and thirty guests invaded the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. Crisp Moore.

The firemen were called out at 10:45 yesterday afternoon to wage a two-hour fight with a stubborn blaze in the residence of Mr. William Wright, Brighton Road.

At the invitation of the Rev. Dr. Moore, President of the University of King's College, the following sat down to dinner Saturday night at the Canadian National Hotel.

President Moore said he had had this opportunity of getting to know some of those who had done so much in making the campaign for the College on the Island a success.

TUESDAY There passed peacefully away at her home in Springfield, after a lingering illness in the early hours of October 23rd, Ruth Winnifred MacLeod, adopted daughter of the late Robert MacKenzie and Mrs. MacKenzie, at the early age of 23 years.

ATTENDED FUNERAL—Mr. A. E. McLean, M.P., and Mrs. McLean attended the funeral service of Mr. Donald Campbell, of Lot 16, who for many years looked after the farm property of Mr. McLean, and whom Mr. and Mrs. McLean held in the highest esteem.—S.

IS RESTING COMFORTABLY—His Honour Lieutenant Governor Dalton, who is confined to the Charlottetown Hospital, as a result of injuries sustained last week, was reported resting more comfortably yesterday than on the day previous.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT—Mr. Ambrose Jesso, of Albion, suffered a painful accident while splitting wood with an axe one day last week. Mr. Jesso's little daughter suddenly interrupted him at his work, and to save her from harm he reached out his left hand to push her back.

The Public Utilities Commission has instructed the Canadian Appraisal Company, Montreal, who have been recommended to them as the outstanding independent appraisal company of East in Canada, to make an appraisal of the property of the Maritime Electric Company in this Province.

The death occurred in Mercy Hospital, Gary, Ind., of John Murray, age 18 years, senior in Emerson High School, of acute appendicitis after a few days illness. The funeral took place from his parents' residence, 844 Jackson St., to Holy Angels Church, thence to Calvary Cemetery and was largely attended.

ENJOYING VISIT HOME—Among the many visitors to "The Island" this summer none has so thoroughly enjoyed her visit as Mrs. D. Murchison of Tacoma, Washington, daughter of the late Mr. John Ronald Macdonald of Point Prim.

The death occurred at her home, Lewis' Point, yesterday morning of the late Mr. George Lewis, aged 92 years. The late Mrs. Lewis, who was widely known and greatly revered by her family and friends, has resided at her married life at Lewis' Point, the home of the Lewis family for many generations, and her genial hospitality and kindly welcome will be long remembered.

SHOWER AND DANCE—On Thursday evening, Nov. 24th, a most enjoyable affair took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Corcoran of Suffolk when a large number of the people of Bedford, Milbrooke and Suffolk gathered there to tender them a house warming and shower in honor of their recent marriage.

There passed peacefully away at her home in Springfield, after a lingering illness in the early hours of October 23rd, Ruth Winnifred MacLeod, adopted daughter of the late Robert MacKenzie and Mrs. MacKenzie, at the early age of 23 years.

FERTILIZER STEAMERS—The S. S. Siren arrived in port yesterday with a cargo of potash from Europe and is now discharging at the Island Fertilizer Company's wharf. The S. S. Putter also arrived last evening with a cargo of super-phosphate from Baltimore, and is now anchored in the stream.

BIRTHDAY PRESENTATION—On Monday Rev. Dr. R. Moorhead Legate, Minister of St. James Church, was the recipient of a gift from the session of St. James, on the occasion of his birthday. The gift, a lounge robe, was presented by Mr. W. A. Stewart. Remarks were made by Mr. A. E. Morrison. Dr. Legate was wished many happy returns from the day.

WEDDING BELLS—The marriage took place at the home of the officiating clergyman, Rev. C. E. Armstrong on Saturday last of Mrs. George William Van Idersine of Millville, P. E. I. The happy couple were attended by Miss Ruth Fraser and Mr. W. R. Howlett. They will reside in Millville.

