ALL NEWS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Reporters and Correspondents Everywhere.

At the close of the service in the First Methodist Church on Sunday evening the following address was presented to John McMillan, late Chief Engineer of the Stanley, and his wife. It was read by Rev. G. M. Young and the choir of the church sang "God be with you till we Meet Again."

MR. AND MRS. JOHN McMILLAN.

DEAR FRIENDS.—As you are about to leave this city, to return to your native Scotland, we desire on behalf of the Quarterly Official Board of the First Methodist Church, to give expression to the kindly feeling entertained for you by this congregation. During the forty-two years you have dwelt among us, your walk and conversation have proclaimed the sincerity and earnestness of your Christian profession and you have won a lasting place in the esteem and affection, not only of the members of this congregation, but of the people of this city and Province, regardless of class or creed.

It is especially fitting that we as the Official Board should on this occasion express our high appreciation of the invaluable service rendered by you, Mrs. McMillan, in your faithful and efficient devotion to the various enterprises of the church as an active Christian worker and class-leader. The wise instruction and counsel given from week to week in the class meeting has been of inestimable value to those committed to your care, while your absence from our prayer meetings, where your voice has been heard with pleasure and profit, will be an irreparable loss.

To your new home, on your native heath the best wishes and earnest prayers of this congregation will follow you. May the Heavenly Father tenderly guard and keep you upon the stormy sea, and bring you in safety to your desired haven, and may your life in the old home land be a peaceful journey through the shadows of the evening, until the day breaks and the shadows flee away.

If, however, in the good Providence of God you should be led back to the City where you have spent so many prosperous and happy years you need no assurance that you will be made heartily welcome. Until then or until we meet in the City that hath foundations Eternal in the Heavens we say "God be with you till we meet again" on behalf of the Board.

The address was accompanied by a handsome traveling rug.

A STORY OF SIR JOHN.

An incident in connection with Sir John Macdonald, which has never appeared in print, is worth telling, and what is more, it is true. The Prime Minister had gone into the Kingston postoffice to see his old friend and supporter, then postmaster, Mr. Robert Shannon. On coming out, the caretaker, a man named Dunbar, stood ready to open the inside door. Stopping in the lobby just within, the Premier put his hand on his forehead and said to himself: "There's something I've forgotten." "Yes, sir, you've forgotten to raise my pay."

Now, Dunbar had been petitioning the member and Minister (for Sir John was both) during several months for an increase of pay without realizing his desire. No one could better appreciate the ready wit of the answer that flew out on the heels of his own remark, than Sir John Macdonald, who, with a merry twinkle in his eye, smiled and said: "Dunbar, you shall get it."—Ottawa Events.

MONTREAL, July 28.—(Special)—The steamship interests represented here are in arms against the proposal to give the Fast Line to the Canadian Pacific, claiming it would be a great mistake to give them such a monopoly, as with subsidized freight and passenger steamers the Canadian Pacific would soon drive other lines out of business.
