

War Souvenirs
A CARTOON ON EACH PIECE
BAIRNSFATHER'S CARTOONS

THIS greatest of all wars has unearthed a great cartoonist in Capt. Bairnsfather. His drawings show the true attitude of the British "Tommy" and why he is never whipped. Taking the little things seriously, he does not worry over the great and always sees a humorous side to the "Huns" predicaments.

As a character study and patriotic souvenir this article will be prized thru the coming years of peace. At

A BIG NEW DEAL IN AUTOMOBILES
Probably the largest and most important event in the Automobile business of this province is the consolidation of the McLaughlin and Chevrolet Agencies which have been secured by Messrs A. Horne and Company, in order to effectively handle this large business the firm has secured the services of Mr. C. W. Rogers who has been associated during the past season with Mr. J. Stanley Wedlock selling McLaughlin cars. Mr. Rogers will be general sales Manager in the auto department and his practical experience in this line of work ensures in advance its success. Mr. J. Stanley Wedlock will still continue to sell McLaughlin cars and intending customers may purchase either through him or from the firm. The Messrs A. Horne and Co. did a large business last season with the Chevrolets and their extensive business connection throughout the province in other lines, together with the excellent business reputation enjoyed by the firm is a guarantee to the public of fair and honest dealing. The Guardian wishes the firm every success in this important extension of its already large and successful business.

SOME LAMB.—Mr. Stephen Brown of York, bought from Mr. Rodk. Grant Bangor, the other day two lambs weighing 124 and 127 pounds, which dressed respectively 75 and 74 pounds of meat. Mr. Brown had this meat in the market yesterday and it certainly was "some lamb."

GIFTS FOR HOSPITAL.—Col. Warburton acknowledges with thanks gifts for the Convalescent Hospital from Mrs. George Walker, five dollars, (for the Christmas dinner); Miss Millie J. Young, Wood Island, books; The Anti-Cant Club, North River, $7.00; Mrs. K. J. Martin, 1 cushion and books; Mrs. H. J. Palmer, 1 cushion; Mrs. John Morris, 1 cushion.

SALE AT CYMBRIA LODGE.—The big sale at Cymbria Lodge, Rustico, of farm, stock and implements on Wednesday was a grand success. One would think from the number of people present that it was a tea-party instead of a sale, between 700 and 1,000 people being in attendance. The farm of 230 acres was sold first to Mr. William Nunn, of Winsloe, for the handsome sum of $8,000. The stock and crop brought excellent prices. The cattle alone realized $1,600. The horses sold well, ranging in price from $150.00 to $201.00. The grain, hay and roots all brought top-notch prices. The sale started at 12.30 noon and shortly after dark the whole farm, crop and implements were all closed out. This speaks well for the excellent condition in which the stock was kept, and also for the able manner in which the auctioneer, Mr. McCoubrey handled the job. Mr. Nunn is to be congratulated on securing one of the finest farm properties, on Prince Edward Island. It is the intention to hold another sale as soon as possible to dispose of the household furniture and balance of crop.