BUILDER HERE—Mr. W. L. R. Stewart of the Stewart Construction Company, Sherbrooke, P. Q., which erected the new Prince of Wales College building, is spending a few days in the City. The company recently completed the construction of the new buildings at Mount Allison University, Sackville, to replace those destroyed by fire last spring. Mr. Stewart is registered at the Canadian National.

FORMER ISLAND LADY—Following a sudden attack of heart trouble, Mrs. Raphael Vautour, aged 71, died early Friday morning at her home in Shediac, N. B. The previous evening Mrs. Vautour had been as well as usual before retiring, but death occurred next morning before the arrival of a physician. Mrs. Vautour was formerly Miss Catherine Bell, of Bloomfield, P. E. I. She had been a resident of Shediac for 23 years. She was twice married, her first husband having been Levi Clements, of Prince Edward Island. Surviving are four sons, one of whom is Mr. Joseph Clements of Bloomfield, and one sister, Mrs. A. H. White, who resides in Seaview, P. E. I.

WEDDING BELLS—A quiet but very pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Charles Borromeo Church on Sunday, Nov. 5th, when Miss Lucy Anna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McQuaid, Ten Mile Falls, became the bride of Wilfrid Hynes, son of the late Martin and Mrs. Hynes, Alberly Plains. The bride wore a blue dress with black velvet hat. The bridesmaid was Miss Lilian Tremblay, she wore a brown dress and hat. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Russell Fraser. The happy couple will reside in Brooklyn, New York.

DIES IN MONCTON—A wide circle of friends throughout New Brunswick will regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Jennima M. Green, widow of the late Major H. Green, formerly of St. John. Her death occurred yesterday after a brief illness at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Alfred Barton, Moncton. A daughter of the late William and Barbara Hudson, of Tryon, P. E. I., she was 78 years old. After her marriage she moved with her husband to Saint John where she lived until three years ago when she went to Moncton. Mrs. Green had been a staunch member of Portland United Church while she resided in Saint John. Surviving are five daughters, Mrs. Barton, Alberta, Moncton; Ethel, Waltham, Mass.; Gertrude, Montreal, and Eda, Chatham, and a son, William H. Green, 221 Prince Street, West Saint John, from whom the funeral will be held—Saint John Telegraph Journal.

THURSDAY—RETURNED HOME—Mr. A. S. McKay and his daughter, Miss Effie McKay, Summerside returned on Tuesday evening from a pleasant visit to Boston, Mass. S.

DEATH OF MR. FRED HARRIS—Friends will learn with regret of the death at four o'clock on Wednesday morning of Mr. Fred Harris at his home in Sherbrooke. Mr. Harris was only 38 and had suffered for some time with a form of paralysis. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Harris of Sherbrooke and was one of the finest young men in the county, and his early demise has left a gap in the community life of Sherbrooke which will be hard to fill. He leaves to mourn besides his parents, his wife (nee Miss Ellis) and two little girls; also one brother, Ray and one sister, Mrs. Walter Laughlin of Sherbrooke, to whom sympathy is extended. The funeral takes place on Friday afternoon at 2 p.m. at his late residence, S.

GOOD ROADS—Autists coming to Charlottetown yesterday from both Souris and Summerside report the roads to be in excellent condition. Mr. E. F. Acorn, who drove to Dingwall's Mills and back, states that he made the trip in summer time.

GOING TO CHICAGO—Heath Saunders, a Charlottetown boy who is studying at the O. A. C. at Guelph, has been chosen to represent his college on a six man judging team at the International Fair in Chicago next week. Heath represented his college in the annual college track meet this fall and gave a good account of himself.

ENJOYABLE DANCE—Mrs. (Dr.) L. B. McKenna, Mrs. (Dr.) W. H. Soper and Mrs. A. M. Douglas chaperoned at a most enjoyable dance given for charitable purposes in the Casino on Tuesday evening. The young ladies responsible for this pleasant way of making money to help out at the Christmas season are to be congratulated on its success. The hall was most artistic, the decorations being carried out effectively in red, yellow and green. Dainty refreshments were served at a late hour.

