Gin Pills FOR THE KIDNEYS

What They Cured

Here's the remarkable experience of a Nova Scotian:—

"I was once a terrible sufferer with kidney and bladder troubles, and at times I would lose the use of my legs, and could not go away from home without some one with me. I was treated by different doctors for 3 years, and only got temporary relief. My son advised me to take Gin Pills, and after taking the first 2 or 3 doses I got relief. I continued to take them until I got completely cured. I owe my life to Gin Pills.

Yours very truly,
P. M. KEMPTON,
Port Medway, N. S."

GREENLEY'S STATUE

(New York Herald)

Typographical Union No. 6 will make a vigorous protest to the city authorities against the removal of the statue of Horace Greeley from in front of the Tribune office in Park row to Battery Park. Mr. Greeley was the first president of "Big Six," and members of the union resent the proposed removal of the statue from old "Newspaper Row." At a meeting held yesterday they adopted a resolution to that effect.

In the resolution the union provided for the appointment of a committee to urge on the authorities the property of retaining the statue of the editor in the immediate neighborhood of the downtown newspaper offices, the scene of Mr. Greeley's many years of labor for the benefit of his fellow men, and of his activities when he was the leader in the founding of our own great organization."

The meeting was one of the largest in the history of "Big Six."

..*GOOD CONCERT. — The greatnecessity of a Public Hall in this particular section was never more clearly demonstrated than on the evening of Feb. 18th inst., when the Aunandale Dramatic Club held their annual concert and basket social in Annandale school-room. The building proved wholly inadequate to accomodate the large crowd who assembled standing room being at a premium. The Management Committee wish to thank those who were unable to secure seats throughout the evening for the excellent order they maintained under such trying circumstances, and to express their regret for being unable to provide accomodation for many who came late and hastens to assure them that should they see fit to favor us with their presence on a similar occasion at some future date we will be in a position to provide ample accomodation for the many who desire to hear the entertainment furnished by this club who have won for themselves an enviable place in the hearts of all lovers of clean, high-class entertainment. The programme of Feb. 18th inst. was of the usual high order every number having been rendered in a manner which evoked rounds of applause from the exceptionally large and appreciative audience. Among the numbers worthy of special mention was the "Drama" in three acts entitled, "The Puzzled Detective." The characters in this most interesting drama were taken by Misses Myrtle Jenkins, Mary Laperre, Mary E. MacFarlane and Messrs. J J. MacFarlane, Roy Howlett, John Laperre, Eddy Howlett and Samuel Chaffee. The recitations by Messrs. J. E. Saville Marple Howlett, Walter Richards and J. D. MacDonald, were a treat in themselves. The musical portion of the programme was of the usual high order and consisted of solos by Miss Mary Laperre and Mr. John J. Steele, both receiving hearty encores. A duet entitled "For Killarney and You," was one of the strong numbers. Mr. D. B. MacDonald sang and acted a solo intitled "I've got the Rum-a-tiz, in fine style. The solo "There's a Little Gray Mother Who Waits All Alone," by Marple Howlett was well received. Other vocal numbers worthy of special mention were the quartette, "When You Sang the Palms to Me," by Misses Jean Howlett and Christina Steel and Messrs. Marple and Roy Howlett, also two choruses bby the choir of the A. D. C. were exceptionally well rendered. The enterainment was interspersed with violin solos by Laperre Bros., with organ accompaniments bby Miss Christina Steel which added very materially to the pleasure of the evening. The programme was concluded with a laughable farce comedy entitled, "The Little Red Mare," by Messrs J. J. Steele and Howlett Bros., which evoked rounds of applause and kept the audience in an exceedingly mirthful mood. It was followed by a solo by Mr Roy Howlett in Scotch costume. This number, as on former occasions, proved a favourite of the audience, Mr Howlett being obliged to respond to two persistent encores. The accompanists of the evening were Misses Jean Howlett, Christina Steele, and Mary McFarlane. The thanks of the club are due Mr Joseph Chaffer, who kindly acted as chairman and auctioneer and to whose painstaking efforts the success of the concert financially are largely due. The proceeds, amounting to the snug sum of seventy-five dollars, will be placed in the hands of the treasurer of the Hall Fund, Mr J. J. MacFarlane, which amount, together with the substantial sum already in the treasurer's hands (being balance of amount realized at the concert in April 1915) will enable the Hall Committee to proceed at once with the erection of this much-needed public accommodation. The above concert will be repeated in aid of the Red Cross Society ih Launching Hall on Thursday, February 24th.

