MR. AND MRS. DUNNING EXPECTED THIS EVENING—Mr. Charles A. Dunning, Minister of Finance and Mrs. Dunning are expected to arrive in Charlottetown this evening where they have reservations at the Canadian National Hotel. Mr. Dunning, who is still suffering from the collapse he underwent in Ottawa in June, hopes the sea air of the island will restore him to complete recovery. It is expected Mr. and Mrs. Dunning will stay a few days at the Canadian National Hotel and then proceed to Shaw's Summer resort at St. John's, as he did on former occasions. Mr. Dunning is suffering from arterial trouble brought on by the heat and hard work on June 22nd in the Government lobby of the House of Commons, Ottawa. It was first thought he would be able to return to his duties in a few days but instead he has been slowly recuperating at his home in the outskirts of Ottawa. Mr. Dunning's health will be watched with a great deal of anxiety by people all over Canada as he is a most important figure in the world of politics today.

Good Times Here Again Says Judge

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) LONDON, Aug. 1.—Take Sir Walter Gilbey's word for it, the good old times are here again. The veteran baronet, regarded as one of the foremost authorities on horse-flesh, smilingly broadcast the news after he had stepped out of his customary role to judge women's riding costumes in fashionable London row. Sir Walter, in his 80th year, examined each habit minutely and all the time he kept up a running commentary. "I'll be bashed on the head for what I say about women one of these days, but dammit, it's like the old times to see some decently dressed women in the row," he chorled. "Good times are here again. Usually on Sundays in the row you need a thick pair of glasses if you don't want a headache. No sleeves, any old pull-over they can

CEYLON LOOKS TO EMERGENCY

COLOMBO, Aug. 1.—(CP Reuters)—A scheme for co-ordination of all transport in the British island of Ceylon in the event of war or other emergency has been worked out. Tentative measures have been taken to conserve oil and fuel by stopping omnibuses plying between distant towns served by railway and by using them in areas where there are no railway facilities. Plans have been formulated also find and no hats. Dammit they're poisonous.

Sir Walter awarded first prize to Miss Pat Home, London, who was wearing a bright navy Melton habit and riding the biggest horse in the competition, a dapple grey. Mrs. James LeBlanc, who accompanied by her little daughter Jean, has been visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rhynes, Dunstaffnage, left on return to her home in Saint John yesterday morning.