Y'S MEN'S CLUB—The Rev. Dr. Ramsay was the speaker at the Y's Men's Club weekly meeting last night. He had spoken previously on his trip to the Old Country, and again took up his narrative and gave a very vivid description of how colorful the Briton is, his country, and his character. He also referred to the tides around the British Isles, and the different dialects that were once very common among the people, also the beautiful scenery, especially the treacherous almost make a park from north to south. He also mentioned the fascinating history of the country, which he claimed kept the British so far ahead of everyone else. He said the singular thing about an Englishman is his fair mindedness and sportsmanship which makes him look for fair play. Y's Man Wilf Livingstone was the chairman for the meeting and extended a hearty vote of thanks to Dr. Ramsay.

LECTURE ENJOYED—An entertainment pleasing to those who had the opportunity of being present was held in St. Catherine's Hall on Tuesday evening, Nov. 28th. Mr. W. F. Alan Stewart of Strathgartney, was the speaker, the subject of his discourse was "Scotland". Mr. Stewart took us there in imagination and showed us through beautiful castles in Edinburgh, to the tombs of famous men, to hills and valleys, and then to the beautiful lakes we so often sing about. Mr. Stewart's knowledge of Scotland is some what superior to many, it being the home of his ancestors. The entertainment was under the auspices of Fairplay Division S. O. T. Mr. Malcolm MacNeill, capably acted as chairman. At the close of the programme a vote of thanks was extended to Mr. Stewart who fittingly replied. Following is the programme: Opening chorus, Carolina Moon, Reading, Elder Lamb's Donation, Miss Olga MacNeil, encoored, Reading, Sam's Letter, Seymour MacLean, encoored, Lecture, W. F. Alan Stewart, Intermission, sale of candy, Solo, In the valley of the moon, Miss Jean Moore, encoored, Organ solo, Miss Mary Morrow, encoored, solo, Perfect Day, Miss Olga MacNeil, encoored, Chorus, When you were a Tulip, God Save The King.

News of the death yesterday of Mr. John Henderson Gill of this City was heard with widespread regret by friends in the city and throughout the province. He was taken suddenly ill early yesterday morning and passed away about noon.

The late Mr. Gill was born in York in 1837, the son of the late Mr. Abraham Gill. As a young man he farmed in his native district, and in middle life he moved to Charlottetown, and entered business, handling machinery, seed and fertilizer, first in the firm of Gill and Arbing, and later in the firm of Gill and Lantz.

The late Mr. Gill was a member of Trinity Church. In politics he was a strong supporter of the Conservative party. Throughout his life he was an advocate in the cause of temperance. He retired from active work about three years ago. The late Mr. Gill was a man of sterling integrity and was widely known and respected.

In 1880, Mr. Gill married Miss Emily Foster, daughter of Mr. George Foster. His wife predeceased him by about two years. Three children were born from the union, Ruby and Inez, who died in infancy, and Mr. A. O. F. Gill of this city. Three sisters and one brother, Mrs. H. Duncan in the Canadian West, Mrs. D. T. Fraser, Kingston, Mrs. Robert MacParlane, Marshfield and Professor L. W. Gill, Hamilton, Ont., also survive.

The funeral will be held from his late residence on Kent Street on Saturday afternoon. Interment will be in York Cemetery.

RETURNED FROM ENJOYABLE TRIP—Miss Zilpha McQuarrie of Messrs Rogers and Arnett, Summerside, has returned from an extended and most enjoyable three month's visit to San Francisco, Los Angeles, Chicago, Washington, Winnipeg, Banff and many other places of interest.—S

HERE FROM MONCTON—Mr. A. H. Grainger, General Manager for the Maritime Provinces of the T. Eaton Co. Ltd., was a visitor to Charlottetown yesterday when he inspected the new premises in Grafton St., now nearing completion. He leaves this morning on return to Moncton.