How to Have the Best Cough Remedy and Save $2 by Making It at Home

Cough medicines, as a rule, contain a large quantity of plain syrup. Two cups of granulated sugar with one cup of warm water, stirred for 2 minutes gives you as good syrup as money can buy.

Then get from your druggist 2½ ounces Pinex (50 cents worth), pour into a 16-ounce bottle and fill the bottle with sugar syrup. This gives you, at a cost of only 54 cents, 16 ounces of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.50—a clear saving of nearly $2. Full directions with Pinex. It keeps perfectly and tastes good.

It takes hold of the usual cough or chest cold at once and conquers it in 24 hours. Splendid for whooping cough, bronchitis and winter coughs.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough and heals and soothes the inflamed membranes in the case of a painful cough. It also stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, combined with guaiacol, and has been used for generations to heal inflamed membranes of the throat and chest.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex," and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

MR. JOHN MATHESON.

One of the oldest and most respected residents of Ebenezer passed to his eternal reward on February 14th, in the person of John Matheson. He received injuries in the latter part of the summer from which he never fully recovered and on the above date his spirit passed gently into the eternal world. The deceased was one of the most quiet and most inoffensive of men and noted far and near for his hospitality. The respect in which he was held was quite evident by the very large number who were present at the funeral srvices which were conducted by the Rev. D. McLean. He leaves to mourn their loss a widow, three sons, John L., George and Benjamin, all occupying farms in the neighbourhood, and three daughters: Mrs. MacRae, Ebenezer; Mrs. Alexander Cairns, Stanchel, and Mrs. J. H. Green, British Columbia, and one sister, Mrs. Hector MacRae, East Royalty. The following acted as pall-bearers: Wm. Green, Donald MacDonald, Robert Stead, Wm. Coles, James Coles and Charles Coles. The remains were interred in Portage Cemetery, the services at the grave being conducted by Bros. C. E. MacKenzie and Coles of Barton Lodge. Mr. Matheson was in the 73rd year of his age.—Com.

WILLIAM CUDMORE

The funeral of the late William Cudmore took place Monday, February 21st, from the home of his father, Mr. Lemuel Cudmore of Brackley Point. Deceased was 27 years of age, and for some time past had been residing in Azusa, California, until July of 1915 he returned home in failing health. Every available means was used for his recovery but in vain. It was evident that tuberculosis was fast doing its deadly work, and on Feb. 19th at two p. m. he fell asleep in Jesus. Mr. Cudmore had been a member of the Methodist Church for several years, and as the end approached his faith grew stronger. He leaves to mourn their loss a wife who was a native of Kentucky, and one daughter Elizabeth, also a father and mother together with five brothers and four sisters. The brothers are Charles of Charlottetown, Albert of Brackley Point, and Lloyd, Clifford and Watson at home. The sisters are Mrs. John Roberts of Boston, Mrs. Arnet and Edward Shaw both of Brackley Road and Ethel at home. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Arthur Leonard and Guy Cudmore, Hammond and Eldon Ford, Lee Stuart, George Robinson and Everett Shaw. Interment took place in the Winsloe North cemetery. The service was conducted by Rev. J. L. Lund.

NOT SATISFIED.

The film exchange managers who have returned after their conference with the Nova Scotian government are indignant regarding announcement which was made from Halifax that they were quite satisfied with concessions made.

Speaking to the Times today one of the managers said they were far from satisfied, but that some concessions were made and they recognized the fact that they could get no more at present and so were forced to let the matter drop.

In addition to paying a yearly tax of $200 for each company, he said, they now are to be made to pay a fee of $1 on each film sent into the province which they regard as extortion, especially as the new regulations involve considerable red tape with attendant expense in the way of bookkeeping, etc., at a time when few, if any of the exchanges, are not losing money. They also object to the way in which the censorship is to be handled with most extensive powers placed in the hands of one man from whose decision there is no appeal.

REV. DR. EATON WILL NOT LEAVE NEW YORK CHURCH.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.— The Rev. Dr. Charles A. Eaton has withdrawn his resignation as pastor of the Madison avenue Baptist church. Announcement to this effect was made yesterday by the Re. J. W. Brougher, of Los Angeles, who occupied the pulpit in place of Dr. Eaton. It was learned that the urgent plea of the congregation induced Dr. Eaton to stay.
