GEORGETOWN NOTES.—Some 20 schrs of Nova Scotia have arrived in port.
They are here for bait. Each schr. will take from 20 to 60 barrels of herring.
—Repairs are being made to the sidewalks here, which have been sadly neglected.

MR. WILLIAM STERN'S of Morrell returned by the Princess last evening.
The Colchester Sun of May 1st says: Among recent visitors to Truro was Mr. William Sterns of Morrell, P. E.
I. Nearly three quarters of a century ago Mr. Sterns was a resident of Truro, but for very many years has never visited the place, until quite recently.
For some two years ago, a married daughter came to reside here, since which time he made one or two visits.
Mr. Sterns who is now well advanced in years, but who bears his age well, is a highly respected citizen of the tight little island.

Rev. G. M. CAMPBELL will preach next Sunday morning at Vernon River and in the afternoon at Cherry Valley.

THE Artillery Corps here promise the public, on Tuesday May the 9th, more than their usual standard of excellence in their line of entertainments. Shall you be there?

THE Abegweit Crescent Athletic intend having the drama entitled "The Pride of Company G." put on in the Opera House on May 24th. Theatre goers will please remember the date.

THE Colchester Sun of May 1st says:
C. A. Archibald of Bellevue farm, Bible Hill, returned from P. E. Island on Saturday last. He brought with him four well bred horses and six head of pedigree cattle—short horns and Ayrshires.

THE Colonial Standard, Picton, says: Messrs Pope Brothers, having sold their horses to advantage in Halifax, have purchased two more. One, which is a very fine animal, was bought in P.
E. I. The other was purchased from the Logan Tanning Co.

THE funeral of the late Mrs. James Barr, took place from the residence of her sister, Mrs. John Martz, corner of Great George and Euston Streets, yesterday at half past two. The following were the pall-bearers at the funeral yesterday:—John Quirk, Martin West, George Davison, W. M. Coffin, Alexander Horn and Phillip Large.

Rev. G. M. CAMPBELL's many friends living between Pownal and Orwell should remember that on Saturday evening the 6th inst, he will deliver the second part of his lecture "Crimea Retold" in the hall at Vernon River Bridge. About thirty stereopticon views will be exhibited showing many of the most interesting things in connection with the great Historic Event.

ORWELL NOTES.—Two farms part of the estate of the late George Irving, who died in March last, valued at $6000 have been sold, one was purchased by Mr. D. McKenzie of Orwell Cove; the other was bought by Mr. Jenkins, brother-in-law of Mr. Irving. When Mr. Irving died he was worth considerable money which he made by farming. His secret of success was in watching the markets and holding for the best quotations. At the site recently held some 5 tons of wool was disposed of.—Boat is making regular trips to Orwell.—Farmers are getting along well with their farming.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES COGHAN
