Oil Situation Is Reviewed

OTTAWA, March 4 (CP)—Curtailment of the use of fuel oil for heating purposes, part of the government's campaign to conserve oil and gasoline, has resulted in a saving of more than 100,000 gallons a year, the Munitions Department said today in a survey of the oil situation.

The Department also revealed that of the 1,277,921 gallons ration licence for passenger cars, 872,970 are in category "AA" or category "A". Further tightening of categories is expected when the new ration plan comes into effect April 1.

"At the outbreak of war we had large stocks of petroleum on hand," Mr. Howe said. "Since then we have been doing everything possible to maintain these stocks, but I regret to say they have been steadily depleted, until we now are at the point where we are forced to operate on a 'hand-to-mouth' basis."

MRS. JOHN E. O'CONNOR

Friends and neighbors regret to learn of the death early Saturday morning, January 9th of Mrs. John E. O'Connor at her home in seven Mile Bay in her 78th year. She had been in failing health for 3 years, the last year and a half of which she was bedfast.

The deceased was of a pleasing and kindly personality which endeared her to a large number of friends and her many acts of charity and kindness to those in need will not soon be forgotten.

She had been living in Seven Mile Bay for 17 years. Previous to that she lived in Cape Traverse where she will long be remembered as a very efficient and obliging Postmistress.

The numerous Mass cards and Messages of Sympathy received testified to the high esteem in which the deceased was held. Besides a devoted husband, there are left to mourn the loss of a loving mother, one daughter, Mrs. F. Barle Campbell of Summerside and eight grandchildren whom she loved dearly.

The funeral was held on Jan. 11 at 10 o'clock to Seven Mile Bay Church where Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. W. McDonald who also conducted the service at the grave.

The Pallbearers were: Daniel Noonan, Edward Harrington, Bert Cormier, Fred A. Bennett, Freeman Newson, Russel Hamill. May her soul rest in peace. (Summerside Papers Please Copy)
