BEATING THE ELEMENTS
KENSINGTON—Truly, "times are a-changing," and people are changing with them. Twenty years ago after Dec. 1st people were supposed to "hibernate" to a reasonable extent. Not so any more. The march of progress is such that the man who would be content with a simple dwelling erected, he proceeds to erect, regardless of wind or rain. Such was the case on Monday, Dec. 29th when the framework and roof of the new bakery for Caldwell, it will be referred to as Caldwell's bakery, destroyed by fire recently.—K

Trinity United Church Report

On Sunday, Jan. 8, Rev. Hugh Millar began, at the morning service, a series of sermons on the general theme "Some Tests of Religion." The first of these, based on Luke 10:27, was on the subject, "Is My Religion Real?" In the course of the sermon the minister proposed three tests of the reality of personal religion; belief in the reality of God, devotion to Christ, and faithfulness to Christ's uncompleted task of redeeming the world.

The sermon of the evening was on the theme, "The Place of the Church in Modern World" and was preached by the assistant minister, Rev. L. M. Murray. In the course of his sermon the minister stressed the need which the community has for the guiding, uplifting power of the church, and the need of the church for the prayers and work of all its members. The morning service was broadcast over CFBY by the Church Broadcast Association.

The morning service the choir gave a very fine rendition of the anthem by Woodward "Comes, at Times a Stillness." In the evening the well known favorite "Seek Ye The Lord" by J. V. Roberts was sung. Mr. Harvey MacPherson was the tenor soloist in the anthem.
