 —BIG SHIPMENT.—The largest entry that ever went through the Customs House, Summerside and possibly the largest ever put through in any Custom House on the Island was put through Friday when the firm of Messrs. Brace, McKay and Co., Ltd., paid a revenue of between $3000 and $4000 on a shipment of English Fox netting and this is only one quarter of original shipment.
 —GUN ON ITS WAY.—Word was received Thursday that the captured German gun which Summerside won and lost on way coming, is now in Moncton, N.B., Now dear readers if you are good at arithmetic just take a piece of paper and figure out how long it will take to arrive at its destination and prepare for a bumper time. "For it will be a weed time in our old town that night." Any way we can bank on our having the gun in a very short while.

—THE ACKNOWLEDGED LAR-GEST dealers in fox netting in America—Brace, McKay and Co., Ltd.—received Thursday, the 27th inst 920 rolls—the third shipment this spring direct from English manufacturer. This netting is entirely different from any other—being made from specially drawn wire, extra number of twists in the meshes, extra silvered, extra heavily galvanized after being woven; every roll guaranteed.

—The catastrophes of history, and of private life as well, are all due to one cause—the cessation of conditions that were temporary but believed to be permanent. That was the cause of the present war.
 America was discovered in 1870.
 Immigration flowed in. There was more food in the world than the people in the world could consume. They began to manufacture things. The steam engine and the power loom helped. A coolie in China could command what was once the peculiar treasure of kings. Ships went to the ends of the earth and brought home guano, the accumulated fertilizer of ages, and nitrates deposited in the slow process of geological time. In thirty years the world was plundered. Early in this century the price of food began to approach the normal again. America exported wheat only in years of unusual abundance. The world fell into panic and war came. It always does.

GOD IS LOVE.
 That God is love His works declare He made them all in beauty rare,
 With adaptation in each part, Surpassing all of human art.
 The Heavens He beautified with light,
 The sun by day, the moon by night;
 They speak an origin Divine,
 And of our God a will benign.

The mountains He created all, And hills and vales both great and small,
 Lovely in their summer glory, Interspersed with forests hoary.

The streams and rivers that do flow,
 And onward to the ocean go,
 And dew and rain from Heaven above, Declare that He is God of love.

Abundant fish is in the sea; Numberless beasts on land we see;
 While countless fowls fly in the air,
 Which show that God for man has care.

To man dominion God has given, Over all creatures under Heaven; O'er all creation made him lord, Which shows to man the love of God.

All fruitful trees He caused to grow,
 And various grains that man might sow;
 Abundance is for man beast, And in good seasons both can feast.

The earth He decked with lovely flowers, Nourished with sunshine and with showers,
 He put rich tints upon their leaves That He observers eyes might please.

They cast their odors on the breeze, Which all our nasal senses please The air with rich perfume they fill, And thus God shows He loves us still.

Man God created from the dust, With constitution holy, just;
 His body beautiful was made,
 In Him no evil, not a shade.

In body noble and erect, None evil could of him suspect;
 He was without a sin or flaw, His nature was a perfect law.

When Eve and Adam fell away, How sad and sombre was the day; Forthwith from Eden they were sent,
 That of their sin they might repent.

And yet God loved poor sinners lost, Though sin had Eden to them cost, Still His beloved son He gave,
 From sin and Hell our souls to save.

This was the Father's crowning love,
 When He sent Jesus from above;
 To seek and save us Jesus came,
 And take away our guilt and shame.

Christ loved us, and for us He died; Unswerving justice this required;
 He loved us with a love Divine, Which in His life and death did shine.

The holy spirit then was given, By Son and Father sent from Heaven,
 That He redemption should apply, With grace and love our souls supply.

God's love our guilt away won't take,
 For sin we must confession make, Believe in Christ with all our heart, Who grace and wisdom will impart.

But all who in their sins remain, Will never unto Heaven attain;
 But must depart from Christ away, When comes the final judgment day.

But sinners now can mercy find,
 And this let all men bear in mind, Salvation full will Jesus give,
 And then we shall forever live.

From living fountains then above, We'll forever drink His love; Throughout eternity will sing,
 The praises of our Saviour King.

FOX RANCHERS.

(1) During the last four or five years it was almost impossible to obtain strictly high grade Fox Wire, but lately this has all changed. By booking our order last winter for thousands of rolls of Special "Red Label" Fox Netting with the largest manufacturers in the British Empire we have obtained a special netting which has extra twists in the meshes, as this makes it stronger. It has been heavily galvanized with pure spelter after weaving which solders all the meshes together. Each roll hangs without bagging or sagging, and is guaranteed full length.

(4) This Fox Wire Netting is of such a high state of perfection that an ever increasing demand is being created throughout Canada, United States, and Newfoundland, each and every mail bringing more and more enquiries from all the Provinces from the Atlantic to the Pacific. We shipped recently a Standard carload to a ranch in New Brunswick. They bought on account of the extra good quality.

But we shall witness the distress of our fellow human beings in their vain attempt to escape the industrial overthrow, especially of the female of our kind who so gaily has declared her industrial self sufficiency, her independence of the conventions so laboriously built up for her protection. There are at the moment in America, as they boast, eleven millions of women engaged in uncongenial toil, in unproductive occupations, writing illiterate letters on machines, who are about to face the facts of life, for whom the possession of a vote will be but a stony recompense for the reality they abandoned.
 There are pessimists amongst us who affect to believe that the correction of hunger will be long delayed. I am not of the number. It is coming soon, is here already, —that is the measure of my optimism. It is from inflation of the mind that the world is suffering, from the idea that life is inevitably easeful; that there is some magic against work; some political witchery against idlen-ness, vice, sickness, old age. Domestic animals suffer from the same delusion, and they are the more certain of continual ob-
