LATEST FROM THEATRES

PROCTOR'S 23RD STREET THEATRE, NEW YORK.

One of those all feature bill will be in evidence for the first half of the week at Proctor's 23rd Street Theatre headed by the international favorite Minnie Palmer who will offer the one act playlet that made our famous years ago. Others scheduled are Vera Sabina and company in a dancing novelty; Mildred Jewell and company, expert mind readers; Harris and Mack, instrumentalists; Ruth Powell, dancing violinist; Karum and Delmore, knockabout funsters; Whirling Effords, sensational revolving wein and black and white photo plays which are changed daily.

PROCTOR'S 58TH ST. THEATRE.

Texico, the mysterious terpsichorean sensation will top a very diverting bill at Proctor's 58th Street Theatre for the first half of the week. Others who still entertain and amuse are The Bootblack Comedy Four in singing and nonsense; Sacc and company in impersonations of great men; Dolan and Bern, singing and dancing; Kell and Kelly, singing, talking and dancing; Four Regals, sensation herculean novelty and black and white photo plays.

PROCTOR'S 125TH ST. THEATRE.

Twelve feature acts are still the big card at Proctor's East 125th Street Theatre. Commencing Monday the all star bill will be composed of the Dancing Christies, a big terpsichorean novelty; canine actors; Jack and Mabel Price in the comedy skit "The Marriage Broker"; Wright and Conrad, comedians; Mabel Saerman, comedienne; Knickerbocker Trio, comedy instrumentalists; Ben Bernard, singing comedian; Leach and Wallen, bounding wire artists; Jessik and Anita another novelty circus feature, black and white photo plays and a complete change of programme on Thursday.

WEEK OF NOV. 10.

Proctor's 5th Avenue continues to jinx vaudeville plums, despite the vast resources of opposing theatres and a "hit at Proctor's" means unlimited bookings for any act. Two features that should attract most attention next week are the two-day debuts of that virile player or deep-dyed villain, Emmet Corrigan, in the recent Lambs' Gambol success, "An eye for an eye"; and that of Lawrence Semon, the Evening's Sun popular sketches of ball player's heads. Bunched in the bid for popular approval will come Walter Lawrence and Francis Cameron, a new combination of talent, grace and beauty in "A Bit of Broadway"; Jesse Lasky's artistic living models act, "The Three Types"; Julius Tanen, familiarly known as chatter box; Stepp, Goodrich and King, rathskeller trio with Goodrich replacing Artie Melbliner; W. H. St. James and Company in the comedy of a drummer's life, "Stockings"; John and Winnie Hennings, the kill care kouple; Delesso Troupe, sensational casting, and Upside Down Zwerdas, top-sy-turvy athletes.
