Let's not WOBBLE.

To maintain a reasonable balance between what you earn and what your dollars will buy in wartime, it has been necessary to put a ceiling on prices, to control wages, salaries and profits, and to distribute available goods on an equitable basis.

Because..

...higher costs of production would require higher prices for the things you buy

...higher prices would require higher wages and salaries

...higher wages and salaries would mean higher costs

and so on...in an endless spiral

Demands for higher selling prices, wages and profits must not be allowed to push up the cost of living. This would bring distress and confusion on the Home Front, shake our war efforts now, and leave us with handicaps in the peace to come.

This is the thirtieth of a series being issued by the Government of Canada to emphasize the importance of preventing further increases in the cost of living now and deflation later.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of the late Albert James Boyle, who departed this life August 23rd, 1938.

Gone dear Father gone forever. How we miss your pleasant face. But you left us to remember. None on earth can take your place. A happy home we once enjoyed. How sweet the memory still. But death has left a loneliness. The world can never fill.

Inserted by His Wife and Family and Grandchildren. 8-23-44.

In Memoriam

In loving and cherished memory of FRANK BEER AULD West Covehead who passed away August 22, 1943.

You cannot say, you must not say, That he is dead. He is just away. With a cheery smile and wave of the hand. He has wandered into an unknown land. How very fair. It needs must be since he lingers there. And we, O we who so sadly yearn. For the old time step and the glad return. Think of him faring on as dear. In the love of there, as the love of here. Think of him still as the same and say. He is not dead. He is just away. Ever Remembered by Wife, Mother and Sisters. 8-23-44.