BIRTHS—MORRIS—In the City Hospital on Thursday, Nov. 30, to Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Morris, Kinkora, a son, McLELLAN—At Grand River, Nov. 19, 1933, to Mr. and Mrs. Neil James McLellan, a son.

COSTELLO—At Elmwood, Lot 85 on November 25, 1933 to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Costello a daughter, Phyllis Margaret Laurine.

BLANCHARD—In this city on November 24, 1933, to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Blanchard, a son (Wilmer John Prime).

DIXON—At 20 Birchwood St., November 25, 1933, to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur O. Dixon, a daughter, WHITLOCK—At the Prince Edward Island Hospital on November 27, 1933 to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Whitlock, City, a daughter.

MORAE—At Detroit, Michigan, on Oct. 21, 1933, to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McRae a son, Gerald William.

MARRIAGES—NEWPORT—WHITLOCK—At the bride's home, Hunter River, Nov. 23, 1933, by Rev. F. E. Boothroyd, Anthony C. Newport to Ruby M. Whitlock.

MOORE—LLEWELLYN—On November 25, 1933, at the United Church Manse, Montague, Gordon Moore to Mary Isabel Llewellyn, both of Whim Road, Rev. Gordon C. Pringle officiating.

VANDERSTINE-DEAKE—At the home of the officiating minister, Rev. C. E. Armstrong, on Nov. 25, 1933, George William Vanderstine and Prudence Elizabeth Drake, both of Millview, P. E. I.

COLE—COUSINS—The marriage of Miss Stella Mae Cousins, of Glyned Cole, P. E. I., to Mr. Melvin Ray Cole, of Clinton, was solemnized by Rev. G. Carlyle Webster at Zion Manse, Charlottetown, on Wednesday, Nov. 29th, 1933.

STOCKMAN-DOCKENDORFF—At the Baptist Parsonage, North River, Nov. 26, 1933, by Rev. J. G. Wakefield, Margaret Doris Dockendorff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Dockendorff, North River, to John Lemuel Stockman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Stockman, of Milton.

DEATHS—GILL—At 85 Kent St. on Thursday, Nov. 30, 1933, John H. Gill, aged 78 years.

MONAGHAN—At 36 Brighton Ave. on Thursday, Nov. 30, 1933, Mrs. Margaret Mary Elizabeth Monaghan, aged 58 years, dearly beloved wife of Peter Monaghan.

HYNES—In Kensington on Nov. 25th, 1933, John A. Hynes, aged 87.

MCKENNA—At Vernon, November 29, 1933, Patrick McKenna, aged 68 years.

MCCLOSKEY—At Sierra Madre, Cal., on Nov. 27, 1933, Mrs. Joseph McCloskey, mother of Mrs. Bernard Kiggins, formerly of Kelly's Cross, Lot 29.

STANLEY—At 35 Elm Ave. on Wednesday, Nov. 29, 1933, Joseph Kingston Stanley in his 69th year.

BRADLEY—At the P. E. I. Hospital on Wednesday, Nov. 29, 1933, Mary Fannie Cussie Bradley, aged one month, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bradley.

MCALDER—At St. Anne's, Hope River, Nov. 27, 1933, Joseph McAlder, age 82.

LEWIS—At Lewis' Point on Tuesday, Nov. 28, 1933, Elizabeth, widow of the late George Lewis, in the 93rd year of her age.

GOOD ROADS—Autists coming to Charlottetown yesterday from both Souris and Summerside report the roads to be in excellent condition. Mr. E. F. Acorn, who drove to Dingwall's Mills and back, states that he made the trip in summer time.

GOING TO CHICAGO—Heath Saunders, a Charlottetown boy who is studying at the O. A. C. at Guelph, has been chosen to represent his college on a six man judging team at the International Fair in Chicago next week. Heath represented his college in the annual college track meet this fall and gave a good account of himself.

