MR. ALLISON CONCERT—It is generally agreed that the Concert put on Wednesday by the men of the Residence at Sackville was the most ambitious and most impressive yet attempted. The performance done in silhouette traced the growth of religion from earliest times down to the present. Mel Histle of North Sydney originated this most original performance. The libretto was prepared and written by Charlie Swan, Oxford, N.S., Clair Johnson, Hampton, P.E.I., Ed. Musson, Alma, N.B., and Brock Rideout of Saint John, N.B. John Howard of Parrsboro, N.S. made a brief statement at the opening of the performance briefly explaining the idea of the concert. Prof. C.A. Krug read the story as the silhouette took place under the direction of Hal Freeman of Moncton and Alfred Seaman of Breadalbane, P.E.I. The music which greatly enhanced the impressive performance was under the capable management of Lewis Murray, Vernon River, P.E.I. and Prof. H.S. Hamer, F.R.S.O. After this part of the concert was ended, a community sing song and Christmas tree was enjoyed. At the Christmas dinner held in the Ladies College the Principal W.C. Ross, Presided. A group of carols was briefly presented later in the evening by a group of girl students including Miss Freda Collwill, Charlottetown and Miss Margaret Coffin of Montague.

MR. PATRICK MCGUIRK It was with surprise and sorrow that the community learned of the death of Mr. Patrick McGuirk, Dromore, at the Sacred Heart Home, after a few days illness of pneumonia. Mr. McGuirk was in his eighty-third year and had been at the Home only a short time. He was born at Fort Augustus but when a child the family moved to Dromore and there he spent his whole life.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. THOS. G. HODGSON

On January 16th there passed peacefully away after a brief illness at his home in Alberton, Thos. G. Hodgson, a gentleman of the old school. The late Mr. Hodgson was born February 6th, 1849 at Hope River, a son of John Hodgson and Catherine Barnard, the last of a family of eight. Last September 17th he and his widow formerly Janet Bell of Stanley Bridge celebrated their golden wedding. Mr. Hodgson was a good husband, loving father, of English descent, a man of sterling character, hospitable and sympathetic. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church, a staunch conservative and a prosperous farmer.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. John Keir Fraser, D.D., L.L.D. at the request of the Rev. Mr. Phillips of the Anglican Church sang the favorite hymn of deceased, "We shall gather at the River." The deepest sympathy is extended to the bereaved widow, his nine children, Mrs. H. J. Larkin, Messrs. Herbert and James Hodgson, Mrs. Clifford Matthews, Mrs. J. Fred White residing in Alberton; Mr. David Hodgson, St. John's; Mr. George S. Hodgson, Mrs. W. H. Joyce, Mrs. Herbert Kay, Waltham, Mass.; also sixteen grand children and six great grand children. The remains were laid to rest in the community cemetery, Alberton. The floral tributes were beautiful.

Our own, are our own forever; God taketh not back his gift; They may pass beyond our vision, But our souls will find them out, When the waiting is all accomplished. And the deathly shadows lift And glory is given for grieving And the surety of God for doubt.

MR. PATRICK MCGUIRK It was with surprise and sorrow that the community learned of the death of Mr. Patrick McGuirk, Dromore, at the Sacred Heart Home, after a few days illness of pneumonia. Mr. McGuirk was in his eighty-third year and had been at the Home only a short time. He was born at Fort Augustus but when a child the family moved to Dromore and there he spent his whole life.

He was a very successful farmer, and carried on farming operations until about three years ago when he retired from active work. Mr. McGuirk was a man of kind and generous nature ever ready to help those in trouble and distress. He would always help his neighbor even to his own disadvantage. He was a man of high and staunch Christian and every Sunday, while he was able, no matter what the conditions were he was an attendant at church services. He was also foremost in all things that tended to the welfare of the community. In politics he was a Liberal of the old school, firm but unobtrusive. He delighted to recount the political campaigns of over sixty years ago when feeling ran high and party politics was almost a creed. Among the many messages of sympathy was a letter from the Rev. Father O'Brien of Coupeville Washington.

His wife predeceased him about thirty years ago. He leaves to mourn the following sons and daughters: Michael, Dromore, John, and Patrick, South Boston; Mrs. James Larkin, Cambridge, Mass.; Mrs. A. McCowan, Arlington, Mass.; Mrs. George Hayes, New York; Mrs. Isadore Martin, New Glasgow, N.S.; Mrs. Nicholas Poulous, Montreal, P.Q. He also leaves the following brothers and sisters: John Dromore; Robert and Frank, Boston, Mrs. Alice McAdam Lake Verde and Mrs. Catherine Larkin, Charlottetown. Also twenty-four grandchildren, and one great grand child.

