Dr. A. O. Thomson is now absent from his congregation attending Synod.

The regular monthly meeting of the Hunter River Red Cross met at the home of Mrs. William Macdonald with the president Mrs. J. A. Macdonald in the chair. It was deided to send $10.00 to the Queen's Fund. Treasurer, Mrs. Murdoch Culliffe, reported $106.98 clear from proceeds of play "Civil Service". Players present were heartily applauded. The following is the list of articles sent in by this branch on May 30th: 5 pairs children's pyjamas, 1 pair men's pyjamas, 2 W. A. sweaters, 2 pairs W. A. long stockings, 5 laundry bags, 2 pair short W. A. socks, 1 khaki army sweater, 3 W. A. khaki ribbed helmets, 1 navy ribbed helmet, 5 pairs white socks, 5 pairs flying mitts, 1 pair air force mitts, 5 pairs air force socks, 4 girl's dresses, sizes 6 to 10 years. The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Everett Wedlock.

An interesting marriage was solemnized at the Manse, Brookfield, on Sunday, May 4, 1941, when Miss Alma MacLeod of Hantsville became the bride of Pte. Vernon Ford of Glasgow Road. Rev. Dr. A. O. Thomson officiated. Only immediate relatives were present. The bride looked very lovely in a smart costume of dusty rose crepe, grey coat and hat. After attending divine worship at the church at Brookfield Pte and Mrs. Ford left on a short visit to friends and relatives before he rejoined his unit on the mainland. Mrs. Ford is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil D. MacLeod, Hantsville, while Pte. Ford is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ford, Glasgow Road. A host of friends join in wishing them a long and happy married life.—B one summer morning, in brilliant sunshine, he noticed the almanac all the houses were drawn. It impressed upon him the idea that the best part of every day was wasted. The campaign began in Chislehurst itself. Willett persuaded the villages to advance their clocks 40 minutes in deference to his wishes. He wrote 19 pamphlets about it before the government decided to adopt it.

THERE'S A BETTER QUAKER FEED FOR EVERY NEED...

Since feed plays such an important part in any farmer's net profits, we considered it our job, years ago, to maintain experimental farms where Quaker Feeds and different new ideas might be tried and tested under actual farm conditions. We are constantly seeking ways to improve Quaker Feeds so that you will get more efficient results and at the same time cut your feeding costs considerably. We feel confident that Quaker Feeds are the most profitable and economical feeds on the market today.

DOUBLE DAYLIGHT BOOSTS BUSINESS LONDON, June 12—(CP)—Double daylight saving time, introduced to help speed Britain's industrial war effort, has brought a golden prosperity harvest to London's show business.

In the first week it was introduced theatres, movies, dance-halls and greyhound race tracks in and near the metropolis did their best business of the year.

Shows stayed open later, many putting on evening performances for the first time. A greyhound stadium which ran its first evening meet found it was filled to capacity long before the first race.

Movie and theatre owners reported full houses for final performances. Instead of half-empty auditoriums.

A dance-hall manager said "before the new hours, the crowd used to fade away after about an hour's dancing. Now the floor is packed until the band plays God Save The King."

It is just about 25 years ago since daylight saving first became law in Britain.

William Willett was the man who first thought of it and campaigned for it until the government finally was persuaded to adopt it as a wartime measure in 1916. Riding over Chislehurst Common early
