THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN
Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown.

The latest news, first of all.

Lestock Anderson, merchant, St. Peters, was in the city yesterday.

Capt Cameron, City, came in on the mail train last evening from Summerside.

Arthur LeBlanc and Oscar Melanson, Moncton, are spending a vacation in this city.

Miss Jennie C. Bradley, Mill View, has returned home after visiting friends in this city.

Hedley B. Weeks of the P. E. I. R. was a passenger by the western train last evening to Tignish.

The attention of readers is called to the mortgage sale ad of Philip P. Coyle which appears in this issue.

Mrs. Charles Pike, Providence, R. I., spent the week-end with her aunt, Mrs. Horatio Webster, Fairview.

Mrs. Roderick McDonald, Roxbury, Mass., is visiting at Brackley, the guest of her parents, John and Mrs. Barr.

As will be seen by their ad. elsewhere the great half-price curtain sale of Prowse Bros., Ltd., will take place today and tomorrow.

George D. Pope of the Inland Department, Ottawa, who is spending a vacation in this province, returned last evening from Malpeque.

Mrs. H. R. Crockett and son Carl of Summerside, and Mrs. Frank Crockett and sons, Ernest and Everett of Portland, Maine, are the guests of Mrs. Silas Prowse of Thorndyke.

Miss Minnie Livingston left yesterday morning on a visit to Boston, accompanied by her cousin, Mrs. A. Manson, who is returning home after spending three weeks of pleasure in this Province.

S. S. Harland is on the West River service today, leaving here at 3.30 p. m. Owing to the Insurance Underwriters' picnic at McEwen's wharf, the steamer will not be due on return until about 8.30 p. m., as she cannot leave here before 11.15 a. m.

The S. S. Harland makes the trip to West River today. She will not return to Charlottetown in the evening quite as early as usual as the Life Underwriters Convention are having a Picnic at McEwen's Wharf. It will probably be eight or nine o'clock when she returns.

T. H. Dawson and Edward Sharkey, North Tryon, were in the city yesterday on their way to Montague, where they commence remodelling the residence of John Robertson, Lower Montague. The past workmanship of these contractors is sufficient proof that their work on this job will be most creditable.

Rev E. E. Styles will preach on Sunday, July 31st, in the Methodist churches at Clifton, (Lot 48) at 11 o'clock, Mt. Herbert at 2.30 and Pownal at 7 o'clock. At Pownal Mr. Styles will commence a series of sermons, to be delivered on Sunday evening, on St. Paul's Epistle to the Philippians.

Miss Bertha M. Webster, of Fairview, Lot 65, has been appointed principal of Rosedale School in Chilliwack, B.C., and leaves for her future home about August 10th. Miss Webster formerly taught at Kingston and will be much missed in the teaching profession. Miss Irene Currie of Fairview will also accompany her.

At the Methodist camp meetings at Herwick U. S. A. in August, one of the leading speakers will be Rev. J. M. McInnis M. A., Litt., Mr. McInnis is a Canadian who has made a place and a name for himself in the United States. He is a native of P. E. Island. At present he is the pastor of the Gaston Presbyterian church, of Philadelphia, Pa., which has a membership of over a thousand. He is to address no fewer than four summer schools and conferences during August. A year ago he spent a day in Truro, the guest of Rev. A. F. and Mrs. Thomson, Willow street. He was expected in Truro again this summer, but his engagements make it necessary for him to leave Herwick on the afternoon of the day on which he will give his last address there. Mr. McInnis is a close student, an extensive reader, a fluent and interesting speaker, and takes his place on the platform with such men as Robert Speer, John Willis Bear, Dr. Torry, Dr. Chapman, and other leading thinkers and orators in the United States.—Truro News.

Spiro Powder is guaranteed to remove odor of perspiration—relieves chafing, prickly heat and inflamed parts. As a foot powder it is unequalled. 25c. per package. E. A. Foster, Central Druggstore, successor to A. W. Reddin, Sunnyside.

A competent drug clerk is wanted. See classified column.

A. S. Hewitt, City, was a passenger returning on the mail train last evening.

Allan Forsythe, of Miller Bros, City, returned last evening on the mail train.

Miss Carrie Prowse of Thorndyke is visiting her aunt, Miss Prowse, Kent Street, city.

Miss Anna Molyneux of Boston is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. H. Larter, of North River.

Rev E. C. Corey and wife, Petitediac, N. B. well known here, are spending a few days in Salisbury.

Robert McNeill, Fairview, has remodelled and painted his dwelling house and it now presents a fine appearance.

The mail train arrived last evening at ten ten, twenty minutes late. All other inward trains of yesterday were on time.

The Rev. D. MacLean will preach in St. Peter's on Sabbath first, July 31st. Services at Marie at 11 a. m. Greenwich 2.30 p. m. St. Peter's 7 p. m.

Miss Doretta Dunn of Murray River has returned to her home after spending a pleasant visit at Hillside, where she was the guest of the Misses Fraught.

Elsewhere in this issue appears the ad. of the Halifax Ladies' College and Conservatory of Music, in which is given particulars of the different branches taught.

James Smith, South Shore, a young and enterprising farmer, is building a large new dwelling house from up-to-date designs on the McMahon estate at Rocky Point, which he purchased some time ago. Hugh McPhee has the contract.

The Patriot of yesterday says that The Guardian complained of the firemen loafing around the City Hall. This is not correct. The item in The Guardian did not refer to or mention the firemen, but referred to others who gather there during the evenings and whose noisy behavior on many occasions is a just occasion for complaint.
