WEDDING - A very interesting autumn wedding took place in the presence of nearest relatives at the home of Mrs. Roderick MacRae, Canoe Cove, on Saturday, Oct. 14. The contracting parties were Mr. Colin N. MacFadyen of Canoe Cove and Miss Florence M. MacRae, of Bonshaw. The groom was supported by his brother Everett MacFadyen of the city and the bridesmaid was Miss Marjorie R. MacRae, sister of the bride. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. T. W. Goodwill. The bride's trousseau was a Bonshaw wine ensemble with coat of grey tweed. The bridesmaid's dress was grape wine with hat and pumps to match. The bridal party repaired to the home of Mr. Wm. MacRae where a dainty evening dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. MacFadyen will reside in Canoe Cove. Congratulations.

PRESENTATION AT MILTON - A number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. MacNeill, Milton, to offer their congratulations to their son Wilbur who had recently been married and to welcome Mrs. MacNeill to the community. While the bride's music was being played by Miss Alice Weeks, Miss Nettie MacNeill and Mr. Robert Moore ushered the newly weds to a seat of honor and after the reading of an address by Miss Louise MacNevin, Mr. N. MacNeill presented them with a complimentary address and a well filled purse. Mr. W. MacNeill then on behalf of himself and his bride thanked all present and wished all to come to visit them. After singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow" and bunting of the groom the ladies served lunch. The remainder of the evening was filled away in games and dancing.

PRE-NUP TIAL SHOWER - A prettily arranged shower was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex MacDonald, Bradaibane, on Monday evening, October 2nd in honour of Miss Margaret MacKay, one of Bradaibane's most popular young ladies, who is to be married in the near future. The bride-to-be was escorted to the seat of honour, to the strains of a wedding march by two of her girl friends, Miss Vera Ward and Miss Hazel Woodside, and placed under a prettily decorated arch of ferns and evergreen. The heavily laden baskets of beautiful gifts were carried in by Misses Doreen Mae, Kay and Phyllis Woodside. The gifts were opened by Miss Lucella Todd while the humorous verses were read by Miss Isabelle Cummings and passed to the bride by Miss Hazel Nicholson, while Miss Margaret Ford, daintily arranged them on the table. The bride in her usual jolly manner thanked the donors for their gifts and extended a cordial invitation to all to visit her in her new home. All joined in singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow". The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing, the music being furnished by Todd's Orchestra, assisted by Walter MacDonald. A dainty lunch was served by the ladies.

MacKAY - MacNEILL - A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at Trinity United Manse, Charlottetown at 10 o'clock on Thursday, Oct. 5th when Margaret MacKay, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Roderick MacKay of Bradaibane, was united in the Holy Bonds of Matrimony to Wilbur Bruce, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tarquill MacNeill of Milton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Stirling of Georgetown, assisted by Rev. Hugh Millar. The bride was attractively attired in a gown of Queen's lace with a wide white accessories in matching tones. She was attended by Miss Hazel Woodside, who was dressed in Mulberry crepe with black accessories. The groom was ably supported by his brother, Mr. Robert MacNeill. After the ceremony the bridal party motored to Kensington, Summerside, thence to Borden taking the ferry for the mainland where they visited Moncton and other points of interest, returning on Saturday evening when a reception was held at the home of the bride's aunt, Miss Agnes Gillis. The dining room was tastefully decorated for the occasion with white streamers. Assisting in service were Miss Margaret Ford, Miss Lucella Todd, Miss Vera Ward and Mrs. John MacLeod. In the course of the evening a host of serenaders arrived and after being treated by the hostess, they departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. MacNeill many years of happiness. The bride is one of the most popular young ladies of Bradaibane while the groom was one of the first to answer the call of his country donning the uniform of the R.C.A. It is interesting to note that Rev. John Stirling who was the officiating clergyman also officiated at the wedding of the bride's parents, and the young couple followed the same route on their honeymoon as did the bride's parents. A host of friends throughout the province, John in wishing Mr. and Mrs. MacNeill many years of wedded bliss.

