FAREWELL NIGHT FOR Miss McKinnon Very Near. Excellent Programme To-night.

Tonight's new pictures at New Wonderland embody any amount of fun. A Comic Serenade bears out its name, and any further explanation is not needed. One can scarcely imagine anything more amusing than the serenade given under such laughable circumstances. The Troubles of a Grass Widower tells what these folk have to contend with in the summer when their wives are away on a vacation. This Grass Widower in particular will have many sympathizers, and may teach a lesson at the same time to others similarly situated.

Gentlemen—Last August my horse was badly cut in eleven places by a barbed wire fence. Three of the cuts (small ones) healed soon, but the others became foul and rotten, and though I tried many kinds of medicine they had no beneficial result. At last a doctor advised me to use MINARD'S LINIMENT and in four weeks' time every sore was healed and the hair has grown over each one in fine condition. The Liniment is certainly wonderful in its working. JOHN R. HOLDEN. Witness, Perry Baker. CANADIAN TEAM WON. London, July 18—The Canadian bowlers defeated Howe today. Minard's Liniment Cures Garget in Cows. A Guardian Classified ad costs much less in proportion to circulation than it would in any other Provincial paper, and its pulling powers are wonderful.
