LETTER OF SYMPATHY

Mrs. Frederick Webster.
Dear Mrs. Webster.—The members of Dunstaffnage Patriotic Society wish to convey to you their heartfelt sympathy in the great loss you and yours have sustained in the death of your dear son Roy, who seeing his duty clearly left a splendid position in the West to go to fight for his King and country. No greater sacrifice could any man make to give his life for his country. Anything we can do or say will but little alleviate your sorrow, but there is One, the God of all who will bear all our griefs and sorrows. May the glory of His presence lighten your dark day of sorrow. Feel assured, dear friend, that you have our deepest sympathy.
Signed on behalf of the members of Dunstaffnage P. S.,
A. OWEN, Secretary.

ROD AND GUN

March Rod and Gun is on the news stands and its contents are of special interest to lovers of the out of doors. Some of the stories most worth reading are, "A Canadian Cousin" by Marvin Leslie Hayward; "Skin for Skin" by Harry W. Laughey; "The Cache Thief" by P. W. Parkinson; "A Canadian Wolf Story" by T. S. Scott; "A Big Game Hunt at Brunell Creek" by A. G. Ludwig; "A Week in the Mountains of Quebec" by Marian T. Scott; "Sufficient unto the Day" by H. C. Haddon, etc., etc. The regular department devoted to Guns and Ammunition, Fishing Notes, Along the Trap Line, Alpine Club of Canada, etc., are well maintained and the number as a whole is replete with good things. W. J. Taylor, Limited, publishes Rod and Gun Magazine at Woodstock, Ont.

If roots are not available, two pounds of silage daily will provide plenty of succulent food. The silage must be of good quality, however, because poor silage will upset the digestive system of sheep much more quickly than dairy cattle.

Have the pen doors wide enough to prevent crowding the sheep as they pass in and out. Narrow doors and consequent crowding may result in injury to the young lambs born later or abortion.

The lack of money on farms is the root of all evil.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. SYLVAIN W. ARSENAULT
An old respected resident of St. Chrysostome passed away on Thursday morning, in the person of Sylvain W. Arsenault who died at his home at the age of 80 years. For several years he had been in very delicate health being attacked occasionally with some severe illness, till this last one which carried him to his eternal reward. Deceased was a highly respected and esteemed member of the community and his earthly career was practically beyond reproach. He leaves to mourn a son, Leon, who is at the old home and a brother Francis who lives at Urbainville, besides a host of friends and relatives. The funeral took place from St. James Church Saturday morning.—M.

MRS. MARY HARRIS

At Elmira, P. E. I., on the 25th of February, 1918, Mrs. Mary Harris, relict of the late James Harris, died at the age of 87 years. Deceased, though not enjoying good health for a number of years, bore her illness with true Christian fortitude while in this life. She possessed many amiable qualities, being a kind neighbor, a loving wife and an affectionate mother. She leaves to mourn her death two sons and three daughters: John at North Lake; Dominique at the old home; Eliza and Ellen (Mrs. F. McWeeny) in Attleboro, Mass.; Annie at home, besides one step-daughter, Bridget, in Providence, R. I., one grandchild and a number of friends and other relations. Her remains were interred in St. Columba's Cemetery on the 27th, when the last rites of her Holy Religion were performed by Rev. R. McDonald, P. P. May her soul rest in peace.

MRS. JOHN W. HORTON

By the passing away of Mrs. John W. Horton, the community of Gladstone has lost its oldest member, and one who was loved by many, and respected by all who knew her. Mrs. Horton was born at Cape Canso, Nov. 27th, 1825. She moved to Gladstone with her husband in 1852, where she died Feb. 16th, 1918. She was the daughter of David and Dorcas Beers, and one of a family of thirteen, all of whom predeceased her, except the youngest, George W. Beers, of Franklyn Park, Boston. Her husband predeceased her by several years. She is survived by seven children, Mrs. Mabey of Gladstone, Mrs. Archy McDonald of Murray Harbor, Mrs. Will Potter, of Grace City, Dakota, Mrs. Fred Hanson, Acton, Montana, Capt. W. A. in Upper Graville, N.S., John A. in Seekonk, Mass., and David A. on the old home. Mrs. Horton was a devoted and consistent member of the Presbyterian church for nearly seventy years, and lived a life in accordance with the teaching of her beloved Saviour, and being dead yet speaketh.

MR. W. W. STUMBLE

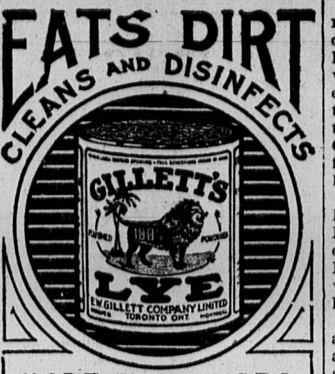

The old friends of Mr. W. W. Stumbles were shocked to read the announcement of his death in British Columbia. Mr. Stumbles was, before he occupied office at Ottawa, prominent in the Conservative party here in the Methodist Church, to which he belonged, and as member of the firm of McKenzie & Stumbles. He joined the Civil Service at Ottawa in the year 1880, and was for many years Chief of Reports and Statistics in the Department of Marine and Fisheries. After the death of his wife, nee Miss Blitch—about a year and a half ago—he obtained superannuation, and went, at the beginning of the present winter, to live near his son at Meritt, B. C., and enjoyed fairly good health until his death, which was the result of a paralytic stroke. He leaves, besides his son, two daughters, Mr. Stephen Stumbles, residing in Malden, Mass., and three sisters: Miss Stumbles residing in Malden, Mrs. Albert Crosby, Summerside, and Mrs. Hammond Kelly, Southport. Mr. Stumbles was a first-class official and a good citizen.

