The remains of Dr Geo A Hardy, Alberton, who died last March in Labrador are expected via Quebec on Saturday evening. His brother William Hardy, Montrose has gone to Quebec to meet the remains.

SERGEANT Hession, Drill Instructor of 4th Regiment entertained the members of the Fourth Band at Armour's restaurant last evening. In the course of his remarks he highly complimented the band on their general efficiency and on their playing during the inspection.

Professor Kierstead of Acadia University gave a thrilling ten minute address to the soldiers at the camps Wednesday night. The program included a song service heartily joined in by the soldiers and their visitors, two excellent solos by Miss Warbuton and W. F. Collings, a heart to heart helpful talk to the boys from E. F. Higgs and then an address from a man whose oratory held all spellbound. Professor Kierstead pours his condensed thoughts into one's mind, and like any cylinder the resistance is going to make one do something or burst. He is an energizer and his words leave indelible impression. A word later shall be said of the musicians who have jostled each other in their desire to help the boys under canvas.

On Wednesday evening a successful meeting was held in Kensington Church in connection with the Presbyterian Convention. A most interesting programme was nicely rendered, Miss Muirhead presided and Rev. Mr. Whidden led the devotional exercises and gave an address on Corea. The closing session of the Convention opened on Thursday morning at 10.30 o'clock. Mrs Jan. t Muirhead took charge of the devotional exercises. After the President, took the chair the minutes of the previous session were read and approved. Then the reports of the various committees were given. Mrs. Crews, the Treasurer's report showed the sum of $1,298.35 raised up to date. An invitation to meet in Alberton next year was accepted. The paper read by Mrs. McPherson was ordered to be published in the "Message." An interesting informal discussion on many features of the work was taken part in by several ladies and others offered brief prayers and the convention closed by repeating the Lord's Prayer to concert and singing "Lord dismiss us."

The Football Match to be played this evening between the Artillery and the other branches of the service now in camp promises to be of unusual interest.
