

This stylish little dress is made of brown cloth, cut with two box pleates back and front and flaring wide at the sides. A simple design in colored ribbon work makes the dress very attractive. The leaves are in dull green and the daisies white with yellow centres.

—The concert in Market Hall under the auspices of the Epworth League of the Methodist Church, and reflects much credit on the ladies who had charge of the arrangements. The Hall was packed to the doors and, with the exception of a half hour's delay at the opening, the whole all. The program consisted of a number, a reading by J. H. Bell, a program was thoroughly enjoyed by per of readings by Mrs. Westmore, recitation by Miss Mildred Silliphant, who although but a little tot gave selections and was rapturously encored. The musical part of the program was doubtless its strongest feature. Miss Bremner of Charlottetown who made her first appearance before a Summerside audience captivated her hearers. She has a beautiful voice, well trained and of great volume. The local singers Mr. F. H. Leard and his daughter, Miss Anna Leard, gave two delightful duets also. Miss Compton's rendering of a difficult solo was one of the features of the evening. Master Jack Wright, who is only 16 years of age also took the audience by storm. The principal feature of the entertainment was the tableaux—the last part of the program. On the whole the entertainment will be classed as one of the best held in Summerside. The proceeds of the concert are to be used towards the alterations in the lighting system of the Methodist Church.