Scout News and Notices

The practical value of Boy Scout training in resourcefulness is being widely demonstrated in Britain under the stress of modern war conditions. At Stow, in Gloucestershire Scouts are making G.P.U. warden's alarm rattles. Scouts of one county organized a district team to disinfect gas masks for civilians. At the town hall of another county centre they are in charge of the distribution of blankets. In a southern village Scouts were called upon to clean out a number of barns for emergency use by evacuees. In another town Scouts scrubbed out a number of vacant houses, chopped fire wood for the emergency tenants and helped in other ways to make them comfortable. The master of a steamer in the roads sent out a request for a Scout to come aboard and teach Semaphore signalling to his crew. The Scout was supplied. In a city district a special Scout team stands ready to guide people through blackout darkened streets, while others carry individual warnings of air raids to a list of deaf people. In another reception district the Scout Troop used its trek cart to move the furniture of eight families. They then collected needed cutlery and kitchen utensils. The Scouts of one town made a list of every possible place where official notices might be posted. Scouts are tackling a squad of younger Scouts for adding up the announcements. In one rural district Rover Scouts furnish night shifts at a listening post and runners at A.R.P. headquarters. In a city area they are maintaining a 24-hour A.R.P. phone service. Reports are not without their humorous items. In one district Scouts worked hard and long filling straw palisades, brewing cocoa and digging sanitary pits in readiness for an expected trainload of evacuees. These failed to arrive, so the Scouts emptied the palisades, filled in the pits and drank the cocoa.

A Quebec Scout Group charter has been issued for a Troop and Cub Pack of Indian boys at Port George, on James Bay, 600 miles from Montreal.

Nine blind Scouts of the Boy Scout Troop of the Halifax School for the Blind have passed their Scout Ambulance Man and Junior St. John Ambulance certificates. A picture in the Halifax Mail showed the blind lads giving a demonstration of artificial respiration.

Old Man Winter made his first stop here on Sunday morning when the first hail and snow fell. Next will come hockey and hockey arguments that are always interesting.

Mr. Frank Alward S.D.U. spent the Thanksgiving holiday at his home in Morell.

Looking over the files of the past in regard to drowning accidents in this district we find the following: Clifford Ardol, Bristol, lost his life at St. Peter's Harbor forty years ago this Summer, when his dory capsized and in the summer of 1912, Mary, six year old daughter of Joseph Gillis walked into the harbor and was drowned. Searchers found her little bare foot print in the sand. Twenty-four years ago the late George Barry was lost while attending his fishing gear.

The Boy Scouts have enlisted my interest because I am convinced that the outdoor life and training, with the lessons in discipline, service, courtesy and little acts of human kindness which these young minds receive, cannot fail to produce the highest type of manhood I like the Scout Promise. There is something about it that inspires one with confidence and courage every time you hear it repeated. I for one believe that these boys will develop into men who will carry our civilization to the highest point it has ever reached. From faraway messages of J. G. Gov. George D. DeBelle of St. Peter's Island at the conclusion of his island of office.

Bristol and Vicinity

Friday 13th. will long be remembered by young and old in this district as the day the cold waters of Morell River claimed the life of Mickey, curly headed baby of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kelly. Mickey was only five years old yet he was known and loved by young and old far and wide. His funeral to the Little Flower Church on Saturday afternoon was the largest ever seen in the village. Hundreds passed the little bier from his little playmates to men and women well along in the evening of life. Mickey is gone but his curly hair and happy smile will live on and on in the village.

The name of Gerald McAdam, Morell, should be sent to the Bureau of Investigation of Bravery for his act on Friday when he plunged into the icy waters of the Morell River in two attempts to rescue Mickey Kelly, McAdam, not knowing where the body was risked his own life in the eleven feet of icy water in a desperate effort to find the boy. It is hoped this act will not pass unnoticed.

There are a great many school children who make a practice of standing on the paved roads reaching out to touch passing cars with their hands. Teachers would be well informed to warn the children of the great danger they are in.

DAWSON-GRANT WEDDING - A pretty autumn wedding of interior to a large circle of friends of P. E. Island, took place on Wednesday, September 27th, 1939, at 5 P. M. in St. John's Episcopal Church, Ellerslie, when Miss Ida Mae Dawson, the charming young daughter of Mrs. C. J. McArthur and the late Frank Dawson of Popular Grove was united in marriage to Mr. John Henry Grant of Bileford. The officiating clergyman being Rev. Mr. Harrison of St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Summerside.

