The latest news, first of all.

The tide will be high this afternoon at 12.28 and tomorrow afternoon at 1.04.

D. R. Morrison and P. G. Clark, Summerside, came to the city yesterday afternoon. They are registered at the Victoria Hotel.

The lecture on Sicily to be given in Kindergarten Hall, Jan. 31, is under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Methodist church.

Attention is called to the program in this paper of Christopher Jr. All should secure their tickets when the show opens at 10 o'clock this morning.

The following is the opinion of many, "The best show I have seen in the Opera House here or elsewhere for some time." All who can should see Christopher Jr. at the Opera House, Jan'y 27th.

Elmer Jenkins and Miss Maud Jenkins, Georgetown, came to the city on the Earl Grey yesterday morning.
 Miss Jenkins, who is a nurse in the Massachusetts General Hospital, will spend a few weeks at their former home.

W. B. McKenzie, J. H. McGrath and E. Lockhart, I. C. R. Engineer came to the city yesterday and registered at the Victoria Hotel. They will inspect the new round house at the P. E. I. R. today. Mr McKenzie says that this building is one of the most up-to-date, and, at present, is superior to any on the I. C. R.

The following were registered at the Queen Hotel yesterday: Albert Ing-at reuert, A. A. Adams, Oxford, O.
 Dan Hynes, Montague; A. Loudo, Ottawa; J. H. Haley, Windsor; F. O.
 Donahon, Powna; W. C. Stewart, Westville, J. C. Peters, Sydney; E.
 Clara, Montreal; L. E. Distant, Hal-fax; Neil McLean, Summerside; W.
 Weeks Jr, City; W. Owen, Keppoc;
 M. S. Lea, Marguerite Vanderstau-Verne Vanderstine, Anna Vandestine, Frank Lea, William Lea de Little Lea, Vernon River.

The semi-annual examination of Springfield school was held January 15th and notwithstanding the disagreeable weather a number of visitors were present. Leonard MacDonald and Miss Jennie Howard duly examined the intermediate and primary classes. Both declared themselves well pleased with the answers received. The teacher then questioned the senior class which responded very deliberately. The children presented the teacher, Miss Mabel McLeod (of Newiasgow), with a valuable manicure set. Miss McLeod thanked her pupils in a few appropriate words.

Mrs. J. A. Pillow of North Street Gananoque, Ont., says: "Mi-o-na is worth its weight in gold for quick and permanent curing dyspepsia. became so bad that I was unable to leave my bed. There was a constant burning in my stomach, I would belch up gas every few minutes and could eat but very little, as the food would quickly ferment and make me feel that caused a serious depression of the heart. Perspiration would break out all over my body, I would be come so weak that I could not stand and would often fall on the floor in helpless state. The pains in my stomach were terrible. I could find no position in which to sit or lie without suffering, and I was so nervous that the least noise affected me. Headaches were constant. I would become dizzy and spots would appear before my eyes. I had no ambition to get round and everything seemed to tire me. The first box of Mi-o-na gave me more relief than anything I had previously tried. The second box of Mi-o-na cured me. I am well and strong and I have not had an hour's suffering since. I will always be grateful to Mi-o-na for the cure give me and glad to recommend it.
 In the face of such evidence it is easy to understand why Geo. E.
 Hughes feels assured in saying that your money back if Mi-o-na fails to relieve either trivial or serious stomach trouble.

 tisers in this or any other issue of this paper, are requested to mention The Guardian.

Mrs W. E. Bagnall, Ottawa, was the hostess at a tea at her home recently. Mrs J. W. Robertson of this Province, was among the guests. Mrs Bagnall's husband, the well-known lawyer, is a native of this province.

Many ladies will bear with pleasure that Reddin Bros have imported some brass-craft sets which are now most fashionable and eagerly sought after.
 The work is exceedingly pretty and amply done and the firm's thoughtfulness will be much appreciated.

Dr Andrew MacPhail, Montreal, formerly of this province, delivered an address before the Canadian Club at Brockville recently. His subject was "Canadian Politics." The Montreal Herald contains a cut of Dr.
 MacPhail in a recent issue.

At the wedding of Miss Janet L.
 Fielding, eldest daughter of Hon W.
 L. Fielding, Minister of Finance, to C. N. Macfee, London, Eng., which took place on Wednesday, January 19th, at Ottawa, Sir Louis and Lady Davies, formerly of this City, were among the guests.

The business of Hyndman & Co. which was established in 1876 has been formed into a joint stock company and from the 1st, February will be carried on under the style of Hyndman & Co. Limited, the directors of the new company being—F. W.
 Hyndman, President; J. O. Hyndman, Vice-president & Secretary; T. E. Mc-Intyre, Treasurer.

No body should miss the lecture in the Cathedral basement to-night. The subject is a delightful one, and it is the hands of one who has been all over the scene, and then the object of which the lecture is given is such a noble one that one surely cannot afford to be one of those who will not assist. All should keep that evening clear.

A very pleasant and enjoyable evening was spent at "Meadow Lea" the home of Mrs Lucy Ferguson, New London, on Jan 18th, the occasion being a house party and dance given in honor of her son, L.M. Ferguson of North Bay, who is spending his holidays at home. The music in charge of Prof Dempsey of Malpeque delighe-tfully presented. Supper was served at 11.30 o'clock after which dancing was resumed until the wee sma' hours of the morning.

New Wonderland has had many popular singers, but none has equalled Austin Trainor, who is now filling an engagement at this popular amusement place. Last evening the proprietor was simply annoyed by having to stop the picture machine resulting in order to give Mr Trainor an opportunity to respond to repeat his encores. In his impersonation of Harry Lauder, the great Scottish entertainer he fairly brought down the house. Many hope the management will extend his engagement.

The February Strand Magazine contains an excellent amount of interesting material, the fiction being particularly strong. Mason's detective story, "The Murder at the Villi-cove," is continued and H. G. Wells contributes a characteristic story entitled "My First Aeroplane." There are a number of other capital stories.
 The articles deal with subjects of great out-of-the-way character for which the Strand is famous. "Spy," a well-known caricaturist, writes "Reminiscences," and a number of authors relate their experiences in the auction-room which are highly interesting. All who play "Patience" "Solitaire" will be interested in Professor Dalton's article entitled "My Favorite Patiences." The contention is this month devoted to "The Child and the Camera."
