SORORITY MEETING — Alpha Beta Sigma Phi held their Autumn Model Meeting at Mrs. H. S. Callbeck's hospitable home, 14 Pleasant Street, on Wednesday evening, Mrs. Adèle Moreside being their hostess. The President, Miss Irene MacLeod, introduced three trustees who were given a most cordial welcome. The widely diversified activities of the Sorority, outlined briefly by Mrs. Lois Lines, Miss Irene MacLeod and Mrs. Dorothy Murchison, evinced the lively interest taken by all the members in this growing Sorority. During the business session arrangements were completed for the annual Fall banquet, Halloween treats for the children of the Infirmary and a Christmas parcel for a family in England. The cultural program was on "Painting", cleverly conducted by Mrs. Mary DeBlais and Mrs. Kay Johnstone. Their facts were interesting and informative and "paintings" exhibited were cleverly discussed by the Sorority and much valuable information was gleaned. A delightful social hour followed the closing ritual.

CORNWALL — The October meeting of the Cornwall W.M.E.S. met at the home of Mrs. Bruce MacKinley with a good attendance. The worship service was in charge of Mrs. S. H. Drake, and the theme was, "The Words of Truth." Scripture readings were given by three members. "From all that dwell below the skies," was sung. The Autumn Thankoffering was

Winsloe And Vicinity

Winsloe North School re-opened under the supervision of Miss Jean Raynor.

Miss Olga Ford spent Sunday in North Winsloe the guest of Miss Marion Ford.

Misses Marjorie Crawford, Beatrice Jenkins and Verna Turner spent Thanksgiving Day at their homes in Winsloe.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Turner and two small sons, accompanied by Miss Verna Turner, were visitors to Stanley Bridge on Sunday.

The young folk spent an enjoyable evening in dancing on Tuesday at Winsloe Station Hall, music being presented by Eastern Rhythm Boys.

The weather being considerably damp the potato growers are having difficulty in getting their potatoes out but are considered a good crop.

Thelma Locke, teacher of Winsloe North School, was received and dedicated. Mrs. Chairman presented the second chapter of the Study Book, "West of the George," she made it clear how the various changes are being brought about for the Women of China, and discussion on the chapter followed. Prayers were offered for the missionaries in China and the great work they are doing. The treasurer of W. M. S. gave a good report. The Mission Band plan on having a play presented in the hall at an early date. Mrs. Reggie MacEwen will entertain the members for the November meeting. A fitting tribute was paid to the memory of the late Mrs. Leslie MacEwen, who had been a very devoted member, all present rose and repeated the hymn poem, "We Cannot Think of Them as Dead." Meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction and a social hour.

South School is spending her holidays at her home in O'Leary and will resume her duties on Monday.

Friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Coles extend best wishes for a happy wedded life. The young bride is formerly Miss Lillian Diamond, Winsloe.

The regular Y.P.U. meeting of South Winsloe was held Friday, Oct. 7, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hammond Rodd, at which a number of members and visitors were present. This was the last meeting at which Mr. MacKay would attend, as he is returning to his studies at Pine Hill. We all wish much success.

A number of people from North and South Winsloe went to Highfield Church on Sunday afternoon on the occasion of the 80th anniversary and the farewell service of Mr. John MacKay, B.A., student minister at Winsloe for a number of months. The speakers were Rev. Dr. MacKenzie and Rev. George Alex. We also had the pleasure of having with us the Zion Male Quartette, Charlottetown.

A number of close friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rodd on Tuesday evening, Oct. 12th, to surprise them on the occasion of their 10th wedding anniversary. A short address was read by Mrs. Sterling Clow and the gifts presented by Everett and Byron Clow and Garth Scott, after which they gave Earl and Helen a hearty evening was spent in music and games and a dainty lunch and ice cream was served by the ladies. Friends and relatives with them many more years of happy wedded housing. The remainder of the life.