ENJOYABLE DANCE—Mrs. (Dr.) L. B. McKenna, Mrs. (Dr.) W. H. Soper and Mrs. A. M. Douglas chaperoned at a most enjoyable dance given for charitable purposes in the Casino on Tuesday evening. The young ladies responsible for this pleasant way of making money to help out at the Christmas season are to be congratulated on its success. The hall was most artistic, the decorations being carried out effectively in red, yellow and green. Dainty refreshments were served at a late hour.

Y'S MEN'S CLUB—The Rev. Dr. Ramsay was the speaker at the Y's Men's Club weekly meeting last night. He had spoken previously on his trip to the Old Country, and again took up his narrative and gave a very vivid description of how colorful the Briton is, his country, and his character. He also referred to the tides around the British Isles, and the different dialects that were once very common among the people, also the beautiful scenery, especially the treacherous almost make a park from north to south. He also mentioned the fascinating history of the country, which he claimed kept the British so far ahead of everyone else. He said the singular thing about an Englishman is his fair mindedness and sportsmanship which makes him look for fair play. Y's Man Wilf Livingstone was the chairman for the meeting and extended a hearty vote of thanks to Dr. Ramsay.

LECTURE ENJOYED—An entertainment pleasing to those who had the opportunity of being present was held in St. Catherine's Hall on Tuesday evening, Nov. 28th. Mr. W. F. Alan Stewart of Strathgartney, was the speaker, the subject of his discourse was "Scotland". Mr. Stewart took us there in imagination and showed us through beautiful castles in Edinburgh, to the tombs of famous men, to hills and valleys, and then to the beautiful lakes we so often sing about. Mr. Stewart's knowledge of Scotland is some what superior to many, it being the home of his ancestors. The entertainment was under the auspices of Fairplay Division S. O. T. Mr. Malcolm MacNeill, capably acted as chairman. At the close of the programme a vote of thanks was extended to Mr. Stewart who fittingly replied. Following is the programme: Opening chorus, Carolina Moon, Reading, Elder Lamb's Donation, Miss Olga MacNeil, encoored, Reading, Sam's Letter, Seymour MacLean, encoored, Lecture, W. F. Alan Stewart, Intermission, sale of candy, Solo, In the valley of the moon, Miss Jean Moore, encoored, Organ solo, Miss Mary Morrow, encoored, solo, Perfect Day, Miss Olga MacNeil, encoored, Chorus, When you were a Tulip, God Save The King.

News of the death yesterday of Mr. John Henderson Gill of this City was heard with widespread regret by friends in the city and throughout the province. He was taken suddenly ill early yesterday morning and passed away about noon.

The late Mr. Gill was born in York in 1837, the son of the late Mr. Abraham Gill. As a young man he farmed in his native district, and in middle life he moved to Charlottetown, and entered business, handling machinery, seed and fertilizer, first in the firm of Gill and Arbing, and later in the firm of Gill and Lantz.

The late Mr. Gill was a member of Trinity Church. In politics he was a strong supporter of the Conservative party. Throughout his life he was an advocate in the cause of temperance. He retired from active work about three years ago. The late Mr. Gill was a man of sterling integrity and was widely known and respected.

In 1880, Mr. Gill married Miss Emily Foster, daughter of Mr. George Foster. His wife predeceased him by about two years. Three children were born from the union, Ruby and Inez, who died in infancy, and Mr. A. O. F. Gill of this city. Three sisters and one brother, Mrs. H. Duncan in the Canadian West, Mrs. D. T. Fraser, Kingston, Mrs. Robert MacParlane, Marshfield and Professor L. W. Gill, Hamilton, Ont., also survive.

The funeral will be held from his late residence on Kent Street on Saturday afternoon. Interment will be in York Cemetery.

