A most enjoyable Canadian Legion get-together was held in the Legion Hall at Mt. Stewart on Tuesday night, sponsored by the local branch.

A formal meeting was held at 7:30 p.m. and short addresses were given by Mr. Kenneth Lacey, President of the Mt. Stewart Branch, who occupied the chair. Mr. W. A. McLaggan, Montague, Provincial President, Mr. Cecil Wightman, Secretary of the Montague Branch, Mr. Bruce Wannacott, Secretary of the Charlottetown Branch, Mr. Edmund Donnelly, Vice-president of the Mt. Stewart Branch, Dr. A. B. Martin, Major D. A. MacDonald, Charlottetown, Mr. Arthur King, Charlottetown, Mr. H. J. Shaw, Mt. Stewart, Mr. Fred Yates, Bedford, and Mr. Carman Wightman, Kentville, N.S., who is at present visiting on Prince Edward Island.

A social hour followed, during which dancing and a sing-song were heartily entered into by the Legionaries, the guests, and the ladies. Pipers Duncan and Groves of Charlottetown supplied splendid violin, accordion and pipe music, while Comrades Yates and Leard gave some fine exhibitions of stenciling, which were greatly enjoyed.

The ladies of the Mt. Stewart Branch served a delicious lunch. They were tendered a hearty vote of thanks.

At the informal meeting, the President, Mr. Kenneth Lacey welcomed the guests to Mt. Stewart. Speaking about the Legion, Mr. Lacey said he doubted if the members realized the privilege they enjoy in being members of the organization which is one of the strongest in the Dominion today. In recent years the older organizations have been looking to the Legion for guidance. The Legion and must be the same to all men if it is to succeed. The members of the Legion were made members, not by paying a membership fee, but by an initiation of blood and fire, he went on to say.

Mr. W. A. McLaggan, Montague, Provincial President, in a short talk said that he thought they should strive to have the Legion take a leading part in the community and be the leading organization.

He asked that the local branches take the initiative and ask to have the Remembrance Day and the Memorial Day. The observance of Remembrance Day and the sale of poppies is a great opportunity to stress what the war meant.

Mr. Bruce Wannacott, Secretary of the Charlottetown Branch, congratulated the Legion and the citizens at Mt. Stewart for the fine hall they had.

Dr. Martin thought it would be a good thing to get some man or woman to go to the schools and tell the children what war really is and the horror of it.

He asked the men to show the same esprit de corps in their branches as they showed during the war.

Mr. Art King, Charlottetown, thought every branch in the Province should pass a resolution asking the government to insert the Hyndman Commission report.

Mr. Fred Yates, Bedford, in the course of his talk said, "May we pull together for the glory of those who have gone before and hope that never again will the British Empire shed the blood of her sons in war."

Mr. Carman Wightman, Kentville, agreed with what Dr. Martin had suggested regarding having someone visit the schools and tell the pupils of the horror of war. It is done in his own branch at Kentville, he said. Some comrades visit the school immediately after the Remembrance Day and tells the children what happened between 1914-18.

Major D. A. MacDonald, Charlottetown, spoke briefly and gave a reading.

WHO'S THAT A-KNOCKING?

A deaf old lady went to live near one of the naval ports. Shortly afterwards a battleship fired a salute of ten guns. The old lady, who lived alone, got out of her chair, smoothed her dress, patted her hair, and said sweetly, "Come in."

The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. Vincent, D.D., in the presence of immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties.