His funeral was held at the residence of his son, Michael, took place at Fort Augustus on December 18th and was largely attended. The funeral services at the church and grave. The pall-bearers were: Thomas Kelly; William O'Brien; John T. Grimes; D. J. Hughes, Herbert Simpson and John P. Callaghan. R.I.P. Patriot Please Copy

WORK OF WAR-DISABLED MEN

The very central shop in George Street Edinburgh, where the work of the disabled men of the world is being done, is on sale, it was a busy place in these before-Christmas days, being well-stocked with articles suitable for Christmas presents. Lady Haig herself has been assisting there.

Door knockers, rustic bird-feeders, cushion covers, painted pottery, wastepaper baskets, children's toys, terrier pyjama cases—these are but a few of the beautifully-made articles which are on sale there. The Factory has a long waiting list of men all greatly in need of employment.

The annual business meeting of the Charlottetown Baptist Church was held on Wednesday, January 16th at 7:30 p.m. After brief devotional service conducted by Dr. Vincent, the Moderator, Mr. J. W. Boulter took the chair.

Two very notable reports were those of the Minister, the Rev. Dr. Vincent and the Sunday School Superintendent, Mr. M. R. Bethune. These interesting and informative reports gave a very clear picture of the activities of the Church and School during 1934, calling attention to the urgent need for larger accommodation for a school that has grown very largely during the past few years, and asking that this should be the immediate objective.

The Mission Band, a very successful year winning the efficiency banner for the third consecutive year and now becoming permanent holders of this emblem of good work.

The Guild reported having held high teas, afternoon teas, bazaars and other activities with very notable financial results and having made large contribution to the current funds of the Church. Reports were presented by the Trustees, the Music Committee, the Property Committee, Publicity and Trustees.

The report of the Financial Committee, combined with the Treasurer's statement indicated a very real advancement, showing that the year's receipts were over $900 more than 1933. There are those who criticize the education of the public with regard to the symptoms of disease. They base their objections on the claim that the only thing such education does is to arouse unwarranted fears. We are of the opinion that there is a great deal of difference between the fear of ignorance and an intelligent understanding of danger. Experience has shown that the latter is attained in the vast majority of cases by the health education of the public.

This is important for it is the only practical way whereby disease may be brought under treatment early at a time when we may hope to accomplish most by adequate medical care.

FIRST LOVES

On the Saturday afternoon of Johnny's introduction to the city his reception in the back room of the Clothing Emporium took on the proportions of an event. Johnny's story, given amid greedy mastication of seed rolls and gulps of tears lukewarm coffee thrilled the company with a sympathy grown quick through the age-long persecution of their race—a sympathy leading to monumental works of charity within the city. Tears coursed down his cheeks as he repeated, "My mother is drowned, my mother is drowned!"

"You are staying by us now," Becka spoke to Johnny, smiling, her face close to his. Tears welled in his eyes. He was terribly tired; kindness out through him like a knife.

less they have learned to recognize in themselves the symptoms which should arouse suspicion of the presence of cancer.

There is no one symptom which means cancer. Any symptom arises from any one of several causes. There are symptoms or signs which should always be investigated because they may be due to cancer. Delay is always dangerous because delay usually means that a local and curable disease has been allowed to spread through the body.

Cancer never begins in a healthy spot. Sores which do not heal and stay healed should be regarded with suspicion. Moles or other growths on the skin which change in size or appearance should not be neglected. Any lump or change in the feel of the breast is abnormal and demands attention.

The recognition of internal cancer is more difficult. Indigestion after forty should not be allowed to go on without an investigation into the cause. Blood in the stools or urine is a definite warning. An unusual discharge from any body opening should never be considered as unimportant.

An investigation of symptoms such as these will reveal, in many cases, nothing serious, but in others it brings the patients under treatment for a curable cancer—cancer which can be cured if treated early.

Do not delay, and remember that pain is seldom an early symptom of cancer.

Questions concerning health, addressed to the Canadian Medical Association, 184 College St. Toronto, will be answered personally by letter.

An Aberdonian returned home after a week's holiday in London. His friends in the local hostelry asked him how he had enjoyed himself, and what he thought of the Londoners.

"Och," he said, "they're decent enough chaps, but they're little imagination. One afternoon I went into one of these non-stop revues at half-past one, and at half-past eleven I'd seen the same show five times over."

Helping Millions to END COLDS SOONER

Massage throat and chest with Vicks VapoRub. It goes right to work to fight a cold direct—two ways at once. Through the skin it acts direct like a poultice or plaster, while its medicated vapors are inhaled direct to the inflamed air-passages. This combined action loosens phlegm—soothes irritated membranes—eases difficult breathing—helps break congestion.

Follow day-time treatments with an application at bedtime—to get the effect of VapoRub's powerful two-way medication through the night. Often by morning the worst of the cold is over.

NO INTERNAL "DOSING" It's because Vicks VapoRub has this combined poultice-vapor action—stimulation and inhalation—that it brings relief so soon—and so safely. Being used externally, it avoids the risks of constant internal dosing—which so often upsets delicate digestions.