The winsome young bride looking exceedingly lovely attired in a gown of white silk chiffon with bridal veil and orange blossoms, and carrying a bouquet of coral gladioli entered the church to the strains of the wedding march beautifully rendered by Mrs. Gus. McKinnon of Bileford, and was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Edwin Dawson. She was attended by her friend, Miss Rebie McArthur who also looked very lovely in a gown of Royal Blue Crepe and white accessories, and carrying a bouquet of asters and gladioli. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Kenneth Dawson brother of the bride.

The ushers were Mr. Arthur Milligan and Mr. Keith Dawson. The church was very artistically decorated for the occasion with beautiful cut flowers, ferns, and potted plants by the girl friends of the bride.

After the ceremony the bridal party proceeded to the home of the bride, where a sumptuous supper was served by the bride's mother, Mrs. C. J. McArthur to about fifty immediate relatives of the bride and groom. Assisting Mrs. McArthur in serving were Mrs. Luther Williams, Mrs. Edwin Dawson, Mrs. Keith Dawson and Mrs. John Murphy.

At a later hour a merry bunch of serenaders arrived to offer felicitations to the newlyweds, and amid much merriment took their departure.

A pleasant evening was spent by the guests in social chat, music and dancing.

At a late hour all departed for their homes, wishing the bride and groom many years of wedded bliss. The bride and groom have toured the Province. The bride traveling in a tailor made costume of navy blue tulle, many Stetson hats, red fox fur neck piece and navy accessories to match.

Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered a miscellaneous shower at her home in Popular Grove, when she received many lovely and useful gifts. She was also the recipient of beautiful gifts of linen and a cabinet of silver from friends in Montreal and New York, where she spent the past two years.

We all join the serenaders in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Grant many happy years of married life. (Patriot Please Copy)

Work at the St. Peter's Harbor project will be carried on for another month it is understood with a crew of some fourteen men.

Mr. Walter A. O'Brien, returned this week from a motor trip to Boston and New York City. Mr. O'Brien spent some time in Portland, Maine before going on to the Hub City and the World Fair. Some four hundred thousand people were in the fair grounds on Sunday. He also reports quite an upswing in business this fall with living costs going up since the war started.

Several school children are suffering from summer flu that is making the rounds.

Father George Coffin, C.S.S.R. St. John, N. B., is spending a few days vacation at his old home in Morell. Fr. Coffin who has preached missions in every corner of the United States and Canada is now retired from the field and has a parish in St. John. This is his first visit home in twenty years and many of his old school mates have passed on and he sees many changes in the village where he played as a boy.

A cloud of sorrow passed over Summerside last week when the angel of death visited the home of Eugene Simot and claimed his beloved wife a bride of only a year. Mrs. Simot was stricken suddenly and passed away in a few minutes.

Mr. James Brodrick, Boston who spends the summer months here has returned to his home with the fond wish that when bright summer winds blow again he will be back and true he is always a welcome visitor.

Speaking of Boston. On a recent visit there the writer found in one store a folder and map of the Garden of the Gulf and on the front page was a fine picture of Sergeant P. Ryan, police officer, Summerside.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Hughes, who spent the winter in Boston, have decided to remain on the Island this winter as Mrs. Hughes is not enjoying the best of health.

Mr. Wm. Alward, Sr., who has been in Boston and New York for several months will return home soon after a much needed rest. Several extra men are working in the railway yard at Morell grading the road along the siding for the fall loading. Mrs. A. Star Doucette has gone to the Gulf Islands to be the maid of honor at the wedding of her brother in the Middleton people following the old custom of keeping the wedding going for several days.

Several large shade trees that adorned the lawn around the home of Mr. J. W. McEwen were removed last week by workmen. Upon inquiring why these trees were condemned the writer was informed that there was fear of them snapping in the heavy fall storms and causing great damage.

ALBERRY PLAINS W. I.

The monthly meeting of the Alberty Plains Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Frank Hynes on Tuesday, Oct. 3rd, with six members and four visitors present. One new member enrolled. Meeting opened by singing "O Canada" followed by repeating the Creed in unison. Roll call was responded to by a "Noted Canadian Woman." The minutes of last meeting were read and approved. The sick committee reported no sick calls. Plans about painting the inside of the school were discussed. On motion it was decided to have inside of the school painted. The collection for the evening amounted to thirty-five cents. Next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Robert Coady, roll call to be answered by paying annual dues. The singing of the National Anthem brought the meeting to a close.
