REV. NEIL HERMAN will preach in the Prince Edward Theatre, Sunday evening, October 31st at 8.30 o'clock. Admission free. Every body welcome. Subject—A Farce in four acts—Cast of Characters: The Government—The Doctor—The Bootleggers, and The People.

SUCCESSFUL RALLY DAY—There was held in the United Church, Cavendish on the evening of Oct. 17th, a Rally Day service in connection with the Sunday School. Besides the responsive reading, and hymns, each scholar took some special part in the exercises. The beautiful program entitled "United for Service," was splendidly carried through and was a pleasing part of the program. There was a large attendance and a collection of $16.00 was taken in aid of the Maintenance and Extension Fund. Much credit being due the organist and the older girls for the success of this meeting.

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH OVERFLOWS—Owing to the fact that many of the Sunday evening services, in the Central Christian Church, witness hundreds turned away, the services, tomorrow, Sunday evening, will be such as to accommodate all who come. At 7 o'clock, Mr. Herman will speak in the Central Christian Church—and at 8:30—after the services of the other churches are over—he will speak in the Prince Edward theatre on the subject—"A Farce in Four Acts. Cast of characters: The Government—The Doctors—The Bootleggers and The People." The huge and growing comedy of the day will be painted, Mr. Herman claims the humiliations should be taken from our doctors; the bootleggers can be driven to cover; and the rum runners can become a thing of the past. All are welcome.

SUNDAY SERVICES—Divine services Oct. 31, Valleyfield 11 a. m. and 7 p. m., Eldon 3 p. m.

REV. NEIL HERMAN will preach in the Prince Edward Theatre—next Sunday evening, October 31st, at 8.30 o'clock. Rev. Neil Herman will speak in the Prince Edward Theatre on the subject—A FARCE IN FOUR ACTS.—Cast of Characters: Government—Doctors—Bootleggers—People. This address will take the lid off of a business that has become putrid in the nostrils of a thinking people. Why not face the facts? Why not end the farce?

BEAUTIFUL MEMORIAL SERVICE—Various sections of P. E. Island are setting a worthy example by their annual Memorial Day for the men who gave up their lives in the Great War that the rest of us might live as free people. Outstanding among these memorial celebrations is that held yearly at the Soldiers' Monument in Cornwall. This year everything combined to make it a memorable day. Indeed, the weather was ideal, the attendance unusually large and the addresses of Rev. Mr. Aitken of Cornwall and of Hon. Frank MacPhee of Charlottetown most impressive and thought provoking. The people of the district feel deeply grateful to these gentlemen and to others who have kindly helped in these yearly programs.

TOOMS-BUCHANAN NUPTIALS—A pretty autumn wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 27th, at three o'clock, when Miss Mabel, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hector Buchanan, Hunter River, was united in marriage to Mr. Earl G. Toombs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Toombs, North Ruston. The bridal party entered the drawing room which was handsomely decorated for the occasion, to the strains of the Bridal Chorus, from Lohegrin, played by Miss Beatrice MacLeod. The winsome bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked radiant, lovely in a gown of electric blue cut velvet on gray with gray shirtings to match. Her elaborate arm bouquet was of Orpheus roses, white Carnations, and Maiden Hair Fern. The bridesmaid, Miss Ida Toombs, sister of the groom wore rose pink georgette with silver ornament. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Wellington Mutch, Cymra. Immediately preceding the ceremony "O Perfect Love" was very sweetly sung by Miss Rita Pickering. The impressive double ring service was used, Rev. Ewen McDougall, Charlottetown officiating, assisted by Rev. R. H. Baxter, B. A. The bridal party stood under a canopy of white bells, streamers and cut flowers, the color scheme throughout being pink and white. Following the ceremony, over sixty invited guests sat down to the prettily appointed tea tables which were presided over by Mrs. (Dr.) L. E. Croken, Charlottetown and Mrs. D. M. MacLeod. Later in the evening the happy young couple left by motor for Windsor, N. S., where they will visit friends, the bride travelling in a mannish gray tweed suit with hat to match, and wearing a handsome northern muskrat coat, a gift from her father. Many other beautiful gifts including silver, cut glass, linen and several substantial cheques, testify to the popularity of the young couple. An evening previous to her marriage, the bride was endered a miscellaneous shower at her home and was the recipient also on that occasion of many pretty and useful gifts. The Guardian joins with a host of friends in extending heartfelt felicitations.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. MICHAEL MURPHY

The death occurred at Panmure Island, Friday morning after a two months' illness from paralysis of Mrs. Murphy, aged 56 years, wife of Mr. Michael Murphy, High Sheriff for King's County.

Mrs. Murphy before her marriage was Miss Margaret Wight, daughter of the late Adam Wight. She was a most estimable woman, and had a very wide circle of friends, in that part of the country, who will learn with sorrow of her death when virtually in the prime of womanhood.

She leaves to mourn besides a sorrowing husband seven sons and four daughters. The sons are: Terrence in Los Angeles, Howard in Montreal, A. A. in Dartmouth, N. S., and Herbert, Fabien, Jerome and Eugene at home. The daughters are: Mrs. DeWest of La Salle, N. Y., Mrs. P. S. Purdie of Saskatchewan, who was home when her mother passed away, and Stella and Gladys at home. She also leaves three brothers and three sisters.