DEATH OF MRS. DONALD MCKENZIE

A wave of genuine sympathy and sorrow passed over the whole community, when on the afternoon of Feb. 13th, it became known that the spirit of Mrs. Donald MacKenzie has passed away at the age of 38 years, after a brief illness of only five days of

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your Back hurts or Bladder bothers you, drink lots of water.
When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 gallons of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.
Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.
Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what becomes of your kidney trouble and back ache.

leuro-pneumonia. She was the eldest daughter of the late William Walker of Kensington, and leaves to mourn besides a sorrowing husband and four small children, her mother, one sister, Mrs. Fred Clark, of Wilnot, and one brother, D. Scot Walker, of N. Battleford. The late Mrs. MacKenzie was of a singularly bright and attractive personality, with rare qualities of mind and heart. All her undertakings were in early girlhood consecrated to the service of her father, and whether as teacher in her public school, or in the home as life and mother, she ever exemplified those gifts and graces that make a noble Christian character. She will be missed in the church and Sunday school; also the Missionary Society where for years she filled the position of secretary. The Red Cross Society to which she gave cheerfully of her time and means, will greatly miss her companionship and counsel. The funeral services were held in the Presbyterian Church, which was closely crowded, in spite of inclement weather with a wide circle of sympathetic friends who gathered to pay the last tribute of love and respect. The service was led by her pastor, Rev. T. V. Goodwill, assisted by Rev. Neish Bellar and Johnson. The interment was in Kensington Cemetery, the pall bearers being Messrs James B. Prof. J. John W. Harding, John H. Walk, James Pendergast, Dr. Lockhart and A. J. Brown.

URBAN JAMES MULLALLY

On Saturday, Feb. 23rd, the Angel of Death visited the home of William J. Mullally, Souris River, and called his earthly reward the second son of Urban James. Death under any circumstances is sad, but when it strikes a dutiful and loving son in the first years of his early manhood, it is most keenly felt. The link thus snapped from the family chain leaves a gap that can never more be filled—a gap that is evident even after time in its merciful flight has brought calm and resignation to the sorrowing hearts of the bereaved family, relatives and friends. But for the truly Christian family, death is robbed of its bitter sting by the perfect confidence in God's all-merciful Providence.
Urban enjoyed the best of health up to ten months ago, when he contracted a lingering disease from which he never recovered, but gradually sank until death mercifully came to end his suffering. During these long months he always bore himself with the Christian patience, accepting his illness as coming from the hand of God. No word of complaint, no murmur of impatience ever escaped from his lips. A friend to old and young, he was ever ready to assist those who needed his help, and when death came, it found him surrounded with loving hands and heavy hearts, who, while they grieved for a son, a brother and a true friend, were edified by the peaceful passing of a soul, strengthened by the last rites of the Holy Catholic church, to its Maker, whose faithful servant he always was in this life.

The funeral, which took place on Feb. 25th, was very largely attended. His pastor, the Rev. John A. Macdonald sang a requiem mass in St. Mary's Church, after which all that was mortal of Urban Mullally was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery.

There are left to mourn the loss of a loving son and brother, his father and mother, six sisters and six brothers, besides a numerous host of relatives and friends. To the grief-stricken family and relatives we extend our sincere and heartfelt sympathy.

MRS. JOHN McDONALD.

There passed away at Poplar Point on the eve of March 2nd, Mrs. John McDonald in the 87th year of her age. She was one whose presence will be greatly missed and whose place will not soon, or easily be filled.

To the rising and the passing generation alike; she was a landmark of the community and will all preserve kind and pleasing memories of her humble and self-sacrificing life.

All were her friends, and for all she had a kindly greeting and a word of sympathy for the afflicted. The deceased was stricken with paralysis about five years ago, from which she never recovered, and for which time she never regained her speech.

Her death, like her life was calm and peaceful, as if the unseen hands of the angels, were tenderly closing her eyes, and gently removing her precious soul from its mortal habitation.

The last rites and consolation of the Church, were conferred on her by Rev. D. J. G. McDonald of St. Georges by whom she was frequently visited during her long and tedious illness. Her funeral took place to St. Georges cemetery on Monday the 4th and was largely attended, despite the inclement weather.

She leaves to mourn a sorrowing husband, two sons and three daughters, David and Mary A. of Poplar Point, Michael of Little Pond, Katherine of Falconwood Hospital and Mrs. James Moray of New York also one sister Mrs. John Campbell, Dundas.

The pallbearers were Joseph Campbell, Herbert McLeod, James H. McCormac, J. D. Banks, James Morrison and Angus McDonald.

Loving friends weep not for me I longed to be at rest.

How happy, happy I shall be When pilloved on my Saviour's breast.

Oh! the hope, the hope is sweet, That we soon in Heaven may meet There we all shall happily be; Rest from pain and sorrow free.

THEY HAD IT

The fussy old gentleman entered the chemist's shop the same time every afternoon, and fired off a string of questions regarding the treatment of various ailments. But after the assistant had done his best to answer all the queries he always left without buying anything.

At last the assistant got tired of giving advice free, and waited an opportunity to choke the old gentleman off. At last it came.

"My hair keeps falling out," said the old man one day. "Can you give me something to keep it in?"

"Certainly," said the assistant, smiling. "I have here a beautiful cardboard box!"
