Castile

That

Is Castile

People usually buy castile soap when they want a mild, pure, neutral soap.

There's no object in buying castile at all unless it meets these requirements.

It becomes important to buy, therefore from a reliable source we do, and you may make sure of quality whenwe supply you.

We procure it in original import packages. Both the quality and the price are right.

FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 12, 1908.

THE TERCENTENARY IN ENGLAND.

It is remarked that the coming celebration in Quebec has attracted a large measure of attention in the Mother Country. Five columns in a recent issue of the London Times were devoted to the subject and in its issue of the previous day a column and a half was allotted to the same subject. This distinction is due to several causes. There is first the historic character of the occasion and the place. The battle of the Plains of Abraham was in its results one of the important events in British military annals. History has given a common fame to the captains who then led the embattled hosts and who both gave up their lives on the field. Better still is the good accord that has sprung up both in Canada and Europe between the two nations that had been so long antagonised. The British people may well feel an interest in a Canadian battlefield where so large an addition to the Empire was made which has since been retained.

But another interest growing out of the historic aspect of the celebration, and which appeals to the minds of the British people is that the Prince of Wales, son and heir of our beloved King is coming to Canada to join in the celebration and give it added distinction. King Edward himself, when he was Prince of Wales, forty years before he succeeded to the crown came and made a royal progress through this portion of the British dominions. It is to a Dominion vastly more wealthy and populous, and marvellously equipped in comparison, that his son is now coming. The Canada of today fills a far larger place in the British mind, bulks larger in the British conception of things national and imperial than the disunited and sparsely settled colonies of a generation past. And it may be hoped that the coming celebration, along with the royal visit will do something to make Canada still better known and appreciated and may add another cord to the already strong bond of loyalty and affection which binds the Dominion to the Mother Land.

THE LILAC.

(Walter Prichard Eaton, in American Magazine.)

The scent of lilac in the air
Hath made him drag his steps and pause;
Whence comes this scent within the Square,
Where endless dusty traffic roars?
A push-cart stands beside the curb,
With fragrant blossoms laden high;
Speak low, nor stare, lest we disturb
His solemn reverie!

He sees us not, nor heeds the din
Of clanging cars and scuffling throng;
His eyes see fairer sights within,
And memory hears the robin's song
Us once it thrilled against the day
And shook his slumber in a room
Where drifted with the breath of May
The lilac's sweet perfume

The heart of boyhood in him stirs;
The wonder of the morning skies,
Of sunset gold behind the firs,
Is kindled in his dreaming eyes;
How far off is this sordid place,
As turning from our sight away
He crushes to his hungry face
A purple lilac spray.

