MURRAY-DARRACH WEDDING.—The Calgary Herald says:—On Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 5, a pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Darrach, 1718 Five and a half street west when their sister, Katherine Isabel, daughter of Mr. Angus Darrach, New Haven, P. E. I., and formerly of the Blairmore coaching staff, became the bride of Mr. Johnston Murray of Frank, Alberta. The drawing room was tastefully decorated for the occasion with sweet peas and smilax and the bride, dressed in pearl grey georgette crepe and carrying a large sheaf of roses, entered on the arm of her brother, while Mrs. Faulkner played the wedding march. Rev. Mr. Rennie, pastor of Bankview Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony in the presence of a few friends. A dainty luncheon was served, after which the happy couple left for Vancouver and Seattle. The bride travelled in a beautiful tailored suit of dark grey. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Murray will reside at Frank, Alberta.

WELCOMED BACK.—Rev. J. C. Martin, recently of Cardigan and a returned chaplain, was inducted into the charge of Wood Islands on Thursday the 16th, August. Mr. Martin whose health had given way, had to return from England where he had been doing excellent work among our soldier lads and the Presbytery rejoices that after some months of rest he finds himself able to resume his work in his home Presbytery.—Presbyterian Witness.

VISITING PASTOR.—The Rev. Dr. Harley conducted the services in St. Peter's Cathedral Sunday, and preached two excellent sermons—the first on Christ and His Church and the second on "The signs of the Times." These latter, in the literary, social, political, and moral life of the nation denote that practical faith in God and in the redemption of Jesus Christ, has in recent years been low. A Great War has come upon the earth; and one of the results may be a rising tide of belief and of National aspirations more in accord with the higher nature of mankind and the laws of God.