RETURNED FROM ENJOYABLE TRIP—Miss Zilpha McQuarrie of Messrs Rogers and Arnett, Summerside, has returned from an extended and most enjoyable three month's visit to San Francisco, Los Angeles, Chicago, Washington, Winnipeg, Banff and many other places of interest.—S

HERE FROM MONCTON—Mr. A. H. Grainger, General Manager for the Maritime Provinces of the T. Eaton Co. Ltd., was a visitor to Charlottetown yesterday when he inspected the new premises in Grafton St., now nearing completion. He leaves this morning on return to Moncton.

BIRTHS—MORRIS—In the City Hospital on Thursday, Nov. 30, to Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Morris, Kinkora, a son, McLELLAN—At Grand River, Nov. 19, 1933, to Mr. and Mrs. Neil James McLellan, a son.

COSTELLO—At Elmwood, Lot 85 on November 25, 1933 to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Costello a daughter, Phyllis Margaret Laurine.

BLANCHARD—In this city on November 24, 1933, to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Blanchard, a son (Wilmer John Prime).

DIXON—At 20 Birchwood St., November 25, 1933, to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur O. Dixon, a daughter, WHITLOCK—At the Prince Edward Island Hospital on November 27, 1933 to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Whitlock, City, a daughter.

MORAE—At Detroit, Michigan, on Oct. 21, 1933, to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McRae a son, Gerald William.

MARRIAGES—NEWPORT—WHITLOCK—At the bride's home, Hunter River, Nov. 23, 1933, by Rev. F. E. Boothroyd, Anthony C. Newport to Ruby M. Whitlock.

MOORE—LLEWELLYN—On November 25, 1933, at the United Church Manse, Montague, Gordon Moore to Mary Isabel Llewellyn, both of Whim Road, Rev. Gordon C. Pringle officiating.

VANDERSTINE-DEAKE—At the home of the officiating minister, Rev. C. E. Armstrong, on Nov. 25, 1933, George William Vanderstine and Prudence Elizabeth Drake, both of Millview, P. E. I.

COLE—COUSINS—The marriage of Miss Stella Mae Cousins, of Glyned Cole, P. E. I., to Mr. Melvin Ray Cole, of Clinton, was solemnized by Rev. G. Carlyle Webster at Zion Manse, Charlottetown, on Wednesday, Nov. 29th, 1933.

STOCKMAN-DOCKENDORFF—At the Baptist Parsonage, North River, Nov. 26, 1933, by Rev. J. G. Wakefield, Margaret Doris Dockendorff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Dockendorff, North River, to John Lemuel Stockman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Stockman, of Milton.

DEATHS—GILL—At 85 Kent St. on Thursday, Nov. 30, 1933, John H. Gill, aged 78 years.

MONAGHAN—At 36 Brighton Ave. on Thursday, Nov. 30, 1933, Mrs. Margaret Mary Elizabeth Monaghan, aged 58 years, dearly beloved wife of Peter Monaghan.

HYNES—In Kensington on Nov. 25th, 1933, John A. Hynes, aged 87.

MCKENNA—At Vernon, November 29, 1933, Patrick McKenna, aged 68 years.

MCCLOSKEY—At Sierra Madre, Cal., on Nov. 27, 1933, Mrs. Joseph McCloskey, mother of Mrs. Bernard Kiggins, formerly of Kelly's Cross, Lot 29.

STANLEY—At 35 Elm Ave. on Wednesday, Nov. 29, 1933, Joseph Kingston Stanley in his 69th year.

BRADLEY—At the P. E. I. Hospital on Wednesday, Nov. 29, 1933, Mary Fannie Cussie Bradley, aged one month, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bradley.

MCALDER—At St. Anne's, Hope River, Nov. 27, 1933, Joseph McAlder, age 82.

LEWIS—At Lewis' Point on Tuesday, Nov. 28, 1933, Elizabeth, widow of the late George Lewis, in the 93rd year of her age.

for CUTS & SORES Apply Minard's Lintment. It washes out poison and cleanses. Any wound healed quickly after its use. There's nothing better! MINARD'S "KING OF PAIN" LINTMENT