GROWING DEAF WITH HEAD NOISES? TRY THIS

If you are growing hard of hearing and fear Catarrhal Deafness or if you have roaring, rumbling, hissing noises in your ears go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmint (double strength), and add to it ½ pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who is threatened with Catarrhal Deafness or who has head noises should give this prescription a trial.

WOLFVILLE, Jan. 20—The Wanderers, of Halifax, and the Acadia University hockey teams played a tie game here last night, the score ending 4—4. There was no overtime.

FURTHER DECLINE IN RAW SUGAR

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—The market for raw sugar under more liberal offerings declined to the basis of four three-quarter cents for Cuba,s cost and freight, equal to 5.59 forcentrifugal. There were sales of 20,000 bags of Porto Rico's afloat and 10,000 bags Cuba's for prompt shipment.

Refined was jurisdicted by the declines in raws, although prices were unchanged at $7.75 for fine granulated.

The easier feeling in the spot market led to scattered selling in futures and prices at mid-day were 3 to 7 points net lower.

MANY ATTEND MRS. HORNSBY'S FUNERAL

Impressive Obsequies at Roman Catholic Church on Sunday Largely Attended

The deceased lady referred to was a daughter of Mr. Alexander MacDonald of the P. E. I. R.

(From the St. George B. C. Citizen)

The funeral of the late Mrs. W. L. Hornsby, who passed away quietly in her sleep on Thursday night last, was attended by a large number of those who wished to pay their last respects to the departed on Sunday at 2 o'clock.

The Roman Catholic Church was well filled when the pall-bearers reached the church with the chief mourners. The casket was covered with many beautiful floral offerings.

The impressive funeral service was conducted by Rev. Father Charles Wolf, O.M.I., P.P. The address of Father Wolf was strong and impressive. Stating that it was not the custom of the Catholic Church to laud the virtues of the departed, the Rev. Father stated that he could not let the occasion pass without remarking the spirit of faith and sacrifice which had characterized the deceased Her life had been an example, the preacher said, which one and all might emulate. But recently, the courageous little lady whose remains lay in the casket, had received a warning of her approaching death. Calmly and bravely she had prepared to face her Maker, always true in word and deed to the tenets of her religion. Her end had been mercifully peaceful, and she had passed on beyond the veil with a record of her life well lived behind her.

Standing before the Altar, Father Wolf drew from the example of the life of the departed lady, a strong and stirring appeal to his congregation to take unto themselves the need of a strong religious faith. In simple words he dwelt upon the belief of his faith that the prayers of those on earth were needed to aid those who had died, into the fulness of their reward. Reward, or punishment, said the preacher, were the lot of all who passed on beyond the veil.

In speaking to the large congregation, the Reverend Father said that he was glad to see so many in attendance, to express their respect for the departed, and their sympathy for the husband and child By such broad sympathies, many of the misunderstandings which sometimes beset us could be avoided.

After the sermon, the prayers for the dead were said in the Latin tongue and the funeral procession formed, which proceeded to the cemetery in cars.

At the organ, Mr. Charles P. Balsagno rendered the funeral music with his well known ability.
