MACDONALD Institute, Guelph.—Dr. Anderson has received for distribution the certificates in Nature Study awarded to the teachers who attended the three months' course at Guelph from September to December 1904. These teachers, Misses Clarke, Noonan, Hays and Mr. Ackland have acquitted themselves with credit. In a former notice (official) of those who had become entitled to certificates, Miss Noonan's name was unaccountably omitted. Miss Long and Harry McLean still continue their studies at Guelph.

THE Guardian is in receipt of the well known Dr. Chase's Calendar Almanac for 1905, which will this year, as in the past, prove a useful adjunct to many households throughout the Dominion. A noticeable feature in the Almanac is the weather forecasts, which have proved unusually accurate in January and are of especial interest to farmers. It also has for keeping dates, etc., a diary calendar, to be found in no other almanac in Canada. Any of The Guardian readers who have not already received one of these almanacs can obtain such by writing Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto, and mentioning this paper.

OBITUARY.—One of the oldest inhabitants of Pisiquid, Lot 37, died at his home on Tuesday, the 24th of January, viz: Angus McCannell, in the 80th year of his age. Although he had reached his four score years, his mental faculties were in no wise impaired. He was conscious of the near approach of death and with a strong faith in the efficacy of the blood of Christ and relying on Him as the only foundation of his hope in the future he passed peacefully and quietly away. Many years ago his partner in life who was Miss Jessie Campbell of Baldwins Road, passed from changing time to an unchanging eternity. Mr. McCannell has left seven sons, viz.: Neil in Lorne Valley; Duncan in Murray River; John and Alfred in Pisiquid; Wm. and Charles in Kiondyke and James in the state of Maine, and one daughter Mrs. Frederick Rogerson. He was buried on Saturday at Mt. Stewart. Rev. A. Crais performed the funeral services at the home and also at the grave.

Cheap Dyes—We are selling the remainder of our stock of Turkish Dyes at 5c a package. Some of the colors left include: Dark Green, Rose Pink, Orange, Scarlet, Crimson, Cardinal Red, Navy Blue, Light Blue, Yellow and others. These dyes give entire satisfaction.