CONFERENCE OF BAPTIST CHURCHES

The June session of the P.E.I. Baptist Conference commenced with East Point Church 8th and 9th, Earnest prayers were offered and words of cheer and thankfulness were spoken by those present. Evening session began with a devotional session led by Rev. R. H. Bishop, pastor of Murray River. Earnest prayers were offered, preparing for good things to come. Pastor Beaman welcomed the visiting delegates and pastors. Rev. W. B. Crowell of Summerside, Pres. of the conference then took the chair. Rev. W. V. Higgins not being present to fill program on Foreign Missions, Rev. H. S. Cornwall of North River favored the conference with an interesting, instructive and impressive missionary sermon. Bro. Jeremiah S. Clark, who has been laboring several years in medical missionary work among The Indians of Western Canada gave a graphic account of their habits, failings, dispositions, faithfulness and needs. He spoke of Rev. H. G. Mellick of East Point as a strong man in the western work. Third session opened Tuesday morning with devotional service led by Bro. J. S Clark. A season of power and blessing was enjoyed waiting upon God. Pastor G. H. Beaman was elected Sect. Pro-tem. The regular conference business was then taken up. After enrolment of delegates reports of churches were received. They were very encouraging. East Point reported reining interest, 8 received for Baptism. Murray River has had five additions and others professing faith in the saviour. Pastor Bishop does not expect to remain after Aug. 1st. The church has been cleared of debt and some repairs made. Bro. J. A. McLeod reported Dundas without a pastor for several months and they feel it very much. They expect Bro. Warren, student, to minister with them during summer vacation. Sunday-School has been ever green. North River work is going ahead nicely; 15 have taken a stand for the Saviour. 4 have been baptized; 2 more received People are very kind to the pastor and finances in good condition. Bro. Clark has been preaching at Cavendish Sunday evenings since returning from the West and services have been good. They have had no pastor for some time but expect Bro. Camp, student to take charge of the work soon. Summerside field has been enjoying a gracious revival, 26 have been received into the church during the 11 months of the present pastoral Tryon has had 41 additions and more coming. Montague and other fields have also been blessed. Financial report by A. W. Sterns was read showing the churches have contributed $809.33 to convention fund; $400 yet required before July 31st to make up allotted amount. Pres. Crowell spoke to reports of the churches suggesting that gifted laymen should go and preach in neglected placed or relieve their pastors occassionally. Pastor Beaman remarked that laymen and students were not always appreciated. Week churches should hold up their hands. Pres. Crowell gave an eloquent and forcible address on "Laymen's Missionary Movement," showing that missions should be carried on in a business manner by men, well as women and children. Pastor Cornwall opened the afternoon service with a helpful devotional service. Bro. Clark taught a model S. S. Lesson. Rich and helpful thoughts were brought out, many participating. The matter of the next place of meeting was referred to the executive committee. Cavendish was suggested if the brethren there were willing. Sister Fraser, Pres. of the W.M.A. Society then led a helpful meeting. Singing and prayer was enjoyed and two excellent papers read one by Sister Crowell and the other by Sister Bishop. Session closed by an interesting address by Bro. Clark For nearly an hour he told of the work among the western foreigners. Located as he was 26 miles from white people, 130 miles from a doctor among the Indians with a broken language, not yet written or having a grammar. The evening service was well attended Bro. Bishop preached an excellent sermon which was followed by a stirring plea by Bro. Crowell. Earnest prayers were offered and some expressed a desire to become Christians. The conference was well attended and offerings good.

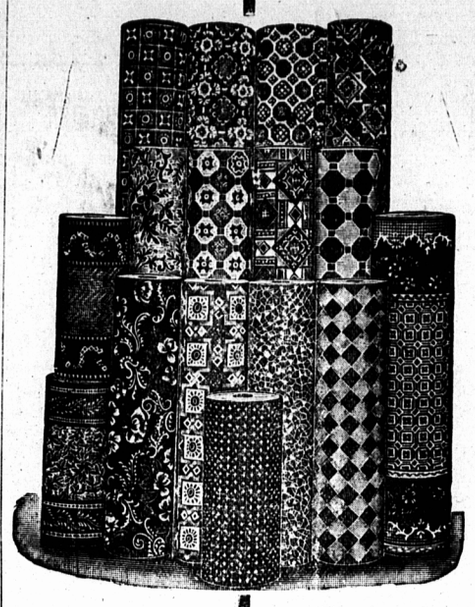
Scotch Linoleums

—AT—

James Paton & Co's

Broadly speaking there are two ways of making Inlaid Linoleum.



(FIRS)T By cutting out the patterns with diesand piecing them together. This means joints likely to break around every pattern and depressed lines to catch dust, water and disease germs.

(SECOND) The OTHER METHOD is by moulding the patterns together in one entire piece, without a joint of depression anywhere.

Which kind of inlaid Linoleum think you will wear the longest and is the most sanitary,

And in Printed the Scotch make is superior because being more paliable the pattern is not likely to crack or chip.

In buying either Inlaid or Printed Linoleum look at Paton's. See their Carpet Man and he will fully explain the above statement to the Independent Order of Foresters especially to the members of Court Minnewawa, Bedeque, for their kindness to me during the long illness of my husband the late Leslie Gould, While he was in the hospital for the insane the dues were paid by the members. At the funeral everything that a society could do for a member was done and soon after the amount for insurance was promptly paid, and I here tender my sincere thanks to the Foresters for their kindness.

I am Grateful
