Bertram Woodside, a young man belonging to Summerside says The Patriot had been visiting up in the western part of the county, when his mind became deranged. He was brought down in the train Thursday morning and before the train pulled into the station the young man jumped off. Police officers Phillips and Steele went to refake him and when he saw the officers coming he started running out to the lighthouse. The officers gave chase and succeeded in capturing him after an exciting race. He was lodged in the town lock-up and will probably be taken down to the Asylum.

The annual Scotch Concert at Alberton took place in the town hall last week. It was held at a somewhat later date than in former years, owing to prevalent illness which resigned some of the talent to withdraw from the program at the last moment. However the entertainment which consisted of eighteen numbers met with great favour, and the committee are to be congratulated in their persistent efforts in having it so. The solos by Miss Bremer delighted the audience and Mrs. Westmoreland in her rendition of several special selections fully filled the expectations of her hearers. Rev. Mr. Millar sang with splendid effect and Fingers Fraser and Gillis gave inspiring music and seemed to be in a happy mood for the occasion; in the former piped for the highland fling which was well done by Master McIntyre. Rev. Mr. Millar delivered the oration and paid a glowing tribute to the life of Burns. Capt. Read gave a brief address and heartily commended an annual Burns celebration and was happy to listen to the program which he had before him. Other numbers were in a greater part, a repetition of former years, but they were none the less interesting. Miss Durant made an excellent accompanist.
