The church of the Immaculate Conception, Palmer Road, was the scene of an interesting event on Tuesday morning the 26th inst, when Cyril Chaisson of Tignish and Miss May Gallant, daughter of Capt. F. Gallant, Leoville were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. Rev. Dr. Gauthier officiating. The bride presented a charming appearance in a suit of grey broadcloth, with Persian trimmings and hat to match, while the bridesmaid, Miss Mildred Gallant looked decidedly pretty in a suit of blue ladies cloth. The groom was capably supported by Augustine McInnis. After the marriage ceremony the wedding party repaired to the home of the bride's parents where they partook of dinner—a feast suitable to the occasion and highly creditable to the culinary artists under whose direction it was prepared. In the evening the party drove to the home of the groom where a bounteous repast followed by a choice program of music and dancing, led the way into the "wee sma hours" and pronounced a fitting conclusion to a joyous festive occasion. The wedding presents were many and valuable testifying in a marked degree to the popularity of the young couple—the stalwart young groom and the prettiest bride of the season. To Mr. and Mrs. Chaisson The Guardian extends congratulations.

THE Prince of Wales

THE mere fact that a young man takes porridge for his breakfast is not especially significant.

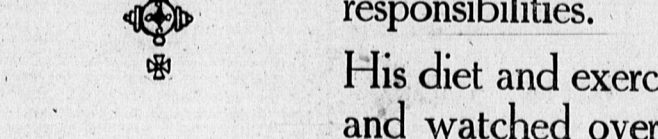

But when the young man happens to be the future ruler of the British Empire, the fact becomes important.

H.R.H. The Prince of Wales has been reared with extreme care, that he may be fit in mind and body for extreme responsibilities.

His diet and exercise are guided and watched over by wise and great physicians. Regularly at breakfast he eats porridge.

Ask your doctor to tell you about the value of porridge to growing children.

Then make Tillson's Rolled Oats the daily breakfast food in your home.
